MAINE, AS A MODEL STATE, FREE FROM INTEMPERANCE. Long before the time specified for the encement of the temperance lecture on Saturday avening lust people slowly wended their way to the Weimport Evan-gelical church, to Hsten to the Rev. Mr. Hart who; was formally announced to leeture on the many evils of the liquor traffic. At 7:50 the seats were all occupied although everybody sat comfortable and easy. A crowded house was expected, but a great many undoubtedly remained home on ac count of the disagreeable roads. The audi-ance was a quiet and peaceable one. The trustees made no arrests aff on former occa-Probible on time; the speaker of the eve ning made his appearance, and services were opened by the singing of a familiar hymn, followed by a prayer offered by Mr. Hageman, when Rev. Mr. Seyfrit arose to introduce the speaker. He evinced pleasure in having the opportunity of introducing to the audience Rev. Mr. Hart, chaplain of the Independent Order of Good Templars.

The lecture was apparently well studied and the speaker made his remarks foreibly and effectively. His gestures were graceful and suited to the words. His first remarks were brief allusions to the savings of his first lecture delivered here, and after having apoken briefly on them, the speaker wont on to say that the liquor traffe, which he intended to denounce robudis, was responsible for all intemperance. And, said the speaker, we are to blame, we must lay the axe to the root of the tree and discontinue the selling of liquor. The liquor traffic is civilization, is doing more to undermine our free institutions than all other evils combined. The speaker then spoke of the prime necessity of discontinuing this hellish traffic, and of the absurd remarks of some who say that it can never be accomplished. Said
