LEHIGHTON, PAS SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1878.

Eight hundred acres of forests are on fire in Massachusetts. It must be getting warm in that quarter.

-William Orton, President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, died in New York Monday morning, of apoplexy. He was only 52 years of age.

-The Eric Rallway, was sold at auction in New York Wednesday on the foreclosure by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company. It was purchased for $6,000,000, by ex-thre. Morgan, David A. Wells and J. Lowber Welch, trustees for the stockholders.

- Every once in a while you see a man on one of the railway routes who is so lost to all sense of delicacy that he takes his life tle daughter into a smoking-car. Such a man ought to be kicked by a mule.-P. J. Man. Well, why don't you kick him?

-President Hayes' reception in Philadelphia Wednesday was quito enthusiastic. In the evening, at the Union League Club House, not a single prominent republican politician was present; but the brains, culture and wealth of the city were largely represented.

- Dun, Barlow & Co. report that during the three months ending March 31st; 1878, there were 3355 failures in the United States, with liabilities estimated at $82,078,000. During the corresponding period of 1877 the fallures numbered 2859, and the liabilities

-The uncertainty created by the possible interference of Congress with the finances seems to be the chief obstacle to a general resumption of specie payments all over the country by the banks. If that body would adjourn, stop experimenting, and allow Sherman to go on in his own way, the problem would be solved in a very short time, and business everywhere would begin to undergo a great change for the better.

-There were severe tornadoes in Iowa and Illinois on Sunday and Sunday night. Storm Lake and Wall Lake, Iowa, suffered much damage, and several persons are reported killed and injured. At Galesburg and Buda, III., there was extraordinary rain and hail, one of the hail stones measured being eight inches in circumference. Glass was smashed. property in the houses and stores damaged, and vegetation injured. A telegram from Sioux City, Iowa, says the reports received there indicate that four persons were killed and forty injured. Some of the latter are not expected to recover.

—The Republican Congressional Committee completed its organization on Monday night, Hon, George C. Gorham, of California, being appointed Secretary. The officers of the Committee now are: Chairman, Hon. Eugene Hale, of Maine; Secretary, Hon. George C. Gorham, of California: Treasurer, Jacob Tome, Esq., of Washington; Executive Committee, Senator Allison, of Iowa; Representatives Joyce, of Vermont; Hiscock, of New York; Page, of California; Foster, of Ohio; Campbell, of Pennsylvanin; Hubbell, of Michigan; Senators Dorsey, of Arkansas; Bruce, of Mississppi.

-Notwithstanding the embittered feeling between England and Russia, and the active preparations made by both governments for the contingency of war, we are still of the opinion that peace will be preserved, unless it be broken by some incident outside of the diplomatic relations of the two powers. Germany (and this means Bismark) holds the balance, and through her influence we trust the Congress will be assembled, in which case war will be avoided. It is now orted that both governments have agreed | ly to withdraw their forces,-England her fleet and Russia her army,-from the vicinity of Constantinople, by which the liability to County Superintendent.

A writer in the Chal Gantie thus define the duties and qualifications of County Superintendent, and the school directors, by re-electing R. F. Hofford will "fill this bill" to the letter: "The enemy superintendent hould be a man of force, purity, education, influence and popularity. His chief duties ouslet in examining teachers, explaining the school law, and in instructing and couneling school directors, attending to all chool interests and promoting generally a pirit or education within his jurisdiction. As he has charge of the Beensing of teachers. he should take special pains to see that none ire authorized to teach except those that are fully prepared in the various branches repaired to be taught, and possess a talent of oparting instruction to those under him or ior. A perfect county superintendent should be a man full of successful experience as a leacher, pleasant manners, good character, a turn for business, talent, previence, sound spinion, public spirit, zeal for the education of the people, and above all, faith in the ommon school system."

-The Republican State Convention will neet in Harrisburg on Wednesday, May 15. Gen. Charles Albright, of Manch Chunk, and Samuel W. Hudson, of Hudsondale, will represent the Republicans of Carbon in the Convention.

The Conkling Sensation-The Edison Sensation-The Easter Festivities-The He hiver Pessoner.

