For the week ending on the 31st ult., there were 40,631 tons of coal transported over the Lehigh Valley railroad, making a total of 407,065 tons for the season to that date, an increase as compared with same time last year of 25,215 tons.

What is the difference between the post-office and one of the churches? One has the postmaster and the other has the minister. And this reminds us that David Abbott keeps more horses and carriages than any other liverman in this neighborhood, and his terms are very low.

Barrister—Two or three respectable young men can have board in a private family. Apply at this office.

Just received an elegant assortment of Ladies' coats, which will be made up to order at lowest prices, at T. D. Claus' merchant Tailoring establishment.

Rev. J. E. Freeman of West Co., will preach in the Mauch Church, (St. Peter's), in the Mahoning Valley, on Sunday morning the 18th inst., at 10 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

The body of a well-dressed man apparently 35 years of age, was found in the bushes near Kirtz's Station, on the Perkiomen Railroad Tuesday. There were no marks of violence upon it. The name "William Markin" was tattooed on the arm in India ink.

Letter and note heads, envelopes, bill-heads, etc., at speciality at very low prices. Call and see samples.

If you want nice steeple, give your hair cut or shampooing, go to Franz Riederer's Salon, under the Exchange Hotel. It will fix your hair, and don't you forget it.

The little son of Mrs. Mary Hoek was burned to death, during his mother's temporary absence from home, in Pittston, Tuesday morning.

Rev. James A. Little, of Hohenhausen, delivered his lecture on "Love, Courtesy, Mercy," on New Year's Eve, to a highly appreciative audience in the Presbyterian church of White Haven. An editorial in the White Haven Journal says: "Together it was an enjoyable, intellectual treat, and those who heard it are lavish of their praises of the speaker and his subject."

Have you got your winter overcoat? If not, go to T. D. Claus, the tailor, and see the immense display of new and elegant designs in overcoats just received.

See a wine cup in another column, with a bunch of grapes from which Ripley's Port Grapes Wine is made, that is so highly esteemed by the medical profession for the cure of invalids, weakly persons and the aged. Sold by druggists.

During the past week we have mailed bills to a number of our subscribers who trust they will respond early, as we need the money. Paper is raising in price, and we must collect subscriptions promptly or charge the extra 25 cents.

The Lehigh Valley Times says that more long starting developments in the Monroe syndicate case will be made. The deal was done by hired assassins. It is believed, who received their price, and who it is said, will be brought into the hands of justice ere long.

The East Pennsylvania Railroad announces a dividend of $1.00 per share, payable Tuesday, Jan. 30th.

The depot for fresh, pure and genuine drugs and medicines is Dr. C. T. Horn's Central Drug Store, opposite the "Carbon House."

Eastern reports report that an accomplished young lady of that place is in a precarious condition from the use of white lead instead of powder to beautify her complexion.

The funeral of Colonel Edward B. Young took place in Allentown at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended by military and civilians from different parts of the State. Among the prominent men present were Joseph W. Latta, Gen. L. W. Reed, Col. R. Stanley Haininger, Lieutenant Colonel S. E. A. Haincock, Charles M. Cunningham, Albert W. Taylor, John Lewis, R. H. Campen, and R. D. Orr. The city was thronged throughout the day with strangers.

Mrs. Kez (aged 60 years, was killed near Allentown, Friday last week, by being struck in the head by a piece of flying stone from a quarry shaft.

A special to the Philadelphia Record, dated Allentown, Jan. 6, says: "The first element that has ever occurred in this vicinity happened at Whitehall, a few miles from this city. W. Arnold, a married man, eloping with Elizabeth Bohak 12 years, early yesterday morning. The affair has caused considerable excitement in the neighborhood, and the guilty parties are supposed to have fled."

The clerks in the administrative offices of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company at Mauch Chunk, Bethlehem, Philadelphia and other places were gratified to learn on New Year's day that their salaries had been raised 10 per cent. from the 1st of December.

The betrothal of Miss Sallie Linderman, daughter of Dr. G. B. Linderman, and Mr. Warren Wilber, eldest son of Elisha P. Wilber, Esq., all of South Bethlehem is announced.

Revels were now in progress in the M. E. church. Mrs. M. L. Griffith, of Mauch Chunk will preach this (Friday) evening.

—Capt. H. E. Schwartz, the popular clerk of the County Commission has been unanimously re-elected for another term.

—Shut Thomas Koons and Prothonotary G. W. Dezer entered upon the duties of their respective offices on Monday last. Mr. Koons treated his many friends to a substantial dinner upon the occasion of his moving into the jail on Tuesday.

