

E. R. BIEWERS,
DISTRICT ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR
AT LAW,
Office, Klips's Building, Broadway,
New York.

THIS PAPER
PUBLISHED BY THE CARBON ADVOCATE
NEW YORK

The Carbon Advocate.

Local and Personal.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to the CARBON ADVOCATE will take special notice that our terms are one dollar a year strictly in advance, if not so paid $1.25 will be charged in every instance.

Subscribers getting their papers by mail will refer to the direction of the papers and note the date, and remit accordingly.

Wood cut shooting is legal now.

E. H. Snyder is putting a handsome new front in his store building.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco.

At the banks do not like the trade dollars, come pay for the newspaper with them.

The Telegraph Co., have declared a dividend of 3 per cent, payable now.

Parties going west can get tickets from Bert. Seabolt, L. V. R. depot, 16-42.

This is a good time to take an airing in one of David Eberle's handsome teams.

Terms very reasonable.

All the little folks are happy because Coup's grand show is to be here on the 12th, next Saturday.

For Sale—Eight shares of the Capital stock of the 1st National Bank of Lehigh.

For further particulars apply at the Advocate office.

Mrs. Thos. Kemmer fell down stairs Wednesday afternoon, and very seriously hurt her shoulder.

A little daughter of Mrs. McLaughlin fell Wednesday and broke her collar bone.

For cheap Farm Land in Carbon county, inquire at N. D. Cortright, 24-37 Chestnut.

William Monaback, a freight brakeman on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was killed by striking a bridge at Hokenauqua Sunday.

Smith's Bible Dictionary, and an unabridged Cruden's Concordance, each to be sold for $1.00, are recent announcements of the American Book Exchange, 35 Beekman street, New York.

Bachelor & Davis announce that they will visit Lehigh on the 12th, next, for the great Railroad Show, Museum, Menagerie and Circus.

Friday the 4th, the Fantasia will meet at 5 o'clock p. m., sharp, at the shed of the "Carbon House," and parade. This undoubtedly be the feature of the day in this borough.

Thanks are extended to the gentlemen, who serenaded the young ladies at the brick, last Friday night. The music was excellent and highly appreciated; a repetition would be most acceptable.

The Popular Western Ticket Agent, B. O'Dran, will be at this office next Wednesday night. If you intend to go west, call and see him, he will send you right, cheap and quick.

300 boxes West's Vegetable Liver Pills, for sale at Durling's Drug Store, 20 cents per box.

Mr. Coup's show is as far superior to Barnum's as Barnum's to the ordinary dusty shows. It is the best ever seen in New England.

One large mower, one lawn mower, one heavy 2 horse iron axle wagon and two iron corn shellers—all new and of the latest and best patterns—will be sold, cheap for cash, by the Lehigh Valley Emery Wheel Co., Weisport Pa.

Both the Delaware and Hudson and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western companies issued circulars Monday morning advancing the price on all grades of coal 10 cents per ton.

Daniel Graver, at the Bee Hive Store calls the attention of the ladies to his new stock of summer dress goods. Prices down to the lowest figure.

Juvenile Classics—Beautiful large type elegantly bound editions of Arabian Nights and Robinson Crusoe, for 50 cents each, and of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress and Travels of Baron Munchausen, for 50 cents each have just been published by the American Book Exchange, 35 Beekman street, New York.

One of the most accomplished puppeteers under Old Folios is now ranging the country bearing the name of John Mason. He claims to be a member of Mountain City Lodge No. 829 of Pennsylvania. He is about 26 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, and wears a black moustache. He is well posted in the initiatory degree of the order. Look out for him—W. A.

If you want nice smooth, easy shavers, your hair cut or shampooing, go to Franz Roederer's Saloon, under the Exchange Hotel. He will fix you right, and don't you forget it.

The celebrated Howard Watch now selling in Mauch Chunk for $45, is being sold by E. H. Mohr, in Lehigh for $38; and a good plain watch for $10. Don't buy your watches away, when you can get them at home for less money—where expenses are not so high.