Washington, April 20, 1878. The chief topic of conversation in politial circles during the week has been the alleged interview with Senator Conkling published first in one of the New York duilies and by this time reproduced in nearly every newspaper in the country. It was expected that Coulding would say something in the Senate the day after its publication, and that he, under the poculiar cirsmartunes in which he has been placed, could not afford to be silent. His first appearance at the capital was in the room of the Committee on a ommerce. He entered as usual, spoke to his colleagues of the committee as usual, and attended to his business just as usual. No reference was made by anybody to the interview. Some curiosity was felt to see how Senators Coulding and Gordon would meet. But nothing sensational came out of the meeting. General Gordon entered the room, smiled pleasantly, and greeted Coulding with a courteous "Good morning." Don Causeron, Howe, and several other Senators gathered around Coulding soon after he appeared in his seat, and, as an animated conversation was carried on, it was presumed the interview was the subject under discussion. Coulding seemed to be explaining the affair, and the young Senator from Pennsylvania apparently enjoyed the explaination. It was apparently enjoyed the explanation. It was apparently enjoyed the explanation. It was apparent that Coulding was annoyed at the publication. He sought to put a good face on the affair and assumed to treat it lightly, but the fact that he considered his situation embarrassing could not be concealed. Everybody was on the qui ever for the personal explanation, and once, when Coulding street to present a petition, there was a rush for front positions in the galleries. It seems that Coulding regarded the situation of sufficient importance to place himself in the hunds of his friends," and they advised by anybody to the interview. Some curifront positions in the galleries. It seems that Conkling regarded the situation of sufficient importances to place himself in the "hands of his friends," and they advised him not to say anything. Auscig Sonators the interview was discussed in low tones and out of earshot of reporters. None of them cared to have their remarks on the subject put in print. Lamm declined to say anything about the affair. General Burnside had nothing to say, and Stanley Matthews delivered himself to a reporter of a New York paper, and refused to open his mouth to others. Had Conkling made a personal explanation it is probable that several other Senators, whom he had in the interview taken the liberty to criticise, would have had something to say. As it is, the sensation is about over, though only to be succeeded by another.

Thomas Edison is here, and has been carefully explaining his marvelous Invention to admiring throngs. "The boys of the newspaper row" passed a delightful evening together, with Mr. Edison and his phonograph in their midst. This morning the wonderful instrument was on exhibition in the patent office, where the whole corps, from Commissioner down, seemed immensely interested. Pieces of tin-foil were layfrom Communication down, seemed immensely interested. Pieces of tin-foil were lay-ishly distributed among the tady elerks as mementoes. Later in the day Edison appeared by invitation before the Academy of Science, now in session, and with him came and Russia her army,—from the vicinity of Canstantinople, by which the liability to collision will be greatly diminished.

—Owing to the greatly increased travel on the Camden and Atlantic Road Gauge Railread, the management commenced on Saturday hast, and will also run on every Saturday, until further notice, a fast extress train through to Atlantic City, leaving Vine St. wharf, Philadelphin, at 4 P. M., and returning, leaving Atlantic City on the 6d-lowing Monday at 7.15 A. M. This train will run through in ainety minutes, without stopping, All the heets and boarding houses how open are doing quite a large buisiness, for now is one of the most pleasant times to said. Atlantic City in the whole year, being fully equal to a visit to Florida, it being in fact an island, about eight miles out in the casm from the mainland.

—The sensational papers are in high gleen and respectable people are desply pained, over another first-class scandial case. Some letters, containing the most endearing and passionate expressions of affection, alleged to be written by Dr. McCokry, P. E. Bishap of Michigan, aged screen, denies all charges of improper intimacy, and says his resignation is on account of age. iure of the service was the ceremeny of taking the small or law from the ark. The ark occupied a recess in the wall immediately behind the pulpetr and the rabbi, turning around with his back to the congregation, resul a persion from the prayer-book, while the president of the congregation drew back the red carrain which more before the ark. The serolls or "norsh," in two facts or rolls, anveloped in a red silk eventuar, were then given to the rabbit, who still continued intoning the service. Turning slowly, the "torah" was represently hald upon the desk and opened, and the rabbit road appropriate portions. It was then returned with the same careacony, and the ark closed. The rabbit then delivered a discourse on the history of the Hebrew race,—a history full of stirring sectes and strange vicinstrates, over which the down of every age have loved to linger with mingled fedings of joy and sadness.
