county, before the Investigation Committee: Representative Cassidy, of Carbon, said that staring the discussion on the riot bill, Ah.x. W. Leisening, president of the First National Bank of Mauch Chunk, came here and was introduced to him by his colleague. Leisening inquired as to the prospects of the bill, is he was going to buy some Penn-is) vania Railroad stock. Winess and his rolleague (Zeru) told him they didn't know, they were opposed to the bill and advised inm to inquire of Elisha Davis. He wan taken was about to be taken. He went on to say that he expected to make $4.000 by a stock speculation if ed to make $4.000 by a stock speculation if the bill passed. He would buy two thous-and shares of Pennsylvania stock and make $4.000 by the rise. If Cassidy and his col-league would vote for this bill be would give them half of the profits. Witness replied simply given the facts in the case. that he couldn't do it, and afterward told his colleague about it.

In response to the above charge, made by Hon. Michael Cassidy, Mr. A. W. Leisenpartial denial of Mr. Cassidy's statement.

I went te Harrisburg to solicit an appoint-ment for a personal friend. I dropped into the Housé, where Dr. Zern, recogning me, procured a seat, at the same time beckoning "both your members are opposed to the bill, and I can't give you any information as to its fate." I returned to Zern and Cassidy, out g_{1} , and 1 scoled about the city and dropped in at the Bolton House, where we net (cassidy, and all three of us sat down and for sti hour or more we talked about different matters. About 10 o'check Dr. United States. Zern joined us.
