To our sight there is nothing sadder than a sane woman with her hair "banged." A lunatic might be excused for such an erratic style of hair-dressing; but how a woman, in full possession of her faculties and with the knowledge that she has a character to keep up, can wear her hair "banged," is to us a protound mystery.

From whence came this style? What originated it? Who set it alloat? Nobody on earth can say, truthfully, that it is beautiful. We have never heard that it is healthy we have never heard of its curing the liver complaint or the rhestmatism. It does not
