—For cheap Farm Land in Carbon county, inquire at N. D. Cortright, Mauch Chunk.

H. H. Peters in announcing to his friends and the public in general that he is now preparing and opening his spring stock of cloths, cassimeres, vestings and suitings, and that he is prepared to make up all classes of clothing at prices never before heard of in this section.

—Perfect fits and lowest prices, is the motto of this house, and don't you forget it. Store in the Post-office building.

—Don't be afraid to use Paris green on your potato stalks. It can do no harm to the stalks, and is sure death to the bugs.

—The next annual session of the Central Lodge of the I. O. F. of Pennsylvania will be held at Reading during the third week in May 1879.

—The one hundred and thirty-second annual meeting of the Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania and adjacent States will be held at Lebanon, commencing Sunday.

—Just one week after the death of Am Packer, Mrs. Clara, wife of William A. Packer, of Springville, Susquehanna county, (sister of Mrs. Packer), died after a brief illness. She was one of the legates under Judge Packer's will, to the amount of $5,000.

—Lewis Weiss is now receiving and opening a new elegant stock of hats, caps, and shoes for spring and summer wear, which he is prepared to sell at unprecedentedly low prices. He respectfully invites an inspection of his stock being assured that he can give full satisfaction.

—The Popular Western Ticket Agent, B. O'Brien, will be at this office next Wednesday night. If you intend to go west, call and see him, he will send you right, cheap and quick.

—John Weir, a miner, of Beranton, was fatally injured on Monday by the explosion of a charge, while charging a blast.

—A story some time ago circulated, that the engineer corps of the Lehigh and Easton Railroad Company are locating a new line from White Haven to Strouburg, is again revived.

—On the 20th of the present month the surviving members of the gallant 1st Reg. Vet. Vols., of Pa., will hold a reunion at the American House in Mauch. All those who propose joining in the festivities of the occasion, should report at once to Leist, Jos. S. Webb, of this borough. Tickets for supper 75 cents each.

—The Seneca Colliery, at Pittston, operated by the Pittston and Lehigh Coal Company, resumed Monday, after a month's suspension, and give full employment to 700 men and boys.

—The employees of the Excelsior Colliery of Shamokin, held a meeting on Saturday night and resolved to cease work until they are paid for the month of April under the system of the Schuylkill Coal Exchange.

—The Excelsior Company recently adopted a system which makes a reduction of five per cent below the prices of the Schuylkill Exchange.

—Peter Powell shot and fatally wounded his brother, Melchor, in Strouburg, on Sunday night, and is now in jail. They had long been quarrelling about their father's property.

—New Music.—We have received from the publishers, Lee & Walker, 1113 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, five pieces of new music. A song them a ballad, "Up the Lehigh," by Prof. John F. Halket. This performance evinces finish, crisp and easy composition; and has some exquisite operatic touches which give it character in harmony with the name. The other pieces are the "Centennial Fountain Grand March," by E. Mank; a waltz, "Always Gay and Young," by H. Mosler; "Operatic French Racers," by J. W. Foster; "The Hooping Rodders," by B. F. Estburn.

—A crying baby is a bore to the whole household and the mother should be forwarded to keep Dr. Ball's Baby Syrup handy. Price 25 cents.

Religious Notes.

—A new assortment of wall paper just received at Peter's Drug store, cheap for cash. —Mr. Jacob Reber, of Franklin township, has grown on his farm this year a most remarkable stalk of clover. It measures three feet; some of the prongs contain seven leaves, and the whole stalk has on it 117 leaves. He proposes to put it in a pot and exhibit it at our agricultural fair next fall.

—An explosion of fire-damp occurred at the Glendon Colliery, Mahanoy City, on Saturday evening, killing Joseph Nookes, boy, and severely injuring five others. The "fire boss" had warned the men from a gangway which he was having it cleaned, but they did not heed him, and one of them, named Kerns, walked back and struck a light, causing the explosion.

—Pure Paris Green for sale at Peter's Drug store, opposite the Carbon House, Bank street, Lehigh.

—The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company having announced an advance of the tolls to take effect on Monday last, notified the miners that under the agreement with them, this advance will be followed by a corresponding advance of their wages, which, for the month of June, will not be less than 10 per cent. below the basis, instead of 20, as hitherto paid; and that the condition of the coal trade is such as to warrant the expectation of further advances of all prices of coal for July and August, which will involve corresponding advances in the rate of wages for those months.

—All kinds of dry goods and cheap goods at Dan. Graver's Bio Hive Store, across the ever. Call and examine goods.

—The Rev. James A. Little was most heartily welcomed home by his parishioners last Sabbath, after his vacation of two or three weeks, at Saratoga Springs, that famous and fashionable watering place.

—Dr. J. A. Horn, a graduate of the Physicians and Surgeons College of Baltimore, has been engaged by Mrs. A. G. Peter, to attend to the regular lecture. The doctor will always be found in attendance, and persons desiring there will always receive polite attention.