All kinds of dry goods and dress goods at Dan. Graver's Bee Hive Store, cheaper than ever. Call and examine goods.

Persons connected with the M. E. Sunday school of this borough, will please meet in Linderman's woods on the Fourth. They have a happy time. Teachers and children will meet at the church at 8 o'clock a. m.

An Encyclopedia of Universal Knowledge in 20 volumes, 18,000 pages, all for $10, and equal in all important respects to any Cyclopaedia heretofore sold for less than $100.

Announced for publication by the American Book Exchange, 35 Beekman street, New York. They have also just issued an edition of Chamber's Cyclopedia of English Literature, complete in four volumes, neatly cloth bound for $2.00. Their catalogue of several hundred standard publications, at very low prices, will be sent free on request.

Go to the Bee Hive Store for groceries and provisions of the finest quality at lowest prices.

The most popular place in Carbon county, for purchasing wall paper, stationery, and sundry articles generally, is E. F. Lachsch's, two doors below the Broadway House, Mauch Chunk. First-class painting and decorating at reasonable figures, and work guaranteed.

H. H. Peters announces that he is now receiving and opening his spring stock of cloths, suitcases, and all articles of clothing at prices never before heard of in this section. "Perfect fits and lowest prices" is the motto of this office, and don't you forget it. Store in the Post-office building.

As per notice published last week, we issue the CARBON ADVOCATE Thursday, in order to allow our employees to celebrate the glorious Fourth. The parade of the Polo Polo Tribe Imp. O. R. M., will take place at 9 a. m. Friday, and the picnic will be on hand in the afternoon and evening. Be on hand for a good time.

New editions of Rollin's Ancient History, and the "Complete Works of Josephus," both printed in large, beautiful type, and strongly and neatly bound, have just been issued at one-third the former prices, viz: Rollin, $2.25; Josephus, $2.00. American Book Exchange, publishers, 35 Beekman street, New York.

On the evening of the Fourth of July a grand children's meeting will be held in the Millport Evangelical church. Rev. C. K. For, P. E., and all the ministers belonging to the Carbon County Sunday School Society will be present to address the meeting. At the same time and place the Board of Control will meet to devise measures for holding a grand reunion of all the Evangelical Sunday schools in Carbon county.

The State Agricultural Board has issued its edict prohibiting county agricultural societies that receive the annual $100 State appropriation, from offering premiums for horse racing. There can be trials of speed, but no premiums paid without losing the $100 appropriation.

Hon. Edward Harvey, of Allentown, has been selected by a delegation of the Berks county bar to be a candidate for Judge of that district, but he declines.

A great failure in business is sometimes less lamentable than a failure in health. Dr. Bell's Baltimore Pills preserve the health. Price 25 cents.

A little son of Mr. Daniel Shock fell on Wednesday afternoon, inflicting a severe cut over the left eye. The wound was dressed by Dr. N. B. Robor.

Teachers' Examinations.

The following is a list of days appointed for the examination of teachers by the County Superintendent, in the district normal:

Audubon, July 16th.

Lehigh, July 17th.

Parke, July 18th.

Rockport, July 22nd.

Summit, July 24th.

Parryville, July 26th.

East Weisport, August 9th.

Drowned While Bathing.

On Saturday last William Henry, son of Daniel Romig, of East Penn, was sent to a blacksmith shop at Bowmanville, to get some work done, and while at the shop he proceeded to the canal to take a bath, and, as is supposed, was taken with cramp and was drowned. His body was recovered, and he was buried from his parents residence on Monday. He was aged 13 years, 8 months, and 13 days.

Saved from Being Hanged.

