The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1877.

Local and Personal.

Local news is just about as scarce as hen's teeth.

The boy with the willow whistle has put in an appearance.

A full line of Hamburg Edging at the Bee Hive Store of Daniel Graver.

Farmers pronounce the prospects for a fair wheat crop as being very good.

Muslins at five cents a yard upwards at the Bee Hive Store of Daniel Graver.

On the 21st inst., the Switch Back railroad at Mauch Chunk will be opened for the season.

Light Harness, very cheap for cash, at Milton Flory's, near the canal bridge, Weissport.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the State of Pennsylvania will meet at Erie on May 15th.

Daniel Graver has just arrived from Philadelphia with a large stock of dry goods, groceries, &c. &c.

Mrs. Wm. M. DuFour, of Williamsport, arrived in town Thursday morning, on a visit to her numerous friends hereabout.

Hats and caps in every variety of style and quality, at T. D. Clauss' merchant tailoring establishment, at prices to suit everybody.

Messrs. Laury & Peters will remove their tailoring business and the post office into their new building during the coming week.

Ephraim Rupp was accidentally killed by a fall of coal in the Lincoln mine, near Pine Grove, Schuylkill county, Monday afternoon.

Pirewood at $2.25 a load; and a new and handsome lot of baby carriages, very cheap just received at Semmel & Gable's store.

Tremendous slaughter in ladies, gents', youths' and childrens' boots, shoes and gaiters, at T. D. Clauss', Bank street, Lehighton. Call now!

On Sunday (to-morrow), Rev. S. F. Leopold will occupy the pulpit of Ebenezer Church, of Weissport. All are invited to attend. J. K. KIRBY, Pastor.

A special service for the children will be held in the Evangelical Church, of this borough, to-morrow (Sunday) evening at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. J. C. Bliem, Pastor.

David Ebbert's elegant teams are still in demand for pleasure trips through our beautiful valleys. The reason of this is his teams are so low all can afford to ride.

Hiney & Kowbatham's huckster wagon visits Lehighton and Weissport every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, with fresh fish, fruits and vegetables of choicest quality.

T. D. Clauss, the tailor, has just returned from the city, and is now opening an entirely new stock of spring goods. Call and see them.

The Commissioners of this county are in a fearful wick up condition—when one will then the other won't. They don't seem to pull together in any shape. What's the matter?

Moving Westward—Geo. Raworth left this place on Wednesday evening for Clinton, Iowa, and Wm. Ash, lately an apprentice in this office, left on the same train for Oskosh, Wisconsin.

Another immense arrival of new goods at Nusbaum's, embracing silks, silk brilliants, granadines, linens, white goods and parlors at prices that will command a ready sale.

J. K. Rickert has still a few of those eligible lots in Rickertstown to dispose of. If you feel like securing a good home call and see him. He is also supplying four, feed, lumber and coal at the lowest rates.

The Auditor General has hunted by a law, passed in 1849, providing for the taxation of patent medicines and the like, which he proposes to enforce. It has been a head letter for twenty-five years.

T. D. Clauss, the merchant tailor is now receiving an immense stock of spring and summer styles of cloths, cassimeres and vesting, which he is prepared to make up in the latest fashion at very popular prices for cash.

STOP A MOMENT.—Have you used Dr. Cox's Santonine Worm Syrup? Try it. It is delightful to the taste, health-giving to children; but death to worms. Price 25 cts. For sale at A. J. Durling's drug store.

Rev. S. F. Leopold, formerly of Weissport, now stationed at Pittman, Schuylkill county, Pa., was in town during the past week visiting among his old friends. The rev. gentleman is looking remarkably well.

Agents Wanted.—Can make $5 to $10 per day selling the Centennial Stationery Packages; the best selling packages out. Large inducements to Agents. Address with stamp, for information, A. L. SNOOKER, 41.

Gen'l. Boshelheim, Pa. Gent's furnishing goods, comprising white and colored shirts, under-waist, collars, neckties, &c., in immense quantities, and at prices lower than ever before offered, at T. D. Clauss' merchant tailoring establishment, Bank street, Lehighton.

Special Invitation.—Ladies are respectfully invited to call and examine our large and beautiful assortment of ladies' ready-made linen suits, ranging in price at from $2.00 upwards.

Respectfully,
J. T. NUSBAUM & SONS.

A children's service will be held in the M. E. Church, of this borough, on to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Services by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Brown, and singing by the children of the Sabbath School. All are cordially invited to attend.