—The Turkish Ambassador, M. Maanars, is Dean of the foreign envoys accredited to London, where he has represented Turkey some 40 years. He is much more an Englishman than a Turk, and one of his daughters is married to Mr. Heriot (son of an Episcopal clergyman), whose sister married Lord Westworth, Byron's grandson. The Turkish Embassy is a very large abode in Bayswater square, north of Hyde Park, and right across the street from the regular lecture of David Edgart, is in a large building on North street, this borough. Terms reasonable.

—In an editorial comment on advertising schemes, The Reading Penn. Times truthfully says: There are men who would rather spend $10 or $20 in the rail-car and board notices, which may be seen by a few hundred people, than to expend the same sum in their home papers, where tens of thousands of eyes would see their card every day.

—This is an age of newspaper readings and the senior business men come to realize this fact in all its importance, the better it will be for business generally, and the better it will be for the community.

—Provisions to the Bee Hive Store for groceries and groceries of the finest quality at lowest prices.

—For the week ending May 31, there were shipped over the Lehigh & Susquehanna Railroad 22,312 tons of coal, making a total for the season to that date of 1,534,018 tons, an increase of 772,119 tons as compared with same date last year.

—Jonas Sondheim has received another large stock of MEN'S, BOYS', AND CHILDREN'S SUITS, which he will sell regardless of cost. He is selling men's shoes for 75 cts; shirts, 25 cts; hats for 15 cts, upwards, and everything else in proportion, call before purchasing elsewhere. FIRST CLOTHING STORE ABOVE THE MANSION HOUSE, MAUCH CHUNK.

—Owing to the displacement of a switch a fast freight train ran into a coal train on the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad, at Pittston, Wednesday. One of the engines was demolished and the other badly damaged, while freight and coal cars were piled in common ruin. The employees escaped injury by jumping off the trains.

—Judge Asa Packer's will, recently probated, contained the following clause: "And to the trustees of Washington College, Lexington, Va., the sum of $4,000; and I also direct that the bond of the Washington College, Lexington, Va., for $1,000 be surrendered and cancelled by the trustees, thus making the legacy to that college $5000."

A letter had been received from the trustees of Washington College, at Lexington, Va., saying that is the institution which Judge Packer really intended to benefit and the one which really held the bond now in possession of the estate. On the other hand the Superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute, a state institution, also situated at Lexington, Va., claims to be the whole of the legacy saying that it was intended for that institution, inasmuch as the $1,000 bond referred to was in reality a bond of the Virginia Military Institute, and not one of Washington College, which has been known as the Washington and Lee University since the death of its President Gen. Robert E. Lee.

—Our Borough School Board organized on Monday evening last, by the election of the following officers: President, Wm. Rex; Secretary, Daniel Graver; Treasurer, E. H. Snyder.

—Daniel Graver, at the Bee Hive Store, calls the attention of the ladies to his new stock of summer dress goods. Prices down to the lowest figures.

—Mrs. Thos. A. Williams, being about to join her husband in Texas, will sell at public sale, at Mansie's Hotel, in this borough, on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock, a variety of Household Furniture, comprising stoves, chairs, tables, &c. Terms Cash.

—Rev. Jas. Bowman, of Allentown, delivered a very interesting lecture in the Lehigh Evangelical church, on Friday evening, subject, "My Soldier Life." Rev. Bowman is an able and eloquent speaker, who relates some very extraordinary experiences in soldier life, in a very effective and pleasing manner. His experiences and ministrations as a military prisoner, in Libby and Salisbury prisons, brought tears to many an eye unaccustomed to weeping. It was the best patriotic lecture our people have ever had the pleasure of hearing. The benefits of the lecture were devoted to Sunday School Missionary purposes.

—On Thursday evening of last week the Mite Society of the M. E. Church, held a very pleasant and agreeable entertainment, in the hall, consisting of music, singing, a miniature table, and a variety of refreshments, which was the highest term of the affair, and was a most successful season.

Manch Chunk Notes.

—On Tuesday morning, while a party was in a bright and cheerful group, attending to the cupola, Mr. Abner Eastman, accidentally fell from a scaffolding and broke one of his ribs, fracturing two others; he received other hurts and lacerations. On Wednesday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, Irving Lilly, a painter, of Bethlehem, while painting the exterior of the residence of the late Judge Packer, fell from the top of the building. In the descent, he struck the back of his head against the corner of a porch, inflicting a wound on the head and neck which was thought at first to be fatal.

—One of the bones of his right foot was also broken. He was taken to the Mauch Chunk hotel, and attended by Dr. Young. On Thursday he had very much revived, and the chances of his recovery appeared to be decidedly in his favor. His employers are the present proprietors of the business over the corner of the Gosh, of Bethlehem, who died here last fall of apoplexy while fraying the interior of Mr. Harry E. Packer's residence.

A little son of Mr. Frederick Reider, of the 21st ward, fell from a porch on Saturday last, and broke his left arm. The bone was set by Dr. Erwin.

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.—The County Commissioners held their regular meeting on Tuesday, and business, made the following appointments for Assessors in Registry: —Packer—John T. Seawell. Assessor—J. T. Seawell. Assessor—J. T. Seawell. Assessor—J. T. Seawell.