A Milford dispatch dated June 30th says: Alvin King, aged 22, took a horse from the farm of James Ward, in South Canaan, Wayne County, on Wednesday. He drove the horse for several hours, and returned it to the barn almost exhausted. Ward was waiting for him partially intoxicated. He seized King, placed a halter round his neck, and being a powerful man, hanged King to the beam. Ward's wife heard the noise of the scuffle in the barn, and ran to the scene. She held King clear of the floor by the end of the halter. King was struggling to reach the beam with his hands, and was rapidly strangling. Mrs. Ward tried to force her husband's hands from the halter. Failing in that, she seized a scythe that hung at the side of the barn and cut the halter with a blow from its blade. She deflected King from her husband, and dragged him out into the air. He soon recovered consciousness and made good his escape.

Religious Notes.

LEHIGHTON M. E. CHURCH, Rev. J. P. Miller, pastor—Sunday, July 6-9 a. m. Class Meeting, 10 a. m., Preaching, 10 a. m. Sunday School, 6:30 p. m. Saturday, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Prayer, Little Peoples Meeting.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH, WEISPORT, Rev. J. K. Seydl, pastor—German preaching at 10 a. m.; Teachers' meeting at 1:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2 p. m.; English preaching at 7:30 p. m.

LEHIGHTON EVANGELICAL CHURCH, Rev. H. J. Snyder, pastor, to-morrow, Sunday—German preaching at 10 a. m.; English preaching at 1:30 p. m.; Teachers' meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Emma Olinde, as Hobe, sang a sweet soprano, and sustained the character admirably.

Miss Clara Hibbler, as Little Buttercup, had a fair conception of her part, and rendered it well. She sang a fine solo, and her acting was good. She "made up" too young and comely, by far, for a Portsmouth lumberman woman who had been "baby farming" a generation or more since.

In her acting at the close, she impressed the thought that she has become the affianced of Capt. Corcoran—bad taste, even though it may be suggested by some American version of Pinafore. The part she had is one in which genius shows to poor advantage, and only the judge of the historic art will appreciate the talent required to give life to such dramatic personae. A gentleman who admirably witnessed her rendering of the character dashed off the following postscript, and inserted it in his program:

THE LITTLE BUTTERCUP.
From woodland, dell and bow;
Then peep up the Buttercup,
An humble little bow'r.

It struggles on 'mid noise and thrum,
And blooms a golden hue;
No hands are seen, no lovers' bliss—
No brilliant pieces of art;
Nor must sweet a chord repeat
To reach the tender heart.

It peeps not, it stings not,
It speaks no evil thing,
It vaunts not, it envys not—
This humble child of Spring.

It never errs, nor sheds tears,
And lives in Virtue's case;
It secrets keep, in silence deep,
So, every one, beneath the sun,
Like little Buttercup,
Must win its 'gainst tide and strife,
If they but PARSIFY UP.

A Card of Thanks.

The officers and teachers of the First Presbyterian Sunday school of Lehigh, thank those to whom so cheerfully contributed of their means to help the Fifth Anniversary of the above named Sunday school; to the ladies for their liberal donation of oaks and bouquets; to the speakers who so eloquently and pleasantly spoke to the children and added to making the event a joyous occasion; and to those who so kindly in the past took an interest in the school, and at this time seek its welfare; and to all those who were present upon the happy occasion of its Anniversary and take an interest in Sunday schools in general.

Every mother in the land should know the value of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and never be without it. It is free from opiates. Price 25 cents a bottle.

H. H. S. Pinafore.

The English opera of Pinafore, which was given in the school hall on Friday and Saturday evening of last week, by a party of young ladies and gentlemen of Lehighton and Mauch Chunk, attracted, as might be expected, a large audience. On Friday evening there was a slim attendance, but the following evening brought a comfortably filled house, there being between four and five hundred people in the auditorium.

Several weeks ago, when the preliminaries for staging the piece here were inaugurated, it was contemplated to be an entertainment for the benefit of the Reformed church choir; and it was so generally understood. With such a conception, as we always have done in co-operation with all the churches and other humane and benevolent causes, we published in the ADVOCATE, from week to week, current extracts from the press, and other articles, in regard to Pinafore, calculated to call it to the popular attention, and to create for the entertainment a demand among our people.

