The arbitrary manner in which Hobart & Co., of Nesquehoning, col-lect store-bills due them by employees of the L & W. Coal Co. gives rise to considerable complaint This firm un-doubtedly have the inside track, or they couldn't collect their bills through the Company's paymaster without consulting the employee entitled to his pay. This matter may yet lead to trouble, as the Company have no right to retain the pay due their employees without their consent or written order. -The gatherings of loafers and roughs at the east end of the East M.

Chunk bridge, is a nuisance that should be abated by the East M. Chunk Borough authorities. ---Mr. Muton Dimmick and his factotum, "Jocko," are expected to return from Florida the latter part of the present month.

-A co-operation butcher shop is contemplated by those opposed to the ex-orbitant prices exacted by the butchers for meat.

-Now that he has everything fitted to suit him, John Behler's Mauch Chunk Hotel is one of the most tidy second class hotels in town.

-Herman Stoll, our principal ton-sorial artist's assistant, loft Mauch Chunk on Wednesday afternoon for Philadelphia, where he'll remain until the 10th inst., when he contemplates to sail for Europe. His disparture caused quite a stir among his large circle of friends, all of whom accompanied him to the train to see him off.

-John Brighton has been dispersing Buck Beer since last Saturday. To-day all of Massrs. Glanz & Kuebler's customers, both here and in East M. Chunk, namely : Louis Armbruster, the Schweibinz Brothers, Leopold Reis and Charles Goetzinger, will draw their supply ; and if the quality should prove equal to the reputation Eastonians give it,a high time may be expect-ed hereabouts this afternoon and evening, with a pientiful supply of headaches to-morrow.

-Some forty children and four adult converts were confirmed in the Roman Catholic faith at St. Joseph's R. C. Church on last Sunday. The congregation present on the occasion was larger than the house would admit and the decorations of the Church such as had never been seen in these parts. St. Joseph's is unmistakably the most flourishing congregation in the Mauch Chunks. The result of the labors of Rev. Father Heinen begins to show itself.

-The plank walk between the Central R. R. Station and the East Mauch Chunk bridge has at last received the long needed repairs. —On Tuesday evening the member-ship of Kossuth Lodge, No. 36, D. O. H., celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Lodge by a banquet and ball at Schulenberg's hotel, Upper M. Chunk, and the time had on the occasion is highly extolled by all who participated. -Jeff Fister, Chas. Nixon, Frank Ward, Geo. Painter and Fred. Breneis er, left on last Tuesday on a trout fishing excursion for the head waters of the Tobyhanna.

-There was no disturbance on the 1st last, on the part of the Jersey Centrai brakemen on account of the reduction, as had been expected. —An additional 20 per cent, of their back pay will soon be distributed among the employees of the N. J. Central. -At last Thursday evening's meet-ing of the Atheoxam, "happy Som" Certright was arraigned on a charge of libel and acquitted. The jurors who tried him were all members of the gentler sex, which in a manner accounts the 35th year of his age. --Loading at the chutes, lively during the greater part of last week, con-tinues so up to the present writing,

On the 10th inst a successful operaon was performed upon Mr. Wilson teinmetz, the milk vender of this Steinmetz, Steinmetz, the mile vender of this place, who eight years ago, while in the service of the L. V. R. R. Co., jumped from a gravel train while in motion and dislocated one of the small bones of the foot, which on account of its peculiar situation could never be properly reduced and finally, from the continued irritation of the missplaced bone, the foot became very sore and painful, which incapacitated the man from performing any labor. He had been treated by different physicians without any material benefit, and two years ago he spent several weeks in the Pennsylvania Hospital, at Philadelphia, where be obtained but temporary ra-lief. The foot had at no time been lief. completely healed, for there were al-ways from one to seven discharging openings, and it was swollen to nearly twice its natural size. This Spring the action in the diseased part became very This Spring the violent, which gradually exhausted the man to an alarming extent, and to save his life, which was fast chbing away by the continual drain upon his system, he agreed with his physician to sacri-fice the member, which was removed under unlavorable circumstances by Dr. W. A. Derhamer,; assisted by Dr. J. G. Zern, of Weissport. A dissection of the foot was made and it was found that the bones forming the instep, bad by the action of disease been completely dissolved, leaving nothing but a small portion of an irregular bony mass.