Blowing the Whistle.—The following very peculiar item was appeared in the last issue of the Mauch Chunk Democrat. It is news to our people, and especially to our land: —It is said that the Lehighton Band met for practice a few evenings since in a box car of the L. & S. Road, and now their rivals in the music have taken to the road. The New Jersey Central Box Car Band.

Excelsior band, of Lehighton, the only band in the borough, it is safe to assert, never did such a thing as that; it is not likely that their neighbors, the Phoenix, trying to load them with an odious misnomer. The Excelsior band, in point of respectability, among the best village bands in this portion of the valley, have a permanent and commodious place to meet for practice, and have always managed in a modest way to "blow their own horns."

On Tuesday, the 18th inst., they propose to give a rousing picnic on the grounds in this borough near the L. & S. depot, to the scribe who penned the above libelous paragraph is invited, when they will teach him by the most genial hospitality that "it is said" sometimes plays the over-weening note-giver for a gawk.

—92,235 tons of coal were shipped over the Lehigh Valley Railroad for the week ending May 31, making a total for the season of 1,544,698 tons, and an increase on same time last year of 52,222 tons.

—General John D. Berolletta has removed his law office to room No. 2, on the ground floor of the Mansion House, Mauch Chunk, and has fitted it up in a neat, cozy manner. He is now prepared to meet his many friends, and to accommodate them in his usual good natured and affable style. Call and see him.

—On Saturday, June 14, an old-fashioned ball was given at the public house of David Holleben, in the ancient village of Treichleersville, in Washington township.

—Pure Paris Green and Land Plaster for sale at J. L. Gabel's Hardware Store, 28-4.

—E. H. Holt, the watchmaker, has removed from South street, into the First National Bank building, where he is prepared to meet his friends and supply all the wants of the community. He has watches, jewelry, spectacles, eye glasses, &c., at prices fully as low as the same goods can be bought for in the city. Call and be convinced.

—Call and learn the prices of American watches at E. H. Holt's, under First National Bank.

Hygienic.—The social event in this borough last week was the wedding, Saturday evening, of Mr. Jacob P. Blank, formerly of Lehigh county, to Miss Rose Patterson, of this borough. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Smoyer, of the Evangelical church, officiating, and Mr. W. J. Sammel and Miss Anna Patterson acting respectively as groomsmen and bridesmaids. After the customary and congratulations, the invited guests were summoned to a sumptuous wedding supper. The friends of the bride made the recipient of a number of handsome presents. The happy couple left Monday for a brief trial tour.

—A perilous runaway occurred on the lower Lehigh on Sunday afternoon last. A horse, which made a wreck of a covered buggy belonging to Frank Reed. One of the axles broke, tripping the horse, and the vehicle with its contents, was hurled over the embankment. Frank Reed, Edward Groot and Professor Dittler were in the buggy. The driver, Frank Reed, was severely injured. They were returning from Mauch Chunk to attend the decoration services.

—Mr. Joel Klotz, an old citizen who can remember back over sixty years, says that the story that Crutcher started a second hand clothing store here, in the early settlement of this borough, is a pure fabrication. He can remember when the nearest stores were Heideberg and Lehigh. His assertion is confirmed by Josiah W. Beck, who was in town on that day. The party said no human habitation between Lehigh Gap and White Haven, except a little trading post, and no settlement until the late part of the century.

—A large and attentive audience listened to the eloquent lecture delivered by Bishop Bowman, of the Evangelical church on Wednesday evening.

Spitters from West Penn.—Onward is our aim.

—Church on Sunday at 9:30 a. m., and Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

—More weddings on the tip.

—A needed and refreshing rain this week, which was anxiously waited for.

—Some of our young gentlemen caught some nice, large fish on Monday last, and many strangers are visiting our creek this season.

—Daniel Miller met with an accident while hauling charcoal, to a place above the Lehigh, on Monday, and was injured. The Commonwealth docket for the June term, is limited to eight cases, as follows: Commonwealth against, Shadrach Davis, charged with committing rape on the person of Ann Davis, who appears as prosecutor. John Carroll, Thos. Sheppard, John Masley, charged with larceny; Justice, Beck, prosecutor.

Chas. Behr, threat of violence on the person and estates of Moses Fritzing, who appears as prosecutor. Wilson Snyder; larceny; Charles Straup, prosecutor.

—Ezekiel Ackerman, charged with larceny; W. C. Weiss, Esq., as agent, appears as prosecutor.

Paekerton Bibles.

—On Monday evening Aaron Weiss, gave a party to his friends, and the following year having elapsed since he first became a resident of this sphere. The house was thronged at an early hour, dancing was indulged in by the young men and their daughters, refreshments were served about midnight. The party broke up sometime in the early part of the morning, and the participants enjoyed themselves immensely.

—L. L. Babcock has moved to Lehigh avenue. The change was made for the benefit of his wife, who is in ill health. We trust she may be fully restored.

—Bon says he don't know whether it is Little Gap, Hickory Run, or Lehighton, but something of the kind; and Oscar, won't say. We give it up, as a conundrum.