At the last we learned that the church choir had withdrawn from the original arrangement, for reasons not important to the public, and that the entertainment had become an individual enterprise. Henceforward we dealt with the manager on business principles—just as we do, in self-defense, with all other business speculations, the purposes of which are to make money. This seems to have satisfied some of those interested; but the man of sense finds nothing mysterious in this liberal. We had already advertised under the impression that we were a contribution in favor of the Reformed church choir.

Pinafore has several popular features, and on account of the simplicity of its composition, is well adapted to talented amateurs; and if the business had been managed less clumsily here, so as to harmonize the local feeling in the vicinity, there is reason to think that it would have been greeted each evening with a crowded house, and have been a financial success.

The subject of the piece is a list of days appointed for the examination of teachers by the County Superintendent, in the district normal:

Audubon, July 16th.

Lehigh, July 17th.

Parke, July 18th.

Rockport, July 22nd.

Summit, July 24th.

Parryville, July 26th.

East Weisport, August 9th.

Drowned While Bathing.

On Saturday last William Henry, son of Daniel Romig, of East Penn, was sent to a blacksmith shop at Bowmanville, to get some work done, and while at the shop he proceeded to the canal to take a bath, and, as is supposed, was taken with cramp and was drowned. His body was recovered, and he was buried from his parents residence on Monday. He was aged 13 years, 8 months, and 13 days.

Saved from Being Hanged.

A Milford dispatch dated June 30th says: Alvin King, aged 22, took a horse from the farm of James Ward, in South Canaan, Wayne County, on Wednesday. He drove the horse for several hours, and returned it to the barn almost exhausted. Ward was waiting for him partially intoxicated. He seized King, placed a halter round his neck, and being a powerful man, hanged King to the beam. Ward's wife heard the noise of the scuffle in the barn, and ran to the scene. She held King clear of the floor by the end of the halter. King was struggling to reach the beam with his hands, and was rapidly strangling. Mrs. Ward tried to force her husband's hands from the halter. Failing in that, she seized a scythe that hung at the side of the barn and cut the halter with a blow from its blade. She deflected King from her husband, and dragged him out into the air. He soon recovered consciousness and made good his escape.

Religious Notes.

LEHIGHTON M. E. CHURCH, Rev. J. P. Miller, pastor—Sunday, July 6-9 a. m. Class Meeting, 10 a. m., Preaching, 10 a. m. Sunday School, 6:30 p. m. Saturday, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Prayer, Little Peoples Meeting.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH, WEISPORT, Rev. J. K. Seydl, pastor—German preaching at 10 a. m.; Teachers' meeting at 1:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2 p. m.; English preaching at 7:30 p. m.

LEHIGHTON EVANGELICAL CHURCH, Rev. H. J. Snyder, pastor, to-morrow, Sunday—German preaching at 10 a. m.; English preaching at 1:30 p. m.; Teachers' meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Emma Olinde, as Hobe, sang a sweet soprano, and sustained the character admirably.

Miss Clara Hibbler, as Little Buttercup, had a fair conception of her part, and rendered it well. She sang a fine solo, and her acting was good. She "made up" too young and comely, by far, for a Portsmouth lumberman woman who had been "baby farming" a generation or more since.

In her acting at the close, she impressed the thought that she has become the affianced of Capt. Corcoran—bad taste, even though it may be suggested by some American version of Pinafore. The part she had is one in which genius shows to poor advantage, and only the judge of the historic art will appreciate the talent required to give life to such dramatic personae. A gentleman who admirably witnessed her rendering of the character dashed off the following postscript, and inserted it in his program:

THE LITTLE BUTTERCUP.
From woodland, dell and bow;
Then peep up the Buttercup,
An humble little bow'r.

It struggles on 'mid noise and thrum,
And blooms a golden hue;
No hands are seen, no lovers' bliss—
No brilliant pieces of art;
Nor must sweet a chord repeat
To reach the tender heart.

