H. published August 10, 1878. $25 Jo pe Numbers receipt Three or Printing Three Greenbacker," Greenback Party, ct when for this column.

-A dispatch from Sunbury to the Philadelphia Record, dated Oct. 5th, says that ex-Judge Jordan, one of Sunbury's most honored citizens, died there on Saturday morning last, at the ripe age of eighty-one years. He had been sick for some time, but his case was not considered hopeless. He was elected Judge of the judicial district including Montour and Northumberland counties in 1852 by the Democratic party, and dealt out justice for twenty consecutive years, when he was succeeded by Judge Rockafeller, the present incumbent. Being a very thrifty man, he amassed a fortune of upwards of $75,000.

-Stroudsburg Jeffersonian: Mr. Mason the Greenback candidate for Governor, assorted in the court house last Saturday evening, that the stagnation in general business matters was owing to unwise legislation by the Republican party. But the gentleman did not think it worth while to say maything about the much worse business de pression existing in England, Germany, Italy, France and other European countries. The same kind of depression exists there that same kind of depression exists there that does here but to a greater degree. In order to be logical Mr. Mason cught to have laid lucky wound made him a Major-General, that to the door of unwise Republican legis- and took part in the battle of Churobus lation also. But, perhaps, he thought his audience would not quite stand so much stuffing.

- Says the Philadelphia Lodger: Secre tary Schurz's decision about the opening up of Pacific Railroad lands to pre-emption at the same price as Government lands is likely to be before the United States Supreme Court for speedy sottlement. It is a matter of seemingly equal importance to intending settlers and to the railroad companies to have the question at issue determined promptly by the Court of last resort. If Secretary Schurz should be sustained, a vast amount of land, valuable on account of its proximity to railroads, will be opened up to actual settlers at a merely nominal price; if it is not sustained the railroad companies will obtain a clearer title than they now have to lands heavily mortgaged to pay for the construction of the roads,

- Another horrible accident was Tuesday added to the dismal list of disasters caused by carelessness. A long railway train on the Old Colony road carrying back to Boston hundreds of people who had been spectators of the Silver Lake regatta, was thrown from the truck when near the end of its trip, and instantly a score or more of human beings were dashed into eternity, while twice as many were wounded and otherwise injured lost a race at the regatta, and then lost his life in the terrible crush of doomed cars The only explanation of the disaster is given in two words that have been heard far too often in this country-"misplaced switch." It is barely possible, but not at all probable, that the misplacement was effected intentional and maliciously by evilly disposed persons, but it is far more likely that the carelesaness or neglect of some employee of the road led to the accident. There is no possible excuse for a misplaced switch, as all railroad men know; so there is no reason why an investigation and distinct verdict should not be promptly given in this particular case by a coroner's jury.

-The Pacific coast, within a few weeks past, has witnessed a succession of atroclous crimes. First came the murder instignted by the Public Administrator of Sacrmento to get the yietim's estate into his hands; next three thieves entered a pawnbroker's shop in Portland, Oregon, in broad daylight, beating the pawnbroker nearly to death, and made off with money and jewelry, killing a boy in their flight; soon afterwards a young man in San Francisco attempted to kill a girl searcely fourteen years old with whom he was in love; almost simultaneously a man in the same city, thinking he had accomplished the murder of his wife, set fire to his house and committed suicide; finally, an old resident of an interior county of California, after several days of gambling and dissipation scattered strychnine over household provisions and in a water bucket, in the hope of poisoning his wife and son, killed his daughter of 20 years with a hatchet and then blew out his own miserable brains with a pistol. To these acts are to be added the micides of two prominent San Franciscans, one a former Tax Collector, and the other the President of the French Savings Bank. The papers have discovered that it is a genuine epidemic of crime.

-Greenbackers appear to be scarce in Constantinople. There seems to be no practical limit to the amount of currency "based on the wealth of the nation," which is "flowing into Constantinople from every side," and yet the peopls are not happy. The objection to the money is the minor one that it has very little value, and the more there is of it the less valuable it becomes. There can, of course, be no parallelism between the condition of financial affairs in Turkey, with an inflated currency, and the condition of affairs we should have here with a similar" blessing." Turkey has been a misgoverned despotism for years, while this is the land of the free, where the people rule. Still, it seems a little odd that unlimited paper money, which would at once restore prosperity here (according to Greenback financiers), does not have approximately the same effect in Turkey.

