WANTED, a good stout girl for housework. Apply at this office.

About sixty Democrats failed to vote in this borough last Tuesday.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. 7-50.

The election in this borough passed off very quietly. About a two-thirds vote only was polled.

David Ebert, at his livery on North street, still maintains his popularity for splendid teams and low charges. Try him.

Hon. Z. H. Long presided as Judge of our election here on Tuesday.

A full line of blank books, very low, at Luckenbach's, Mauch Chunk.

J. B. Morgan, freight agent for the Lehigh Valley Company, at Pottsville, died suddenly Sunday afternoon, aged fifty-five years.

Thirteen thousand unstamped cigars were seized in Bethlehem, on Saturday by a revenue collector, in the store of William H. and Isaac Fozell.

An immense stock of envelopes and writing papers, sold at Luckenbach's Mauch Chunk.

The Popular Western Ticket Agent, B. O'Brien, will be at this office next Wednesday night. If you intend to go west, call and see him; he will send you right, cheap and quick.

Thomas Forest, Sr., partner in the wholesale furniture firm of T. B. Forrest & Co., of Allentown, fell down the hallway of their warehouse on Saturday morning and was seriously injured.

A Fairview, Luzerne county, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, Martin Padgett of White Haven, sought shelter under a coal train during a storm.

300 boxes West's Vegetable Liver Pills for sale at Darling's Store, 29 cents per box.

Just in, a new lot of wall paper, for fall trade. Call and see it at Luckenbach's, Mauch Chunk.

A level headed newspaper editor says: "Patronize home industries." This applies as much to the printing business as anything else.

Why give your work to an out-of-town drummer, when you can get just as good a job and for just as low a price at home? It is essential for business men to grumble about people "going away from home to trade," when they do the same thing themselves?

Do you want to see something else that you don't see or shampoos you to Franz Rosenthal's Salon, under the Exchange Hotel. He will fix you right, and don't you forget it.

A fine line of assorted box papers, latest styles, as low as cents per box and upwards at Luckenbach's, Mauch Chunk.

We are glad to learn that the Rev. James A. Little, the successful pastor of the Holy Trinity church, is likely to deliver in a few weeks his entertaining lecture "The Love of Money," for the benefit of the Lehigh Valley Protestant church.

There were transferred over the Lehigh and Susquehanna railroad for the week ending Oct. 31st, 106,634 tons of coal, making a total for the season to that date of 3,409,109 tons, an increase on the shipments of last season to that date of 1,322,925 tons.

Henry Campbell, of East Weisport, announces to his friends and the public that he is prepared to supply them with the best quality of ready-made fall and winter BOOTS and SHOES at a great reduction in price from last year, notwithstanding the recent advances in manufacturing because of the 10 to 15 per cent. These boots and shoes have been made expressly to his order and are guaranteed to give satisfaction. Call and see them.

A popular lecture, under the auspices of the Ladies' Mite Society, will be delivered in the Lehigh Valley E. church, by Rev. J. P. Miller, on Tuesday evening, November 11th. Subject: George Washington. Special music will be furnished by the choir. Admission, 10 cents; children, 5 cents.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company by electric mail Saturday, announces that on and after that date there will be a freight of 15 cents per ton on all through freight from Mauch Chunk. This makes the rate to Philadelphia 56 cents per ton to Perth Amboy, 65 cents, and Jersey City and New York 85 cents. We learn that another raise of ten cents per ton will be made shortly.

Just received, an elegant assortment of Ladies' stockings, which will be made up to order at lowest prices at T. D. Clauss' merchant tailoring establishment.

The Wilkes-Barre Record says a buck was killed on the North Mountain last week that weighed two hundred and six pounds.

We are in receipt of a most delightful piece of music entitled "Dear Old Lehigh Valley" by Prof. J. F. Halbach, of this borough, arranged for the piano-forte. The professor is a young man of excellent musical talent; he has already issued a number of nice pieces of music, all of which meet with favor with our readers.

Prof. H. has large plates, slatograms, and other places. As teacher and composer the Professor is undoubtedly a success.

82,203 tons of coal were transported over the Lehigh Valley Railroad for the week ending October 31st, making a total for the season to that date of 3,167,831 tons, showing an increase, as compared with same time last year of 985,190 tons.

