-Hon, W. M. Rapsher will please accept our thanks for public documents and other "Legislative favors."

-The Bloomsburg Columbian of last week says: "The commissioners having finally heard of the murder of John Van Liew, near Lightstreet, about six months ago, have ofform! $20,000 for the detection and conviction of the murderer. It is a pity that they had not been informed sooner, so that the reward might have been offered whilst the traces and proofs were fresh.

-In answer to a resolution of the House of Representatives, the Secretary of the Treasury, Monday, sent a communication to that body showing the amount of interest paid in coin and currency to the National Banks from bonds held by the Treasury for security for their currency issues, from 1863 to 1878. The total coin interest thus paid was $244,278,271, and the total currency interest $8,559,285.

-The State Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic met Wednesday in Lebanon. General S. Irvin Given, Department Commander, presided. Adjutant General Vanderslice read his report showing that there are 106 posts in good standing, a gain of 24 posts and 1000 members during the year. A resolution was adopted urging the Legislature to pass the bill continuing the system of soldiers' orphana schools. In the afternoon session it was decided that the permanent headquarters of the Assistant Adjutant General should be in Philadelphia. In the evening a public meeting of members of the Grand Army and citizens was held. Hon. G. Dawson Coleman presided, and addresses were made by Governor Hartranft, General Vanderslice, Coloned Stone, Colonel A. Wilson Norris, General James W. Sayres and others.

-The House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, decided by an almost unanimous vote to remand to the custody of the jailer of Delaware county Representative Bullard, who had elaimed that a breach of the privileges of the House had been committed in his arrest while he was a member of the Legislature. Bullard was delivered into the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House about two weeks ago, and has been under constructive arrest since. The Judiciary Committee having his case in charge, with a single exception, on Tuesday reported against his claims, and the House ratified their action. Bullard is under indistment for swindling several building and loan associations out of about $10,000.

loan associations out of about $10,000.

Since the above was put in type, we learn that Bullard has escaped from the custosty of the Sergeant-at Arms, and disappeared. The chief object he had in view on his removal to Harrisburg has thus been secomplished, but since the House refused as a body to give him an opportunity to evade trial, it should at least see to it that the man who gave him that opportunity shall be severely punished unless he recover his prisoner. The House itself is in one way or another responsible for the escape, for there was never any good reason why Bullard should have been taken from the Media jail where his former friends and neighbors had deterhis former friends and neighbors had determined to leave him.

-At the meeting of the State Central Committee of the United Greenback labor had it duly recorded in the Washington party, held in Philadelphia Wedgesday, delegates were appointed to the Toledo Convention from the various districts in the State. decided to call the State Convention in Philadeephia on the 5th of June next, unless circumstances should prevent, and in that event the chairman should then name the time. The following resolution was adopt-

That the State Convention be organized or That the State Convention be organized on the bares of one delegate for each Senatorial and Representative district in the State, and that no delegate shall be admitted to a sent in the Greenback Laber Convention whose credentials are not properly signed by the proper officers of the organization to the dis-trict he may represent.

T. P. Dewees' chairman of the committee had not the least doubt that it would hold the balance of power in the next Legislature. Mr. D. is probably conversent with the "old gang agleet"

-The leading organ of the Western inflationists or repudiators, the Cincinnati Eaguirer, proposes that the Democrats of the West, who are nearly all in favor of inflation, should cut loose from the Democrats of the phases of Washington " asciety." the East, who are nearly all in favor of the time-honored Democratic gold-money doctrine. If thinks that a party formed upon the inflation issue, and comprising Republican as well as Democratic inflationists, would succeed better than the present divided Democratic party in securing partial repudiation: It would be interesting to know what this party is to be called. The Ercaing Post recommends the suggestion to the honest money men of the East, and calls for the formation of a Public Credit Party. It mys:

There is no doubt of the soundness of the There is no doubt of the soundness of the mass of Eastern Republicans on the financial question. Happily, there is as little doubt of the soundness of Eastern Democrats. The Public Aredit Party must be composed of both. In view of the determined course of the Repudiation Party, Eastern Democrats cannot too seen torget their personal disappointments and turn away from the ambitious but petry whemes of factions.