-Late returns of the Western elections sum up the result as follows: In Ohio, eleven Democrats and nine Republicans are elected to Congress. Among the Congress-men elected are Garfield and Townsond, by the Republicans, and Ewing and MacMahon by the Democrats, In Indiana, five Republicans, five Democrats and two Nationals appear to be elected to Congress, one district, the Ninth, being doubtful. The State Senate will stand 25 Republicans, 24, Democrats and I National; the House,45 Republicans, 51 Democrats and four Nationals. In Iowa the Republican majority is estimated at 30,-000, and all the Congressional districts are Republican. In West Virginia the Legislature is largely Democratic, and the Democrats elect the Congressmen.

-Gideon J. Piliow died on Tuesday morning at his home near the mouth of the St. Francis River. The despatch, which comes from Helena, Ark., says that the cause of death was congestion of the brain. It would have been better for Gen. Pillow's fame if he had died thirty years ago. When the Mexican war broke out, he was 40 years old. He had been practising law and politics in his native Tennessee ever since his graduation from Nashville University in 1827. He had been a member of the Baltimore Convention of 1844, and had had a large hand in the nomination of James K. Poik for the Presidency. Naturally he had no difficulty in obtaining a commission as Brigadier-General of volunteers. He was present at the co, the storming of Chapu'tepec, and the action of Molino del Rey. After the fighting was over Gen. Scott sent him before a court-martial for disobedience of orders, but he was acquitted. He went back to Tennessee and his law books. The rebellion broke out, and Pillow drew his sword against the flag under which he had fought. He commanded the Confederates at Belmont, and was second in command at Port Donelson. When it become plain that the fort would not hold out, he followed Floyd's example and decamped, leaving Buckner to make the surrender. He was relieved from duty by the Con-lederate authorities, and, though he afterward got back into the army, was never again trusted with an independ-ent command. He celebrated his 72d birthday last June.

-The election of Senator Voorhees to succeed himself seems conceded by both parties in Indiana. The Democrats claim one half the votes on joint boilot, and of the four Nationals probably elected to the Legislature, two at least it is asserted, are pledged to vote for Mr. Voorhees As the Democratic party is a unit in support of the "Tail Sycamore of the Wabash," by which title Mr. Voor-hees has long been pleasantly known in Indiana, these two votes will secure his election beyond question. Unless, indeed, the Nationals should take it into their heads to make use of the balinbre or less seriously. One of the victims, Indiana Legislature to better advan-Patrick Resgan, seems to have been most tage than Senator Vootbees might be ance of power they seem to hold in the remarkable pursued by fate, having just able to offer them. -N. Baltimone, Md., Oct. 7.—A letter received here says that test Fridov night a dozen intoxicated tramps lay down to sleep on one of the coke ovens near Fountain Mills, Fayette country, Fenn'a. During the night the arched roof broke in with their weight, and the unfortunate men fell into the raging fires below and perished. On Saturday morning their charred and unrecognizable bones were drawn from the oven. Strange to say, their sad fate produced no excitement, and no coroner's inquest was held. Three hours afterwards the remains were intered in an old sah heap and the oven was refilled with old ash heap and the oven was refilled with fresh cost.

His right shoulder and his ribs were also bailly hurt. He was taken carried to his villa on the cliffs. He is now recovering.

" Bon't Give Up the Ship,"

When these words were spoken by our lamented fawrence, it must have been a solenin time for those on board, and probably not a dry eye among them, seeing their commander mortally wounded, and still giving orders like the above; but not more solenin orders like the above; but not more solemn than when the family physician informs you that some one of your family has an af-fection of the lungs which, if neglected, will eventually terminate in Consumption. But, reader, don't be frightened or "give up the ship," for Dr. Hale, a physician of Europe, discovered a remedy for all Coughs, Colda, Hourseness, Difficult Breathing, and all af-fections of the Throat, Brotechial Tubes and Lames leading to Consumption, and C.
