

STATE NEWS.

There were 265 deaths in Philadelphia last week.

A Tioga man has 16,000 heads of cabbage stored away.

There are about 2,500 adults in Reading who cannot write.

The Reading railroad paid out $85,000 in the coal regions the other day.

Up to Saturday last Lock Haven had shipped $1,094,000 feet of lumber for this year.

A lady whose name is unknown died in the cars between Pittsburg and Greensburg a few days ago.

But two colliers out of fourteen in the vicinity of Mahanoy are shipping coal of any consequence.

During the month of October $1,230,410 worth of merchandise was imported into the port at Philadelphia.

A Berks County shoemaker manufactured "medicated boots." Their peculiar virtue is in the heel.

Mrs. Girton, of Shamokin, gave birth to triplets recently. She had previously had twins on three occasions.

A little boy at Blairsville upset a dish pan filled with hot water. He was so severely scalded that he died next morning.

Edwin H. Fidler, a Philadelphia merchant, is mentioned as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor.

In Monroe county, this State, the Democrats carried every district and two—Eldred and Tunkhannock—unanimously.

A child at Ashland fell from a chair on a stove and was roasted to death. The child was found burned to a crisp on the stove.

Last Monday the Bethlehem Iron Company started six of the furnaces in their pudding mill at South Bethlehem. They have been idle two months.

Dr. Schmauser, a well known German physician of Allegheny, is under arrest for abortion. Jennie Hamilton charged him with the crime on her deathbed.

Mrs. Henry Miller, of Orbitsville, Huntingdon county, fatally cut her throat with a penknife a few days ago. The suicide is attributed to temporary insanity.

A coroner's jury blame the conductor and engineer of the day express east for the collision near Ridgway on the 1st of November, by which five persons were killed.

Townsend Hickman, of Philadelphia, while gunning in West Chester, on Monday, was accidentally shot in the leg by a friend named Shaner. The wound is not dangerous.

Rev. Lyman D. Coleman, D. D., who is in his 82d year, still performs the duties of his profession at Lafayette college. He was a tutor in Yale college half a century ago.

Near Somerset the other day, Samuel A. Wilt, while digging a post hole accidentally struck upon a large earthen vessel which contained $2,700 in gold and silver coins, principally Mexican dollars. The date of the newest coin is 1751.

Hiram and William Ripper, cousins, aged respectively fifteen and sixteen years, of South Bend, township, Armstrong county, were killed almost instantly, while digging coal by the falling of a piece of slate, measuring about fifteen feet square.

Nine of the late wrecked engines on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad are being repaired at the Renovo shops. Ten of those burned at Pittsburg during the riots are also being repaired. The shops are running full time with a full complement of men.

The capital stock of the Pittsburg and Erie Railroad Company has been increased from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000. Two thousand hands are now at work on the road between Pittsburg, Pa., and Youngstown, Ohio, and rapid progress is being made upon the work.

It is stated that Martin V. Turner, who was tried some time ago in Clearfield and convicted of murder in the first degree, a Mrs. Weples, his alleged paramour, being the victim, will be able to establish an alibi before the Board of Pardons at its next session.

Judge Handley disposed of 200 cases on the argument list in the Wilkesbarre court, 100 criminal cases and 100 civil cases during last week, besides the usual routine of business which falls to the lot of Judge sitting on the bench during the sessions of the court.

At Beaver Falls on Wednesday a man by the name of James V. Blackmore attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. His injuries are severe but not necessarily fatal. Blackmore was seventy-two years of age. No motive is assigned for the act.

The number of executions filed in the common pleas court of Philadelphia indicate that the sheriff's sale on the first Monday in December will embrace a larger amount of properties than the sale at the beginning of this month, when they numbered over 1,300.

The Supreme Court adjourned on Thursday, having transacted a great deal of business in its brief session and rendered a number of important opinions. There are several cases which were argued and are yet to be decided in which the opinions of the court will be awaited with interest.

Isaac Crider, a young man of Clinton county, fatally shot himself while returning from a pheasant hunting expedition. His gun was discharged while he was in the act of removing it from the wagon to shoot a pheasant near by, the hammer catching in the bed of the wagon.

The coming report of the Philadelphia city controller will place the value of taxable property in that city for the coming year at $56,000,000, being about $14,000,000 less than the present year's valuation. It believes the tax rate for next year can safely be fixed at $2.35.

Alvyn Smith, Erie county, in a fit of rage discharged a gun at his son. There was only a yard in the gun, but it tore the flesh, nerves and muscles fearfully. The father had been drinking hard cider during the day and is supposed to have been intoxicated. He threatens to commit suicide if he is arrested.

Glenn's Sulphur Soap

It is a SPECIFIC in those OBNOXIOUS DISEASES, which have been treated heretofore with "Sulphur Ointments" having the advantage of being CLEAN, NON-POISONIVE and UNINJURIOUS TO CLOTHING.

SULPHUR BATHS.

The beneficial results of Sulphur Baths are too well known to require comment. The effects of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP in the bath are truly electrical, completely dissolving, removing accumulations and thoroughly purifying the entire surface of the body. In fact it is the King of Soaps for bathing and Toilet purposes.

DIRECTIONS.—For Diseases of the Skin bathe freely and apply a thick lather before retiring, allowing it to remain over night. For Scalds and Burns apply the lather freely to the affected parts, and the fire and pain will be removed immediately. For Gout, Rheumatism, Strains, Bruises and cuts apply copiously with a strong solution. For Old Sores and Ulcers it is invaluable. Use freely as a lotion. For a preventive in Obnoxious Diseases use a strong soda as a wash, externally and by injection. IT NEVER FAILS.

THE SUN.

1878. NEW YORK. 1878.

As the time approaches for the renewal of subscriptions, THE SUN would remind its friends and readers everywhere, that it is a candidate for their consideration and support. Upon its record for the past 15 years it rests for a comparison of the healthy vitality and generous co-operation which have hitherto been extended to it from every quarter of the Union.

THE SUNDAY SUN is a four page sheet of 25 columns, three by mail, post paid, 50 cents a month, or $5.00 a year. It is an excellent page sheet of 50 columns. While giving the news of the day, it also contains a large amount of literary and miscellaneous matter specially prepared for it. THE SUNDAY SUN has met with great success.

THE WEEKLY SUN. Who does not know THE WEEKLY SUN? It circulates throughout the United States, the Canada and beyond. Sixty thousand families read its columns. It is the best and most valuable paper in the West, and the best of its kind, and the best. It is now, editorial, agricultural, and literary departments make it essentially a journal for family and the friends. Terms: ONE DOLLAR a year post paid. This price, quality considered, makes it by the best newspaper published. For clubs or for sale, with the cash, we will send an extra copy free. Address PUBLISHER OF THE SUN, New York City.