The largest items are $110,725,002 tion Congress, would be like writing from for army nemicon consolidated - $102.122.230 for widows and orphans; $75,681,381 to military invalids. The largest sum paid out in any one year to pensioners was in 1871, when it amounted to $34,024,000. The annual pensions prior to 1819 never reached a million dollars. In that year, as a result of the act of March 18, 1818, they reached $2,-416,829, and the noti year $3,218,494. From that time they ranged from less than $1,-000,000 to $3,000,000, averaging about $1,-500,000 until 1864, when they became $4,-985,273. In 1865 they were increased to $16,338,155, and, except in 1866, continued to increase until 1871, when they reached their maximum. Unless there is still further legislation increasing the ponsions, the annual appropriations for this purpose will now gradually decrease.

-The action of both branches of Congress within the last few days, although not decisive as the final result of the attempt to depreciate the currency by remonetising silver, says the New York Observer, has been such as to excite the gravest apprehensions, The Matthews resolution, which expresses the opinion that the principal and interest of the United States bonds may be paid in silver dollars at the option of the Government, was adopted in the Senate on Friday by 45 ayes to 22 nays. On Monday the same resolution was adopted in the House by 189 to 73.

It is stated that the Bland Silver Bill wants but one more vote in the Senute to secure its passage over the veto, should the President decide to veto it. In common with a large portion of the people of the country we regard these resolutions as one step toward repudiation, and as sure to bring upon the national government a measure of the shame which has long rested upon some of the States for refusing to pay their debts in full. We are not without hope that through the integrity and good sense of Congress and the President, the measure may yet fail to be accomplished.

The House on Monday, by a vote of 174 to 85, passed one resolution, which is strictly in the path of honesty and wise legislation

Resolved, that in the judgment of the House, no subsidies in money, bonds, public lands, indersements or by pledge of public credit should be granted or renewed by Congress to associations or corporation engaged in, or preparing to engage in public or private enterprises, but that all appropriations ought to be limited to such amount and purposes, only as shall be imperatively demanded by the public service.

One of the " Ways that are Dark" of Society -A Distinguished Visitor-Maine versus Massachusetts-The Texas Pacific RR.-The Contemplated Ball at the Department of State-" Ecform" in a New Physic, do. Washington, D.C., Jan. 26.

There is a class of people, and their name is legion, whose greatest delight and acme of happiness it is to see their names printed in the newspapers. I doubt if there is a single editor who has not experienced this, or a local reporter in all to espaperdom who has not been made painfully aware of that fact. To go to one of the fashionable parties here, such as that given on Wednesday evening last by the Spanish minister in honor of the marriage of King Alphonso, and not have papers the next morning is to have lived in vain! Consequently, the day after the fete, which was one of the most regal and magni-The delogates at large are F. So far, so good. But here is where the fun comes in ; some people, and very nice people too, who felt newhat chagr and at not receiving invitations, while their neighbors over the way did, prevailed upon friends who had been invited to deposit their eards in the baskets and receivers at the minister's reception; and as the "corrected" lis's were made up from these cards, it will be readily under stated that the party was making acquisi-tions of strength in the State daily, and he pop was reported to have been present (thus caming envy and malice among all her der friends who were not there) and even had her name in the "corrected" list, published saw," the best laid plans o'man an' mice aft "by authority," when in reality she was sitting quietly in the back basement mending the children's stockings! As M. Mantills, the Spanish minister, and his wife were not personally acquainted with more than one-third of those present, this little fraud could easily be perpetratest. This is one of

On Tuesday last they poid a formal visit to President and Mrs. Hoyes, which was returned by them next day. Lord Dufferin is a man of immense wealth, has traveled extensively, and is the very picture of a British earl of modern times; while his wife has some pretence to literary shiftiy. One of her compositions-"The Irish Engrant's Lament"—has be come widely known, though few know that we are indebted for these pathetic and beautiful lines to Lady Dufferiu. To write from Washington and not men-Beme and ignoring St. Peter's. Well, everything remains in state que; but there is bee feeling between the Senators from Massachussetts and the Senator from, and whose name rhymes with, Maine, owing to the vigorous onslaught that Senator made the other day on the valor of the men of the Hub. Whether the volunteers of the gun brig "Enterprise" were enlisted at Portland or Boston, is a matter of little consequence now; yet this question was the subject of a heated and very uncomplimentary discussion between Senators Dawes, Hoar and sion between Senators Daws, Hoar and Blaine, on the occasion of the latter's speech presenting the King statue as a contribution from his State to the National Gallery; in the old hall of Representatives. Such disputes are not calculated to elevate the dignity of the United States Senate, and, as illluck would have it, Lord Dufferin was prescut; and occupied a seat in the Diplomatic gallery, on this very day, when, of all others, it was desirable that the Senate should present, at least, an appearance of decency.