The General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States will be held at Carthage, Ill., on Wednesday the 30th inst. Twenty-three Synods will be represented, and eighty-two ministers and an equal number of lay delegates will attend.

On Tuesday evening next, May 15, the Packerton M. E. Sunday School, will give an acoustic entertainment in the old school house. The entertainment will undoubtedly be very interesting, and as the proceeds are for the benefit of the Sunday School, we have no doubt will be well attended. The price of admission is only 10 cents.

The best whitewash we have ever had knowledge of is composed of lime slaked to the proper consistency for application, into which (for inside work) while hot, mix a starch made from half a pound of flour, or two ounces of common glue, thoroughly dissolved. For outside work add to the above preparation a handful of rock salt and as much soft boiled rice. This will stick with unexampled certainty.

On Saturday night the widow of Mr. George Audenried died at Herktown. Only last week we announced the demise of her husband, he having died suddenly on the 23rd ult. The aged companion who had trod with him the journey of life for 51 years sickened shortly after his departure, and on Saturday night last gently closed her eyes in death, and followed him to the spirit world. In death now they are again united. Mrs. A. died at the age of 68.—Allentown Democrat.

Frank W. Johnson, J. Washburne and Henry Chahoon, members of a crowd of young ruffians known as the "Chain Gang," were arrested on Monday at Wilkesbarre for committing an assault with intent to kill, rape and rob. On Sunday night they entered Edward Balliott's house and attempted to assault the person of a niece of Mr. Balliott. Her aunt hearing her cries came to her rescue. The ruffians then assaulted Mrs. Balliott and George S. Wilk, an old man who boarded with the family, was knocked senseless to the floor. The men then treated Mrs. Balliott and her niece by force, treating them in the most horrible manner. Mrs. Balliott had her clothing nearly all torn from her person. The men then made an attack upon Maggie Monaghan, Mrs. Balliott's servant girl. The house was also partly ransacked.

From Mauch Chunk.

The number of empty boats is rapidly diminishing in our dams.

The exterior of the Mauch Chunk Hotel is receiving a coat of paint.

The Vananda—Stroh nuptials will take place Thursday of next week.

Thomas Smitham and Sam Meese, of Nesquehoning, have left for Kansas.

Travel over the Switch Back will be opened to the public on Monday 21st inst.

Ex-Burgess Ross, of East Mauch Chunk, has relinquished his residence on Center Street.

The L. V. R. Co.'s pay car set out on its monthly mission on Wednesday afternoon.

The hands and employees of the L. & W. Coal Co., in Panther Creek Valley were paid for April on Wednesday.

Mr. Ed. Patzel who has for a week or so been suffering with a sprained ankle, is able to be about again.

Umbrella menders, of whom a goodly number visited Mauch Chunk on Tuesday and Wednesday, did quite a thriving business on those two days.

The town-council of East Mauch Chunk have reduced the tax for Borough purposes two mills on the dollar, leaving 3 instead of 5 mills as last year.

L. V. R. R. clerks are now required to work 10 1/2 hours. No wonder some of them die of overwork or commit harikari in the form of matrimony!

On next Saturday (to-day) Hermann Stoll, will sail from New York for Europe. Several of his Mauch Chunk friends will repair to New York to see him off.

David Beltz, of Upper Mauch Chunk, was on last Saturday committed to jail on a charge of aggravated assault and battery, preferred against him by his other half.

John Busacker, of the same place, accused of appropriating to his use a number of boards to which he had no claim is also temporarily boarding at hotel Raudenbush.

The Centennial trees set out last year along the side walk between the foot of Center Street and the terminus of the East Mauch Chunk bridge are in a promising condition.

A ball held on Tuesday evening at Busi's Carbon Hotel, East Mauch Chunk, was well attended and is highly spoken of as a very successful, enjoyable affair.

The citizens of East Mauch Chunk, by order of the Borough authorities, compelled to put their side walks in decent trim inside 30 days. Corner lounging is to be broken up, the dog running vigorously enforced, and the running at large of horses, mules, cattle, pigs and goats prohibited.

On last Saturday afternoon Sheriff Raudenbush read the Governor's warrants for the execution of Jno Donahue, Edward Kelley and Michael J. Doyle, to the condemned men in their cells at the county jail. Some half a dozen privileged characters, besides prison officials, were present at the reading. Little emotion was manifested by the culprits. If nothing happens to interfere there will be three Molles less before the sun sets on the evening of the 21st of June.