It peeps not, it stings not,
It speaks no evil thing,
It vaunts not, it envys not—
This humble child of Spring.

It never errs, nor sheds tears,
And lives in Virtue's case;
It secrets keep, in silence deep,
So, every one, beneath the sun,
Like little Buttercup,
Must win its 'gainst tide and strife,
If they but PARSIFY UP.

A Card of Thanks.

The officers and teachers of the First Presbyterian Sunday school of Lehigh, thank those to whom so cheerfully contributed of their means to help the Fifth Anniversary of the above named Sunday school; to the ladies for their liberal donation of oaks and bouquets; to the speakers who so eloquently and pleasantly spoke to the children and added to making the event a joyous occasion; and to those who so kindly in the past took an interest in the school, and at this time seek its welfare; and to all those who were present upon the happy occasion of its Anniversary and take an interest in Sunday schools in general.

Every mother in the land should know the value of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and never be without it. It is free from opiates. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Wainport Items.

Mr. Elias Miller, Superintendent of the Fort Allen Foundry, went to Philadelphia on Tuesday to purchase a larger boiler for the establishment. The boiler was paid off on Thursday, and is waiting until the 15th. The foundry will be shut down on Thursday evening, and resume work on Friday. It is making strenuous efforts to get the boiler put in.

Says the Strasburg Farmers Advocate, of the 20th ult.—"Daniel Kresge, of Weisport, was arrested on Wednesday, charged with passing and dealing in counterfeit 'black dollars.' Of course this is a grievous charge, and Mr. Kresge is much agitated. He says that the papers generally have copied this libellous item from the 'home news' column of the Strasburg Journal. He is making strenuous efforts to get the origin of the story.

F. J. Mehan, Esq., D. G. Dictator, K. of H., was in Weisport and Lehighton on Monday, arranging the preliminaries for instituting a lodge of the Knights of Honor, in these two boroughs.

The committee of arrangements for the parade of the Imp. O. R. M. on the Fourth, held a meeting on Monday evening, and appointed C. H. Macdonald, Chief marshal, and appointed F. A. Graver and W. A. Graver, marshals.

Mr. Scott Groat, who has for the past two years been attending the State Normal School, at Trenton, New Jersey, returned home on Monday for the summer vacation.

Mr. John Ziegler, on Tuesday and Wednesday was busy engaged packing a large shipment of Emery Wheels and Machines to be sent to San Francisco, Cal. For such a long haul, the wheels last to be packed with saw dust in kegs made for the purpose.

Treasurer Wills, of the Emery Wheel Works, is busily engaged on his statements for the department of the County Treasurer, at their annual meeting on the 14th inst.

Almost every afternoon the train on the L. & S. road, bring from Mauch Chunk a large number of young ladies, and all the ladies who prefer to buy their military goods of Mrs. Grot.

A number of the soldiers of the late war, in this vicinity, will hold a meeting at the Fort Allen House, shortly, to organize a Soldiers' Union.

The flag, purchased by Mr. Daniel Kresge, at auction, last week, has been purchased by the County Superintendent, and will be used on the Fourth in the parade.

The new instruments for the Young America Band, have been ordered, and are expected to arrive in a few days.

It was most refreshing to the readers of these Mauch Chunk papers which now copies the Carbon Advocate's article published in the Carbon Advocate, and credit it to the Beckham Times.

B. F. Kuhns has made a sign of sheet iron for the proprietors of the Fort Allen House, simply an Indian in the act of shooting a bow and arrow, which is mounted on the post in front of the house, which contained the old sign "Fort Allen House." It looks well for a sign.

Mauch Chunk Notes.

WHAT MUST BE DONE.—Chief Burgess Grotte issued a proclamation suspending the borough ordinances relative to firing squibs, crackers, etc., from 2 o'clock, a. m., to 5 p. m., on the Fourth. Another proclamation orders the muzzling of all canines, male and female, in the borough, and notices that all such animals found at large, on and after the 1st of August, will be shot.