—On Wednesday evening last week the friends of Mrs. Sheriff Raulenbush gave her a very successful surprise party. The invaders came well laden with good things and soon had a table beautifully spread, at which all enjoyed themselves, as they did a social evening, which proved a most happy scene.

Friday Sheriff Raulenbush moved into the house of Mr. Daniel Beresch, on Broadway, Mauch Chunk, where he will reside until he takes possession of his hotel in this borough on the 1st of April.

—There are seventeen members of the Bar in this county; there are 28 civil cases on the trial list for the January term of Court, and seven cases on the criminal docket, a total of 35 cases of all kinds, or about two for each attorney. Don't you think there is a fine opening in this county for a youthful aspirant, with the necessary legal education, to be in the forefront of the judicial of legal fame? His only trouble would be to stick there when he had reached it—the chances would be that he might be hunted over on the other side!

—A. K. Miller has disposed of his saloon business to Amos Meoles, of Penn Forest, who will take possession on Monday, the 26th inst.

—On Tuesday afternoon the White Haven freight on the Lehigh Valley Railroad ran into a land slide near Downmans, wrecking the engine and five or six cars. No one was hurt.

—The January term of the Court of this county will convene in the Court House, at Mauch Chunk, on Monday next, the 12th inst.

—The Tennessee colored Jubilee singers gave one of their interesting and fascinating entertainments in the Weisport school house on Thursday evening to a crowded and delighted audience. Those who failed to hear them missed a rare musical treat. Good and hard time a night (Friday), in the public school hall, of this borough. Admissions 10c, 25c and 50c.

Musical Festival at Andover.

A very interesting Entertainment was held at Hazelton Hall, Andover, on New Year's Day, presided over by Rev. D. R. Davidson, a very skilled conductor in the person of Thos. Edwards, Esq., of Eokley. Mr. James Davis of Colgate adjudicated the singing and accompanied his task to the satisfaction of all. The competition without an exception showed that they had been well trained by competent hands. In the morning session, after an address by the chairman, the poets were called upon, and in an instant many came forward and addressed the meeting with very fine productions. Then Miss Lizzie Reese, the organist of the occasion gave a tune on the organ.

Handsome prizes were won by Katy Jones, Lilly Jones and Benjamin T. Jones. The morning session closed by singing "Leaves of Gold" and "The Star." Two parties competing for the prize which was awarded to Mr. Hitchings.

ATREASON'S SEASONS.—Opening address by Mr. T. Edwards. The prize awarded at this session was won by Mr. Hitchings, Wm. Jones and Glenn Davis.

The Christal Spring Band of Hope, conducted by Isaac Morgan sang "Paeon on Earth," and were worthy of a prize.

EVANGELICAL SEASONS.—Prizes of this session were awarded to Mary Jane Thomas and Fannie Jones. The prize for Quartette singing was divided between Richard W. Roberts and William Hitchings parties.

Thomas Watkins won the poetical competition prize on "Music."

The Grand Choral competition prize was divided between those conducted by Wm. Hitchings, and Isaac Morgan.

The meeting was also entertained with the services of Thos. Edwards, Esq., of Hazlelight, Miss Edwards, of Hazlelight; and Miss Roberts played several pieces on the organ to the great satisfaction of the audience. The exercises of the day wound up by a joint rendering of the several chorals "May Day," conducted by the Adjudicator, Mr. Jas. Davis, and thus ended a very pleasant New Year's Day at Andover.

GIBSON DAVIS, Secy.

Supper at a Public House.

Edward Curley, a well known citizen of Columbia county, is charged with the murder of John Guthrie, an old man, in Centre, on Jan. 25, 1878, since which time he has been a fugitive from justice, returned to his family and friends and delivered himself up to the authorities. After a hearing he was committed to jail at Bloomsbury for trial. At his trial it is expected he will turn State's evidence and expose the principal party in a number of murders committed in the vicinity of Centre, which was the scene of many bloody tragedies during the reign of Mollie Maguire. During Curley's hearing Michael Hogan, who recently married a daughter of Curley's, became very excited, and drawing a revolver attempted to shoot him.

Our Parryville Budget.

Our boys and girls are still talking of the party that was given on "Love, Courtesy, Mercy," on New Year's Eve, to a highly appreciative audience in the Presbyterian church of White Haven. An editorial in the White Haven Journal says: "Together it was an enjoyable, intellectual treat, and those who heard it are lavish of their praises of the speaker and his subject."
