A Harrisburg dispatch, of the fith inst., ave: Although Jack Kehne, of Schuylkill onity, was to have been hanged on April 8 inst for the murico of F. W. S. Langdon 8 1862, this chief of the Mollie Maguire int (862, this chief of the Mollie Maguire manderers is still living, and the State su-thorities are apparently averse to enforcing the judgment of the lower court. The flow-ernor expresses doubts of the guilt of Kehon, and the Board of Pardons has had hit case under consideration since April 9, the Gov-ernor's death warrant having been recalled, in order to have the case heard by them and Twosday the Board postponed the further consideration of the application for a com-mutation of death sentence to imprisonment for life, until Sentember 3. There is every mutation of death sentence to imprisonment for life, until September 3. There is every probability that Kohos will not be hanged, if he is hanged at all, during Governor Hartranft's administration.

The prospects for steady work are very graging in the Panther Creek Valley, during the present month.

-At No. 6 they are talking of an abandonment. The coal is giving out and unless a new strike is soon made there will be nothing more to mine for market.

-Fred Engel, of Lansford, well known about the "Old Mines," departed Thursday morning of last week for his native place, Germany, declaring that this time he quits the United States forever.

-Company "F" of Summit Hill, is a model military organization. Always up to the timos they are going to give a ball in the Town Hall after the September pay, Capt. Wehr having the matter in charge.

-Business is jogging alongevenly through Lansford and the Hill just now. Seem, Neumiller, Edwards and Kline with Min-nich, Friedman, Kline and Jones on the Summit, doing all that there is call for. Big Simon and Jolly Casper always hold their own own.

The last remnant of the old plane days --The last rominant of the out plane mays is first disappearing from sight and memory dear. The large brick chinney was taken down Wednesday and Thursday, and the walls of the engine home removed. Before the tunnel was cut through hundreds of full cars of coal a day went over the pinne from the Valley mines through Summit Hill to the tole market. The Hill was then a live-ly business centre, men had work, and all went well. Now how changed. No more coal passes over the old way. Nos 4 and 5 heing on five makes romay idle hands, and, though there is much life yet remaining amongst the enterprining merchants and citizens of the old town, the stoppage is severely felt.—Tamaqua Coavier, Aug. 3.

- Hon, Hendrick B Wright, in 1 peoch in Congress, February 5, 1802, during the discussion of the bill authorizing the Government to issue Greenbacks, said:

This bill proposes, Sir, to throw on the suntry $100,000,000 of tredsury notes, treasury notes, pevable at no time - psyable no where able at the pleasure of the Government and at the plansum of the Government—and the accounting clause is added, that these note —payable at no place, at no line—shall be twivel mency and a legal tender in pay-ment of all debts, public and private, within the United States. New I submit as a matter of low of Juw, as a correct couclusion from the Cen-stitution itself, that you cannot under the Con-stitution of these United States, make anything but gold and silver a legal tender

-A greenback organ in Albany says that the next Congress will order the issue of $1,-000,000,000 of new greenbacks, and that the money will be expetided for the following PAITDO

"First, ship canal from the Hudson (Lake Christophint; seeond, ship canal around the Falls of Niagara; third, ship canal around the Falls of Niagara; third, ship canal from Albary to Buffalo, the said canal to be used by all the State free of toll; fourth, snip canal from New York to the Guff of Nexton, in order to reduce the distance and add to the sofety of our coastwise commerce: fifth, the improvement of all our great rivers, as as to make their expanities equal to the com-mercial wants of the near future." The New York Post characterizes this as a niggardly scheme," and does not believe that the plan would give half the tramps in the country easy work and large wages. It advises the groenback organ to demand $10,-000,000,000 in flat notes, and, in addition to the schemes mentioned, appropriations of money to cut down the Allogheuy and Rocky Mountains, so that commerce may have free course between the East and West to drain the great lakes, in order that the land which they cover may be given to "the homoless poor?" to junnel the Atlantic Grean, in order that tramps may be able to visit Europe without being forced to submit Our attention was recently attracted
