The Bald-Headed Tyrant.

Oh! the quietest home on earth had I.

No thought of trouble, no hint of care;
Like a dream of pleasure the days fled by,
And Peace had folded her purious there. But one day there joined in our household band A baid-headed tyrant from No-man's land,

Oh, the despot came in the dead of night, And uo one rentured to ask him why; Like staves we trembled before his might, Our hearts stood still when we heard him cry; Por never a soul could his power withstand, That baid headed tyrant from No-man's land.

He ordered us here and he sent us there-Though never a word could his small lips with his touthless game and his vacant stare, And his helpless limits so fast and weak, Thil I cried, in a voice of stern command : Go up, thou bald-head from No-man's-land 1"

But his abject slaves they tarned on me ; Like the bears in Scripture, they'd rend me there.
The while they worshiped with bended knee

This ruthless wretch with the missing hair : For he rules them all with relentless hand, This bald-headed tyrant from Ko-man's-land.

Then I searched for help in every clime, For peace had find from my dwelling now, Till I finally thought of old Father Time. Am low before him I made bow. "Witt thou deliver me out of his hand. This bald-headed tyrant from No-man's-land ? Old Time he looked with a puzzled stare.

And a smile came over his features grim.
" I'll take the tyrant under my care : Watch what my hour-rises does to him. The veriest humbug that ever was planned Is this same bald-head from No-man's land."

Old Time is doing his work full well-Much less of might does this tyrant wield ; But, ah! with sorrow my heart will swell And sad tears fall as I see him yield. Could I sky the touch of that shriveled hand, I would keep the bald head from No-man's land

For the loss of Peace I have ceased to care ; Like other vassais I've learned, for sooth, To love the wretch who forget his hair And hurried along without a tooth, And he rules me, too, with his tiny hand, This held headed tyrant from No man's-land. Harper's Magazine
