H. V. MORTHIMER,

LEHIGHTON, PA.:

SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10, 1877.

According to a telegram from Terre Haute, Governor Williams has appointed D. W. Voorhees U. S. Senator from Indiana, to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Morton's death.

- During the past year 534 persons were arrested for various offences against the Postal laws, 104 more than during the preceeding year; 172 of the eases were transferred to the State Courts for trial. The whole number of complaints of loss of registered letters was 2289, the reported aggregate value being $54,410. 714 of the letters were recovered, and 216, valued at $10,510, accounted for by recovery of contents from persons who had stolen them or through whose carelessness they were lost. The percentage of actual losses compared with the total of letters registered was about one-fiftleth of one per

-An earthquake was felt Sunday morning about two o'clock, in various localities of New England, New York State and Canada. At Glen's Falls, Schuylerville, along Lake George, at Ogdensburgh and at Cape Vincent, in New York, the shock was of considerable violence. At Ogdensburgh the earth wave passed from west to east and the tremor lasted over a minute; at Cape Vincent win lows, stoves, crockery, and other moveable articles were shaken. Along Lake George the shock, which was sufficiently violent to break crockery, was preceeded by a rumbling noise. At Lebanon, N. H., buildings were shaken and bells rung for forty seconds. At Montpeller, Vt., people were shaken out of their sleep, and the shocks are reported to have continued in succession for fifteen minutes. At Northampton, Mass., glass was broken in the houses. Slighter shocks were felt at Hartford and Windsor, in Connecticut, and at Springfield, Massachusetts. Two violent successive shocks were felt at Montreal, Ottawa, Cornwall, ad other places in Canada.

Tuesday's Election.

The latest returns confirm the grand Democratic victory achieved in this State. The majority for Noves, based upon official and reported majorities, is over 8,000. Schell's majority will be considerably in excess of that of Col-Noyes, probably rising to 8,000. Judge Sterrett runs considerably ahead of his ticket-in Allegheny 2,000, in Philadelphia about 700 and in other counties probabiy 1,000. But Judge Trunkey has also made heavy gains on the Demo ratio ticket in the northwestern counties, and it is probable that Judge Sterret will not gain on him more than 2,-000 in the State, in which event the Democratic candidate for Supreme Court Judge will have over 6,000 majority. The election of the entire Democratic ticket is therefore assured.

The latest returns from New York indicate a Democratic majority in the State estimated at 15,000 to 20,000. The Senate, it is variously estimated, will be a tie, or have 2 Republican majority; the House will have a Democratic majority of from 5 to 8 or 13.

Returns from all but seven small towns in Massachusetts give Rice, Relican, for Govern State Senate stands 35 Republicans to 5 Democrats, the House 173 Republicans (5 Democrats, the House 173 Republicans to 5 Democrats. to 64 Democrats, 2 Independents and 1 Liberal.

The latest returns from New Jersey give McClellan 10,876 majority. The Democrats will probably have 3 major-

Democrats will probably have 3 majority in the Senate and 2 in the House.

In Wisconsin, the majority for the Republican candidate for Governor is now estimated at over 5000. The Senate will stand 21 Republicans to 12 Democrats and 8 Greenbackers.

In Maryland the Democratic majority is estimated at 25,000 to 30,000. The Senate will probably stand 17 Democrats to 9 Republicans; the House 65 Democrats to 19 Republicans.

—In Nebraska it is believed that Lake, Republican, is elected to the Supreme Court by about 5000 majority.
