LETTER BEAD IN CHURCH .- The excite ment in the Heitian-Greth "Miraela" was not abated until Sunday morning. The announcement that Father Heinan would on last Sabbath morning retract his miracle performance, caused, at an early hour, large number of persons, both Catholics and Protestants, to attend early mass. The church was filled, and after his services Father Heinan stated that he was in receipt of a letter from Archbishop Wood which he now proposed reading. The following is a sopy

The Archbishop, having heard and care fully considered the circumstances preced-ing and accompanying what is derively called the "Mauch Chunk Miraele," said to called the "Mauch Chunk Miracle," said to have been wrought on the person of woman, it was executive piety has neither good sense nor sound Catholic dectrine for its founda-tion, require to instruct you that in his judg-ment it is a deluision and a pious fraud. Without inquiring as to the extent to which others participated in this lamentable folly, he desires to mark the whole proceeding and the principal actors in it with his distinct and unqualified disapprobation and con-demination, and to say that a repetition of anything of the sort in this diocese will be visited with the severest consaro authorized by the laws of the Church.

Boy: Father Heinan read the letter in the German language, and the services closed without any further comment upon the sub ject. He refused to be interviewed in reference to the matter, but says his duty as a loyal churchman was never again to allude o the subject. In Father Bunce's church the letter was also read, and by the way o comment the Father stated that he was in no way connected with the miracle, that he no say concerned with the intrace, this he was only present as any other specialor, and that he did not hold himself responsible for anything that happened. It is all over. No Catholic speaks about it, and of course the Protestants have said all they can say. Gone to wast Schemelt to meet Schrack!

Mr: Par-sons died in 1757, when the house was pur-chased by George Taylor, who was a very chased by George Taylor. chased by George Taylor, who was par-chased by George Taylor, who was a very prominent man, being a delegate in the Continental Congress and one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He died in 1978. Since that time the house has had several owners, until it came to the presention of Col. Jacob Dachradt under whose ownership it was sold. It was the headquarters of Governor Hamilton when e came to Easton to treat with the Indians. and of General Washington in 1778, when on the way to the Wyoming Valley after Suspension of Coal Mining.

A general suspension of mining operations throughout the Schuylkill region commenc-ed Monday morning and will continue tor two weeks. A total stoppage of coal produc-tion, such as this is an unusual event, as beretolore, when the companies' collieries have suspended work, a number of the inde-regulant mines have continued their shorhave suspended work, a number of the inde-pendent mines have continued their ship-ments. A total suspension, coming as it does at this senson of the year, is severely fait by the great number of people engaged in the business, the majority of whom have only worked half time resently. Resump-tion in the Lahigh region will take place on the 15th inst. The Philadelphia and Read-ing Coal and Iron Company has on hand at its warehouse at Port Richmond, 86,666 tons of coal.

Smaah Up-

Smash Up: When passing this place, about 4 a. m. on Wednesday morning last, the Empire freight, on the Lehigh Valley M.R. came to grief, raused, it is supposed by a broken axie. Some half a docen box cars, loaded chiefly with corn in bulk, were very leadly simula-ed and thrown around promisenously, tear-ing up the track for a distance of pome 38 yards, and emising an obstraction to travel for the greater part of the day. The pas-engers and laggage were transferred from the down to the up train, and vice terms, walking around the wreck. We are pleased to add that no person was injured in life or to add that no person was injured in life or limb by the accident.

Broke Jall.

On Monday morning as the warden of the Northampion County Prison at Easton went to make his usual morning inspection he discovered that during the night two prison ars, named Michael Kelly and Charles Rack ers, named Michael Kelly and Charles Rack-or, had made their escape. They effected their purpose by boring a hole through the arched roof of their cell. Once out of the cell they made their way over the roof to the warden's dwelling, where they lowered themselves with a rope which they had made from their bedelothes. Michael Kelly is a a unive of Canada, twenty-five years old, five fest, ten and one-quarter inches high, and was sentenced August 15, 1877, to three years imprisonment for burglary. high, and was sentenced August 15, 1877, to three years imprisonment for burglary. Charles Racker is a native of New Jersey, nineteen years old, five feet, eight indus high, and was sentenced December 12, 1877, to three years' imprisonment for burglary. The garb worn by the prisoners is of the style of the regular army uniform.

-Says the Beaver Meadow correspondent of the Haxleton Beaver. Rumors are about that Banks township is in a state of insolv-ency, and that the public schools will be closed. This is rather a dark spot, and is creating considerable sensation in some cir-cles, whills, others pronounce it "a political dodge with the Greenbacks." Tims will show, perhaps.
