Before this part of the proceedings had been completed, Dr. Leonard, compelled to leave because his presence was required on the bench, was succeeded by Hon. A. J. Darling in the Chairmanship of the meeting. Resolutions endorsing the Democratic platform recently adopted at Harrisburg, and ratifying the several nominations made, were then offered by Hon. A. G. Brodhead and unanimously adopted, as was a resolution offered by Major Robert Klotz, that "The Chairman of the meeting be instructed to notify, through the papers, the Co. Committee this day selected to meet on Sept. 24th, at Mauch Chunk, to appoint a Chairman of said Committee, and pass upon the number of delegates to which each district shall be hereafter entitled."

The meeting then adjourned.

In the U. S. Circuit Court, at Pittsburgh, Friday of last week, George A. Briggs, Henry Landenberger and Dav. Weand, of Northumberland county, Pa., were convicted of contempt in interfering with the running of trains on the New Jersey Central R. R., which was in the hands of a receiver appointed by the Court. They were sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $100 and undergo ninety days imprisonment in the Northumberland county jail.

"Marcutio," where, O where art thou gone?

Republican State Convention.

The delegates to the Republican State Convention commenced assembling in the Hall of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning last, and just previous to the organization a band of music marched into the gallery and played several popular airs. The portion of the hall set apart for lookers-on was soon filled.

A. Wilson Norris, Secretary of the State Executive Committee, called the Convention to order at 12 M., and after the call of delegates, on motion of Elisha Davis, of Philadelphia, the Hon. A. M. Brown, of Allegheny county, was chosen as Temporary Chairman. On taking the chair he made a brief speech, during which he said that he considered the selection not as a compliment to himself, but to Allegheny county, which has always been true to Republican principles by giving large majorities. He hoped the best men would be selected, and that the proceedings of the Convention would be harmonious.

The resolution providing for the appointment of Committee on Credentials, Permanent Organization, Resolutions, &c., were submitted by the Hon. John Cessna, and adopted without debate. The Convention refused to allow the Committee on Resolutions to sit during the time the Convention was transacting business, but a recess of the Convention was had for one hour, thus showing a disposition to get through with the work as soon as possible.

On reassembling at 2:30 P. M., Mr. H. W. Gray, of Philadelphia, Chairman of the Committee on Organization, reported Wm. H. Armstrong, of Lycoming county, for permanent President, and a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Mr. Armstrong, on being conducted to the chair, was warmly applauded.

While the Convention was waiting for the Committee on Resolutions, nominations were made as follows: Thomas Stettler, of Allegheny, nominated James H. Stetter, of Allegheny, for Supreme Judge. Christ Kuehnig, of Luzerne, nominated in a brief speech. The nomination was made unanimously. The nomination was made unanimously. The nomination was made unanimously.

Mr. W. Gray nominated Howard J. Reeder, of Luzerne, as a candidate for Governor, and Wm. S. Kirkpatrick, of Luzerne, as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. The nominations were warmly applauded.

For State Treasurer, Capt. W. B. Hart was nominated by section 10. Capt. Hart was born in Montgomery county in 1842, and is a bricklayer by trade. During the late war he served as private in Co. F, 1st Pa. Vol., where he was promoted to Sergeant. He has since been engaged in the mercantile business in this city. He is a member of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, in State Convention assembled do resolve—

First. While we recognize and respect the difference of opinion existing among us as to the course pursued by President Hayes towards the South, as well as nearly every other of the patriotic motives which have caused him, and in hoping that the result of this policy will be peace, good will and the enjoyment of the equal rights of all men in every section of the country, and to the efforts of his Administration to carry into effect the principles of the platform upon which he was elected, we pledge our hearty and cordial support.

Second. The Electoral College having been elected at the recent solicitation of the Democratic party, and after the oft-repeated declaration of its leaders in both Houses of Congress that no faction could cavil at its decision, we witness with profound astonishment the measures of that party in the trial of its own creation because its decisions disappointed its expectations of official honors, which resulted in the election of a President who is not only a member of the same party, but who is also a member of the same party.

