A wonderful discovery, Kendall's Spavin Cure. Read advertisement.

Mrs. Wm. Tippett, Ottawa, N. Y., says:—I have won an improved Kentucky Kidney Dial about three weeks, and have received great relief from it for pain in the back.—See Ad.

If you want a nice smooth, easy change your hair cut or shampooing, go to Franz Feiler's Salon, under the Post Office Hotel. He will fix you right, and don't you forget it.

Failures. While we hear of thousands of failures of business almost daily with large liabilities, no one has ever known that Dr. Cox's Wild Cherry has failed to completely cure a stubborn cough.

Laws. We are in the best office building, this borough, but just made a large addition to its stock for the fall and winter trade, via a full line of stuff and soft hats of the latest styles, in a complete and full line of gentlemen's, ladies' and children's boots, shoes and gaiters, all of which he is offering at the very lowest cash prices.

How to receive a salary. A few days ago I bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. See the ad.

Job printing of the finest description can be had at the Carbon Advocate office at very low prices. Call every morning.

Mrs. J. B. Wilson, Tiffin, Ohio, says:—I have won an Improved Kentucky Kidney Dial, and received more relief than from any medicine I ever used. I can only recommend it to all sufferers.—See Ad.

Dr. S. E. H. Hooper, a well known aged and highly respected citizen of Nazareth, died on Wednesday last, of general debility, at the age of 79 years.

The No. 2 furnace of the Allentown Iron Works was blown out last week, owing to being badly in need of repairs.

A large number of counterfeit twenty-five cent pieces have lately been put on the market. They have the trueing but are of light weight.

In the State Senate, on Wednesday last, Mr. Holton, of Lehigh, presented a bill for the establishment of two iron industrial schools in the State, one to be located in the eastern and one in the western part of the State.

The public mill of the Allentown Rolling Mill, in which the terrible boiler explosion occurred two weeks ago, was re-started in the early part of last week.

For the week ending on the 22d inst., there were 141,984 tons of coal shipped over the Lehigh Valley railroad, making a total for the year to date of 666,774 tons, an increase of 21,678 tons as compared with same date last year.

Some of the pavements and all the street crossings in this borough are in a very deplorable condition. They should be attended to at once, before some of our people meet with a broken limb. Burgess or Burgess, which, should look to it. If nothing else can be done, throw ashes upon the crossings and pavements.

A dispatch dated Easton, Jan. 29th, says: It is certain that those who took part in the lynching of the man Snyder, who murdered the Goble family on the night of Dec. 26, will very soon find themselves in an unpleasant position. The effects of the murdered couple were sold on the premises on Friday last, and the Court has ordered the constable of the township not to allow anything to be removed until the premises have been inspected by the Grand Jury. The evidence of Detective Yoh, who will be called before the Grand Jury, and who was present attempting to prevent the hanging, must necessarily implicate many prominent citizens, and some of them are much alarmed.

The 6-year old daughter of Mr. Ritenauer, living at Berchtelsville, Lehigh county, had her arm cut off on Monday while fooling with a revolver.

Miss Lillie Spang, of Allentown, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Frazer, at this borough the past three weeks.

The finest anthracite and bituminous coal in America is found in Guernsey county.—Guernsey Review. Somebody must have carried it there from Pennsylvania.—Brookville Journal. It must have been Fischer.—Harrisburg Bulletin. Impassible. Fischer is no doubt big enough and strong enough to carry a heavy load—but not of anthracite. Oh, no!

For the week ending on the 21st inst., 24,111 tons of coal were shipped over the L. & N. R. R., making a total of 186,663 tons for the season to date, a decrease of 22,997 tons as compared with same time last year.

The Lehigh Valley Ministerial Association will meet in the M. E. church of Lehighton, on the 7th and 8th of February. The programme of exercises will be interesting to the laity as well as the ministry, and the public are cordially invited to attend.

