These two volumes will seen be tenied.

-The Vermont State election took place on Turiday last, and was carried by the Republicages by their usual majority-about 25,000. The election was for Governor, Control and Members of the State Logishture. The result in Vermont is no criterion by which to foretell the result is eiber States, as it is as sure to go Republican as Alabama is to go Democratic.

-E. B. Hall, whose term as Treasurer of Lucas county, Ohio, has just expired, is sacertained, by his own confession, as wall as the condition of his accounts, to be a defaulter fer $47,000. He was elected by the Greenbackers. Hall was an old resident of Toledo, and highly esteemed. He used the public funds in speculations, a large porion being sunk in "a newly invented apparates for manufacturing gas from coal

The Baltimore Sun of a recent date has a letter from King George county, Va., stating that a quantity of electricity," which "came into the world at the birth of a child" in that county, had been appropriated by some de-signing, evel-minded persons, who "can set the atmosphere in motion; they can aweep the clouds from the sky and bring on these terrible droughts which keep us very poor in this latitude." The same issue contains an advertisement warning "all men or women who would drug or interfere with me in any way, are (sic) under the penalty o $20,000." (Signed) "Sallie W. Shipley."

-On our first page this week we publish the list of premiums to be awarded at the mixth annual exhibition of the Carbon Co. Industrial Society, to be held on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of October. Our renders who are interested in the fair should give it a careful reading. The premiums are liberal, and from present appearances the fair will be one of the best ever held in the connty. They have also printed a large twosheet poster for the fair, which will be distributed in a few days by the Secretary. Persons desiring further information in regard to the exhibition can address W. -The Hon. Amos C. Noyes, who died at his home in Westport, Clinton county, in this State, at midnight on Friday, from a paralytic stroke, was born in Grafton, Mass., Sept. 17, 1818. He moved to Emporium, Cameron county, in 1847, and engaged in the lumbering business, and in this business he continued until his death, being the head | they intrust with appointing power. of one of the largest firms of lumber dealers in Pennsylvania. In 1849 he settled at since chiefly resided. During the war he was an active Unionist. In 1869 he was cient. chosen to the Legislature on the Democratic ticket, and re-elected in the following year.

He was also a member of the Constitutional even of the sword. Convention. At the Democratic Convention at Eric, in September, 1875, he was a ic candidate for the State Treasurership and was elected over Mr. Hart, the Republican candidate. He was for many years a valued member of the Board of Public Charities. He was a man of philanthropic impulse, and did much to ameliorate the condition of the poorer classes in the portions of the State in which he resided.

The Beltzhoover Letter.

The Press and Carlisle Herald of Friday hat published the following letter, purporting to have been written by Congressman Beltzhoover to one of his constituents: House of Representatives. Washington, D. C., April 23, 1880.

DRAB Sin : Your favor was received. 1 would most cheerfully fetroduce and urge the passage of a bill such as you suggest, but with the present bemoratic House pension bills do not have much favor. It has bethe passage of a bill such as you suggest, but with the present Democratic House pension bills do not have much favor. It has become almost impossible to get consideration rode to the Executive Mansion and took or such a bill at all, and when considered its beased of such a bill at all, and when considered its beased of the pension of the pension committee in the Senate is still more averse to allowing any such bills to pass. It would not be at all probable, therefore, that the bill will got through.