A doctor in Allentown gave the following prescription to a sick lady five days since: A new bonnet of silk dress, and all other things of gaiter laces. The lady received immediately. -Fr. They should prevent that M. D. with a "leather medal."

We have just received another large stock of letter and other printing papers, envelopes, cards, etc., which we are prepared to supply at very extraordinary low prices. Look at this—1000 good envelopes with label printed on corner for $1.75; 1000 3 sheet bill heads $2.25 and all other job printing at equally low prices for each.

All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. Call and see specimen and learn prices. Address CARLOS ADVOCATES, Lehigh Valley, Penna.

Since J. T. Nusbaum & Son have positively been offering the greatest bargains in all kinds of Dry Goods, &c., they have created for themselves a big run on Winter Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Shawls, Blankets, Comfortables, Underwear, Boots, Shoes, &c. (all and see how much more you can do with the ready cash.

The European or migratory quail let loose last June upon lands of Mr. Simon Meyer, in South Whitehall, disappeared on three immediately after harvest, and since then nothing has been seen or heard of them—it is known that they had engaged in breeding. Whether they perished from disease, or migrated to other parts, can of course not be said. As far as is known they were not a success in these parts.

To gratify an inquirer it may be well to publicly define the word "boom." As used in this column it is a Westernism. In the spring and fall Western rivers are subject to frequent "booms," and a boomer is employed by a boatman to haul a log raft, by hauling motion that is called "booming" by steamboat men. Hence, when a man's or party's chances are thought to be increasing or improving they are said to be "booming," and anything that enhances the election is called a "boom."

And now Allentown has an athletic association.

A literary society has been organized at Hokendauken.

By the industry in Catawagus is employing an unusually large number of men.

Northampton county has thirteen judges of 641 Fellows, with a membership of 1,100.

This fall has demonstrated to many a fact—that you never miss the water if the well runs dry.

There are only 28 prisoners confined in the Lehigh county jail at present, five of whom are waiting trial.

The Catawagus manufacturing company have purchased a cargo of 700 tons of oak staves from England.

By the night of November 13th next there is to be the grandest display of shooting stars that has occurred since 1822.

Next year Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22d, Decoration Day, May 30th, and the 4th of July, will each fall on Sunday.

Robert H. Sayre, Esq., Superintendent and Engineer of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, the other day celebrated his 53rd birthday.

A dividend of 3 per cent, has just been declared on the stock of the Bethlehem Iron Company, payable in cash on Monday November 10th.

The Bethlehem iron mills have more orders for work than they have had at any time during the last five or six years.

Lehigh Valley Railroad stock is selling at par in Philadelphia.

Political office seekers in Northampton county are centering their gaze upon the post office at Easton. A P. M. is to be appointed and candidates for this boon are becoming numerous.

Mr. John D. Birmingham, an attaché of a Luzerne county paper called the Reformers, was arrested on Monday and held under bonds for the Philadelphia jail, on a charge of having written a letter to Mr. J. T. Nusbaum, in which he attacked the Democratic candidate for District Attorney in Luzerne county, had withdrawn. The Greenback candidate for the same office took pains to read the dispatch at different meetings, as a means of furthering his own cause.

There is a rumor in the air that a large summer boarding house is to be built at the Lehigh Gap next season, and that Messrs. Marshall and Fitz John Porter are interested in it.

The farmers throughout the county are making war upon hammers by threatening to prosecute them for trespassing on their ground. They suffer a great deal of damage from broken fences and injured crops, caused by the inconsiderate sportsmen.

Our Ferryville Budget. Mrs. B. B. Hines, died of apoplexy on Saturday.

As some are averse from time immemorial, others come to be heaven's choicest blessing to a new family—a baby.

Mrs. H. H. Hines is here visiting Dr. Christ's.

Mr. Jacob Peters has started a five cent counter and is doing remarkably well in selling excellent five cent goods.

At Brightsville Items. Mr. Charles T. Baker, of Stroudsburg, who is making a flying visit to this borough on Monday and Tuesday last, was the guest of Mr. Paul Eckhardt, of the Pine Grove Hotel. Mr. B. is a hale and hearty man as ever.