Mr. Harry Taylor, as Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., Lord of the Admiralty, had a perfect conception of the character, and sustained it well throughout. His singing was fair and his acting fine. Had he "made up" a few years older, and been well supported, his rendition of the character would have stood a professional criticism.

Dr. Charles T. Horn, as Capt. Corcoran, made a good personal appearance, and sang a fair 2d tenor, but hurried too much in his dialogue, without setting, and totally failed in impressing his individuality as captain of the Majesty's Ship Thunderbolt.

The chorus, composed of Messrs. Daniel Wiand, 1st tenor; Chas. Yenser, 2d tenor; Daniel Acker, 1st bass; Frank Kershner, 2d bass; Louis Deitchelsky, soprano; Agnes Hauk, Lucie Mauch and Jane Greenwald, also, was a redeeming feature of the whole entertainment.

Miss Emma L. Hauk, leading lady, as Josephine, was too stiff in her dialogue, and evinced too little emotion, necessitated in part by these qualities in Capt. Corcoran, her principal support. She has a sweet, flexible voice, and in every case where the power of her song was the principal feature she triumphed, winning much applause and an encore.

Miss Emma Olinde, as Hobe, sang a sweet soprano, and sustained the character admirably.

Miss Clara Hibbler, as Little Buttercup, had a fair conception of her part, and rendered it well. She sang a fine solo, and her acting was good. She "made up" too young and comely, by far, for a Portsmouth lumberman woman who had been "baby farming" a generation or more since.

In her acting at the close, she impressed the thought that she has become the affianced of Capt. Corcoran—bad taste, even though it may be suggested by some American version of Pinafore. The part she had is one in which genius shows to poor advantage, and only the judge of the historic art will appreciate the talent required to give life to such dramatic personae. A gentleman who admirably witnessed her rendering of the character dashed off the following postscript, and inserted it in his program:

THE LITTLE BUTTERCUP.
From woodland, dell and bow;
Then peep up the Buttercup,
An humble little bow'r.

It struggles on 'mid noise and thrum,
And blooms a golden hue;
No hands are seen, no lovers' bliss—
No brilliant pieces of art;
Nor must sweet a chord repeat
To reach the tender heart.

It peeps not, it stings not,
It speaks no evil thing,
It vaunts not, it envys not—
This humble child of Spring.

It never errs, nor sheds tears,
And lives in Virtue's case;
It secrets keep, in silence deep,
So, every one, beneath the sun,
Like little Buttercup,
Must win its 'gainst tide and strife,
If they but PARSIFY UP.

A Card of Thanks.

The officers and teachers of the First Presbyterian Sunday school of Lehigh, thank those to whom so cheerfully contributed of their means to help the Fifth Anniversary of the above named Sunday school; to the ladies for their liberal donation of oaks and bouquets; to the speakers who so eloquently and pleasantly spoke to the children and added to making the event a joyous occasion; and to those who so kindly in the past took an interest in the school, and at this time seek its welfare; and to all those who were present upon the happy occasion of its Anniversary and take an interest in Sunday schools in general.

Every mother in the land should know the value of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup and never be without it. It is free from opiates. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Birthdays Anniversary.

One of our most enjoyable parties was given at Parryville on the evening party given in honor of the 36th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Jacob Peters, on last Tuesday evening, the 1st inst. The occasion was a complete surprise to Mrs. P. During her absence in the evening, her friends numbering over thirty, after meeting at the M. E. parsonage, entered her residence, and on her return she was greeted with quite a large increase in her family, all of whom, however, were able to care for themselves. In a very short time the tables were filled with a variety of delicacies and adorned with 'beautiful flowers' conspicuous among these was a handsome bouquet with the compliments of Miss Lizzie M. Beuman. When the company were ready to sit down the Rev. Mr. Scheffer stated the object and motive that had brought so many of her friends together; and through Mr. Peters tendered the congratulations of those present in his amiable wife, wishing her "many happy returns of the same." The feasting over the party enjoyed themselves in social intercourse and amusement, quietly kept up to the sounds of music, skillfully rendered by Miss Sallie A. Hess. Before dispersing Mr. John Ziegler, on Tuesday and Wednesday was busy engaged packing a large shipment of Emery Wheels and Machines to be sent to San Francisco, Cal. For such a long haul, the wheels last to be packed with saw dust in kegs made for the purpose.

