-Now is a good time to indulge in a ride through our valleys and over our mountains, and David Ebbert's is the place to get your teams at very low prices.

-Mr. Jacob G. Kleppinger, residing mar Siegfried's IBridge, was 'recently prostrated by a paralytic stroke. The shock was a severe one, but he is now again in a fair way of recovery.

-The Wilkesbarre Daily says: narrow escapes in the mines are both numerous and of an exciting character, There are daily more hair-breadth ones in our underground workshops than in any other half dozen vocations put together in the world.

-- A vein of anthracite coal 241feet thick has been struck at the Preston colliery, No. 3, by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. This is well named the "Mammoth Vein."

-T. D. Clauss, the merchant tallor is now receiving an immense stock of spring and summer styles of cloths, cassimeres and vesting, which he is pre-pared to make up in the latest fashion at very popular prices for cash.

-Mrs. Sidney Miller, wife of Joseph T. Miller, who was murdered near Leb-anon, Pa., a week ago, has been committed by the Coroner on the charge of murder. Miller was buried Sunday, nearly 3000 people attending his funer-

-Joseph P. Conner and his wife —Joseph P. Conner and his wife were drowned at Upper Lime Ridge, in Columbia county, Sunday, by their horse taking fright and backing into the canal. They were returning from church at the time. Mr. Conner was Vice President of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society. Agricultural Society.

-Extraordinary things are happening in almost every community now-a-days, but one of the most eggs-traordinary occurrences in this place, is the de-positing, by a 10 months' old hen of Mr. D. Montz's, of an egg measuring 734 by 6 inches.

-We would respectfully inform the "P. T.," that we are not just now pre-pared to fight a "libel suit," by pub-lishing any and everything sent by persons who are afraid themselves to face the music, and so hide behind a non de plume or simple initials. Oz, no, not any, thank you.

-Prof. A. W. Vananda, leader of the Phonix Cornet Band, of Mauch Chunk, dropped into our sanctum Wed-nesday, and kindly tendered us a com-plimentary to their concert, to be held in Oak Hall, Mauch Chunk, on the 25th and 26th inst.

-Gent's furnishing goods, comprising white and colored shirts, underwear, collars, neckties, &c., in immense quantities, and at prices lower than ever before offered, at T. D. Clauss' merchant tailoring establishment, Bank street, Lehighton.

-The reign of mud in the streets has been succeeded by the reign of dust, and the change is not as great an improvement as could be desired. The mud lay quietly in its place, but the dust fills our eyes, and noses, and ears, and sifts into our very houses. If the wind would only keep in one quarter long enough, it might blow the dust off into the river, but that is not likely to happen.

-The Lehighton Musical and Dramatical Association, will give an enter tainment in the Public School Hall, on the evening of the 18th inst., for the benefit of the Citizens' Cornet Band, of this borough. From what we have been able to learn this will be one of the best entertainments ever presented to the people of this borough, and the object being a good one, we have no doubt but it will be liberally patronized. Tickets 25 cents each. Buy one

-The Easton Argus noticing the dene Belillehen postmaster, says; What became of the money he earned in his sixteen years as post-master has not yet been made public, and may never be. We have no doubt a good share of it was spent in controlling elections.

-In the Wagner-Boyer abortion case, the bill of indictment was sent to the Grand Jury, but it having been in-timated that that body intended to ig-nore the bill, the District Attorney is said to have withdrawn it. The reason assigned for the intended action of the Grand Jury in this case, is that the county has already suffered enough in the way of costs in the case, and the improbability that a conviction could be obtained. It is to be hoped that this will be the end of the matter.

-Quite a large number of the relations and intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Graver, assembled at their residence on Bank street, this borough, on Thursday evening last, it being the occasion of the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Graver's births. In the general joy of the occasion the printer was not forgotten, for which kind rememberance they will please accept our thanks and best wishes for their life and happiness.

-An aged widow lady resident on shigh street, who had placed her all in the keeping of the banking firm of Wm. H. Blumer & Co., has through grieving and worriment of mind over the possible loss of her savings, or at best, part of them, become insane within the past few days. The case is a sad and mournful one, and there is much sympathy expressed for the poor unfortunate. It is to be hoped that the malady is only transient.—Allentown

Court Proceedings.

The various Courts of Carbon County conven-ed at 2 veloct on Monday aformous. Hon. S. S. Droho and As ocutes presiding. The unaveil-able preliminaries connected with the organization of the Court, required coamilerable time; but at half past a velock the Grand Jury were briefly charged and had retired for deliberation, and in a few minutes thereafter Thes P. Flaher and Patrick McKeuns were brought into the Court room, as their's were the first cases to be seted upon. Both, as will be remembered, had been found suffix of murder at a previous
