These can hardly be considered true cases of somnambulism, but show how men may continue their occupations when overcome by sleep. Nothing but seeing his bayonet and keys lying on the capstan could have ever convinced the marine that he had been sleeping; no mere assertion to that effect would ever have influenced him.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN & COLD BOY AND A WARM BOY .- Sunday afternoon a policeman walking along Columbia street east caught sight of a boy about twelvo years old trying to pry up a kitchen window. As the lad betrayed no slarm when accosted, the officer mildly demanded if he lived there, and why he was prying up the sash.

"I live here, but I'm locked out," replied the boy, "This is about the hundredth time this game has been played on me, and this is the last hair that breaks the camel's back !"

"Where's your mother 7"

"Gone over to my aunt's, I s'pose I have just got home from Sunday, behool."

"And why should she look the door?"

"That's the bloody mystery I" angrily exclaimed the lad. "There's a big frosted cake in the house, of course, but would I touch it ? Why, I just hate the sight of raisin cake with frosting on it!"

"You simply desire to get in to warm your feet," suggested the officer.

"That's all, and I'm going in if it takes the roof off !"

The officer walked on, and in a few minutes passed up the alley behind the house to help catch a loose horse.