Treasurer Wills, of the Emery Wheel Works, is busily engaged on his statements for the department of the County Treasurer, at their annual meeting on the 14th inst.

Almost every afternoon the train on the L. & S. road, bring from Mauch Chunk a large number of young ladies, and all the ladies who prefer to buy their military goods of Mrs. Grot.

A number of the soldiers of the late war, in this vicinity, will hold a meeting at the Fort Allen House, shortly, to organize a Soldiers' Union.

The flag, purchased by Mr. Daniel Kresge, at auction, last week, has been purchased by the County Superintendent, and will be used on the Fourth in the parade.

The new instruments for the Young America Band, have been ordered, and are expected to arrive in a few days.

It was most refreshing to the readers of these Mauch Chunk papers which now copies the Carbon Advocate's article published in the Carbon Advocate, and credit it to the Beckham Times.

B. F. Kuhns has made a sign of sheet iron for the proprietors of the Fort Allen House, simply an Indian in the act of shooting a bow and arrow, which is mounted on the post in front of the house, which contained the old sign "Fort Allen House." It looks well for a sign.

Mauch Chunk Notes.

WHAT MUST BE DONE.—Chief Burgess Grotte issued a proclamation suspending the borough ordinances relative to firing squibs, crackers, etc., from 2 o'clock, a. m., to 5 p. m., on the Fourth. Another proclamation orders the muzzling of all canines, male and female, in the borough, and notices that all such animals found at large, on and after the 1st of August, will be shot.

Mr. Harry Taylor, as Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., Lord of the Admiralty, had a perfect conception of the character, and sustained it well throughout. His singing was fair and his acting fine. Had he "made up" a few years older, and been well supported, his rendition of the character would have stood a professional criticism.

Dr. Charles T. Horn, as Capt. Corcoran, made a good personal appearance, and sang a fair 2d tenor, but hurried too much in his dialogue, without setting, and totally failed in impressing his individuality as captain of the Majesty's Ship Thunderbolt.

The chorus, composed of Messrs. Daniel Wiand, 1st tenor; Chas. Yenser, 2d tenor; Daniel Acker, 1st bass; Frank Kershner, 2d bass; Louis Deitchelsky, soprano; Agnes Hauk, Lucie Mauch and Jane Greenwald, also, was a redeeming feature of the whole entertainment.

Miss Emma L. Hauk, leading lady, as Josephine, was too stiff in her dialogue, and evinced too little emotion, necessitated in part by these qualities in Capt. Corcoran, her principal support. She has a sweet, flexible voice, and in every case where the power of her song was the principal feature she triumphed, winning much applause and an encore.

Miss Emma Olinde, as Hobe, sang a sweet soprano, and sustained the character admirably.

Miss Clara Hibbler, as Little Buttercup, had a fair conception of her part, and rendered it well. She sang a fine solo, and her acting was good. She "made up" too young and comely, by far, for a Portsmouth lumberman woman who had been "baby farming" a generation or more since.

In her acting at the close, she impressed the thought that she has become the affianced of Capt. Corcoran—bad taste, even though it may be suggested by some American version of Pinafore. The part she had is one in which genius shows to poor advantage, and only the judge of the historic art will appreciate the talent required to give life to such dramatic personae. A gentleman who admirably witnessed her rendering of the character dashed off the following postscript, and inserted it in his program:

THE LITTLE BUTTERCUP.
From woodland, dell and bow;
Then peep up the Buttercup,
An humble little bow'r.</