Third. We respectfully, but earnestly entreat all members of the National and State Legislatures to assist in the effort to carry out this great country by adopting such measures as to that end as are in their power to avoid the necessity of resorting to partition of the country into two parts, and to the business interests of the country, in order that wise and prudent laws may be passed, and the business interests of the country be protected, and to encourage and restore to activity legitimate industrial enterprises, and to enable the country to find a fair market for its surplus products and manufactures.

Fourth. That the Republican party in passing the homestead act, in the year 1850, and its restoration to the point on it held as legal tender during the currency years of our national existence, thus preserving the equal value of the commercial value of the silver dollar with the gold dollar, keeping both in circulation, beyond all the administrative efforts of Gov. Hartranft for our western approbation. He has established a State policy which has had its effect in the preservation of our non-convertible and has simply pointed the road to the success of the State, and the successful refunding of a large portion of the debt at a lower rate of interest, and the successful maintenance of the State, and that the people have everything to hope from a continuance of the Republican party in power.

declarations in favor of adequate protection to American industry, and, now that manufacturers are languishing and working men are out of employment, the common-sense demand is a still closer adherence to the protective policy which the Republicans of Pennsylvania have always sustained. The country has never yet prospered under free trade, as it never can be, and, as all tariffs are levied primarily for revenue, it would be a bad government which had just enough to its people to arrange its revenue on imports so as to encourage and build up the growth of home manufactures. It would be a bad government which would give a large sum as a compensation for costly officers; second, secure our municipalities from the dangers that attend the existing facilities for contracting debt; and, third, provide adequate guards against a recurrence of the frequent and large losses to which the people who do business with banks and banking institutions have heretofore been subjected.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for the candidate for Auditor General, and the first ballot resulted as follows: Whole number of votes cast, of which Mr. Passmore received 105 and Mr. Reeder 32. Mr. Passmore's nomination was made unanimous.

By the monthly report of the public debt for August we learn that the debt was decreased during the month $3,869,538 75. The total principal of the debt now outstanding is $2,201,132,971 15, on which there is due and unpaid of interest $25,265,694 57, giving a total of principal and interest of $2,226,398,665 72. There was at the same time cash in the Treasury, of coin, $106,904,936 09, of currency $11,828,537 96, currency held for redemption of fractional currency $8,295,142, exclusive of $50,420,000 of special deposits for redemption of certificates, making the total of cash in the Treasury $177,428,866 05, less estimated amount due military establishments for which no appropriations have been made, $4,500,000, reducing the total debt, less cash in the Treasury on August 1, 1877, to $2,059,389,318 42. Debt less amount in Treasury Sept. 1, 1877, $2,055,469,779 67, showing a decrease during the past month of $3,869,538 75. Decrease of debt since June 30, 1877, $4,688,443 59. Bonds issued to Pacific railroad companies, interest payable in lawful money, principal outstanding, $64,623,512, interest accrued and not yet paid, $64,235 12; interest paid by United States, $35,957,629 14; interest repaid by transportation of mails, etc., $8,676,250 50; balance of interest paid by United States, $27,281,398 64. The payments made from the Treasury by warrants during the month were: On account of civil and miscellaneous, $5,160,811 50; War, $860,427 58; Navy, $1,080,941 82; Interior (Indians and Pensions), $4,161,256 41; total, $11,263,446 31. The above does not include payments made on account of the interest or principal of the public debt of the United States. The Treasury now holds in United States bonds for circulation $337,634,450, and $15,175,000 in United States bonds for public deposits; total, September 1, $352,809,450.

—The suit of the widow of Gen. R. E. Lee for the recovery of the Arlington estate was again before the U. S. Circuit Court, at Alexandria, Va., on Tuesday. By consent of counsel, the hearing of the question as to the jurisdiction of the Court was postponed until the January term. The point made by the defense is that the United States, being in possession, cannot be sued; but the plaintiff contends that the parties in absolute possession are sued, not the United States.