Tom Scott is here, and had a hearing on Friday before the House Committee on Pacific Kaifroads. He asks a government subsidy of $17,000 per mile for building a road from the Colorado river east to the Hio Grande. Mr. Huntingdon, by his counsel, offered to build the same line singly for the land grant, and without any subsidy. The feeling in the committee seems to be decidedly anti-subsidy; but Scott is a great wirepuller, and no one can forsee what may happen.

So far, Secretary Evarts has not yet made up his mind whether he will hold his next reception at his official quarters in the State Department, or in his private residence. If he shall inaugurate this "reform," it is natural to suppose that his colleagues in the Cabinet will follow suit, and we shall have balls in the Patent Office, War and Navy Departments, Department of Justice and Post-office. It would be cheerful to see our belies and bems walts around the antiquated bases of the Interior Department, lightly skipping over models and land records, coquesting with Washington's old clothes, which are kept there, and comparing notes
as to the relative merits of much and molasses at the Interior Department and bluse mange at the Interior Department and blane manga at the Department of State! For Schurz is notoriously plebeian, as compared with Everts, the aristocrat.

Evarts, the aristocrat.

I had nearly forgotten the weather. I am writing this letter with open doors and windows, and outside it is as warm and sunny as a day in June. With the exception of Mrs. Hayes' reception, Saturday is not a great day for visiting in Washington City; Thursday is the great society day here, and on that day most of the ladies of appertendom are "at home" to their friends. But, to-day, the fishiomable thoroughfares are erowled with earringes and pedestrians, and the reception at the White House this evening promises to be an unusually brilliant ing promises to be an unusually brilliant afflur, especially as Mrs. Hayes will, on this occasion, be assisted by five young lady friends, who are at present guests at the White House.

Lehighton Lyceum. In the absence of both the President and Vice President, Mr. S. R. Gilham was appointed president pro tem. The reading of the minutes was dispensed with. "Beautiful Spring" was well sung by Misses Hauk and Bauer, accompanied on the organ by Miss Burnstien. Misses Ida and Elia Clauss, were proposed and elected by acclamation as active members. The three referred questions were unswered by the assigned referees and an unanswered question of last meeting was answered and discussed by Messrs. S. R. Gilham and T. A. Sayder.
Another piece of music "Murmuring Sea," broke the memotony, participated in by Misses Hank, Bauer and Barnstien. The Board of Curators reported the following broke the monotony, participated in by Misses Hank, Bauer and Barnsten. The Board of Curators reported the following question: Is conscience in all cases a correct moral guide? To be unswered by Miss Emma Hank. Second. Is the saying that great talkers are little doeren true one? Referred to H. V. Morthimer, ir. Third. Why does smoke sometimes fall to the ground? Referred to Al. Dollenmayer. Question for dobate: Resolved, "That public amusements excreise a beneficial influence on society," which was adopted. The dobate, Resolved "That the teacher exerts more influence over the child than the parent" was now opened by Messrs. T. A. Snyder on the affirmative, and A. W. Hern on the negative, followed by their assistants O. A. Clauss and J. A. Sciple, The house then opened for general debate by T. A. Snyder and A. W. Horn. Music "Village Bells" followed, by Misses Hauk, Bauer and Barnstein and Mrs. Longstreet. The decision of the chair tavored the affirmative. An exay was read by Miss Laura Hofford, subject "Industry." A reading by T. A. Snyder and Miss Bauer, "Quarred between Lady Tenzel and her Instand," was well received by the audience. Mr. O. A. Clauss followed with "Our Paper," which cheered up the listeners. Music, "Remember Me," was well rendered by Misses Hauk and Burnstein and Mrs. Lougstreet. After the taking of the collection the Lyceum adjourned to meet again at the usual time. Jar. 29, 1878.