Morris Evans and his son Thomas were buried under a fall of 2100 tons of coal in the Empire Mine, at Wilkesbarre, on Wednesday.

Nathan Van Horn, of Beaver Meadows, a Lehigh Valley Railroad brakeman, who had his right leg crushed while coupling cars at Jeannette, on the 11th inst., died at Lehighton, on Wednesday morning of last week. Deceased was a married man and leaves a family in mourning as usual.

The sister of a family in mourning as usual arrested on Tuesday on a warrant issued at the instance of the editor of the Independent Democrat, charging him with libel.

A VALUABLE PREMIUM!

We will present every person calling at this office and paying $1.00 for one year's subscription to the CARBON ADVOCATE, with a copy of Dr. J. B. KENDALL'S TREATISE ON THE HORSE, one of the most valuable books for Farmers and Horsemen ever published. The book is handsomely and profusely illustrated, and gives symptoms and treatment for the various diseases to which the horse is subject. Remember for $1 you get the ADVOCATE for one year and a copy of the BOOK FREE! Now hand in your names and the dollar.

We have just received a limited number of KENDALL'S TREATISE ON THE HORSE AND HIS DISEASES, printed in German, which we will give to those paying one year in advance for the CARBON ADVOCATE.

The sleighing herabouts is now most excellent.

Big Creek Evangelical Sunday School.

Last Sabbath afternoon, in company with Mr. Wm. Oswald, of Weisport, we rode to Big Creek, and visited the Evangelical Sunday school of the above named place. The session was opened by the Superintendent, David Snyder, by singing a hymn entitled "Jehovah's Work" prayer was offered, and another hymn was sung, after which the lesson was read according to the Superintendent and school. The lesson study was then engaged in, after which another hymn was sung, and Nathan Sol, the Assistant Superintendent, in the absence of John Herman, the Secretary, lifted the collection. The feature of lifting the collection, appeared to us very novel, and yet, in our estimation, is a very excellent feature of interest in the offering of the school; the collection is lifted in a box in which are a number of smaller boxes numbered by classes; the openings at the top are only large enough to admit the several amounts, and no one tell which boxes are contributed, until all the boxes are opened.

After singing another hymn, by request we spoke to the school about the birth of Christ, (the subject under contemplation in the school during the study) and tried to impress the fact of the evidence of Christianity, we have before us in all dated letters and newspapers; for, about 1881 years ago Christ became incarnate for our salvation.

During the winter season, we were informed by the Superintendent, that the school is not as large as it is during the summer; Jefferson Sowers, the treasurer and bookkeeper of the school was not present. Living about two miles from the church, but he examined his drawings on the large blackboard in the school, and are frank to confess they are hard to surpass in design and beauty of execution. Many who make attempts at blackboard drawing, would be well to go and examine some of his drawings in the school.

Quite a number of the young ladies in the school are excellent singers, and they use their talent with good effect in making melody in the school. OSBERVING.

The Coal Trade.

The anthracite coal trade is in a healthy and satisfactory condition. The demand for nearly all sizes is good, and the supply of coal is so nearly full that prices vary but little from the ruling at any time within the past month or six weeks. It was, however, generally understood among coal operators on Saturday that the subject matter of remaining full work on the last protraction was being agitated, to continue through the month of February. This is in accordance with the arrangement entered into about the middle of December last, to work half time through to the end of January, and continue through to the end of February half week suspensions, unless the exigency of the situation should make a different policy more advisable. Such exigency, it is believed, has come round. We have had one of the severest winters, since the incoming of the present, known in many years; one that has full work on the last protraction was being agitated, to continue through the month of February. Such exigency, it is believed, has come round. We have had one of the severest winters, since the incoming of the present, known in many years; one that has full work on the last protraction was being agitated, to continue through the month of February. This is in accordance with the arrangement entered into about the middle of December last, to work half time through to the end of January, and continue through to the end of February half week suspensions, unless the exigency of the situation should make a different policy more advisable. Such exigency, it is believed, has come round.
