told him that they had done everything, and there was nothing further to employ them about: "N," said he, "make them scour the anchor." This kind of fort, however contemptible, is a sufficient defense against Indians, who have no cannon. Finding ourselves now posted securely, and having a place to retreat to an occasion, we ventured out in parties to soour the adjacent country.
We met with no Indians but we found the places on the neighborng hills, where they ised fain to watch our proceedings. " I had harrily finished this husiness, and got my fort well stored with provisions, when I received a letter from the governor, acquaining me, that he had called the Assembly, and wished my attendance there, if the posture of affairs on the frontiers was such that my remaining there was no longer necessary. My friends, too, of the Assembly, pressing me by their letters to be, if possible, at the meeting and, my three intonied forts being now completed, and the inhabitants contented to remain on their farms, under that protection, I resolved to return; the more willingly, as a New Enginmagnation consisted to remain on their farms, under that protection, I resolved by return; the more willingly, as a New England officer, Colonel Clapham, experiences in Indian war being on a visit to our establishment, consented to accept the command I wave jum a command. I wave jum a command. I gave him a commission, and, parading the garison, had it read before them; and introduced him to them as an officer, who um his skill in military affairs, was much more fit to command them than myself; and, giving them a little exhortation took my leave. I was executed as far as Beth-letion, where I rested a low days to recover from the fatigue I had undergone. The first night, lying in a good bed, I could hard-ly sleep, it was so different from my hard ledging on the floor of a hut at Gnaden-Huetten, with only a blanket or two."
