The Governou's Proclamation.
Harrishung, Nov. 9.—The following was issued to-day:
In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, John F. Harranft, Governor of the and Commonwealth.

During the past year the people of the United States have been patient in distress, steadfast to time-honored institutions and hopeful of the final destiny of their country. Their patience has been the scentry of secrety; their faith has saved for posterity an uninquaired heritage, and their charity has met pestilence with active sympathy and quiet self-sucrifice.

Now, therefore, I. John F. Hartranft, Governor of Dunneylyania, doorsout Thursday. A PRODUCTION.

ernor of Pennsylvania, do appoint Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, 1878, being the same day set apart by the Presi-dent of the United States awarday of thanksgiving and prayer, that the citizens of this Commonwealth may give thanks to Al-mighty God, not only for peace and reviving prosperity, but for the faith, hope and char ty which His spirit has kindled in their mris.

Given under my hand and the Great Scal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 9th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and of the Commonwealth the one hus dred and third.

A Bethlehem dispatch, dated the 12th inst., gives the following particulars of a fight between Hon. Chas. Brothead and fight between Hon. Chas. Brothead and Capt. Boudinot:

While the Hon. Charles Brothead was standing at the Union depot, this place, at its o'clock this morning, engaged in conversation with Mr. Frank Roop, master mechanic of the North Penn Railroad, he was approached by Captain W. B. L. Boudinot, who said: "Will you apologize for the language you used yesterday?" Mr. Brothead replied: "No: go about your business. I have nothing to do with you." These words were scarcely uttered when Boudinot raised his cane and struck Brothead a terrible blow over the head, shattering the came and inhis cane and struck Brodhead a terrible blow over the head, shattering the came and in-flicting an ugly scalp wound upon Mr. Brod-head. He continued to beat Mr. Brodhead until the latter get a blow in on Boudinot's face, which seat him sprawling upon the ground. Bystanders then interfered and prevented Brodhead from following up his advantage. This afternoon Boudinot was arrested on a charge of aggravated nessant and battery with intent to kill, waived a hearing, and furnished ball in the sum of $800. The affray grew out of a wrangle over the proprietorship of the Sun Hotel, Boudinot espousing the cause of George W. Randinot esponsing the cause of George W. Jackson, a fandlerd, whom Brodhead had violently ejected from the hotel,

That man, (and there were others just as dishonorable in other ways), willfully misled and deceived honest voters. This phase of our politics must be a source of deep regret and anxiety to all henomable men, who have any faith in our institutions and form of government.

I believe there are many thinking and henorable men, who would had the day with joy if the politics of our country would be conducted, with at least some regard to honor, justice, and the best welfare of the masses of the people.

My defeat, will please and delight my few personal cameies, and when they can be tratified by so small an inconvenience to me, I ask you all to be content.

To my friends I again say that I am not unmindful of your kindness towards me in the past. I will not forget you.
