The Younger Brothers and Frank mnd Jesse James.

The Historical Publishing Co. of St. Louis Mo., has just issued a complete history of the noted Younger Brothers and Frank and Jesse James, bringing the events in the live of these airy gentlemen of the highway down to the present time. It is a volume of the district the state of the second state of the sec and Jesse James, over 400 pages, containing more than 4 illustrations, and printed and bound in goo-style. Mr. J. W. Buel, the author, has been engaged during the last three years in colengaged during the last three years in cul-iceting and preparing his materials, and re-cently visited the Youngers in the Minneso-ta penitentiary for the purpose of verifying certain portions of his work. It is said to be of the most excising and thrilling character, and its selling qualities are indicated by the fact that more than 18,000 copies were or-dered in advance of publication. He save: "In the fall of 1876 I was tak ers. He save: "In the fall of 1876 I was tak an with a violager interprise ov the Lunos followed by a severe cough. I soon began t lose my appetite and feesh. I was so weak a one time that I could not leave my bed. If the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the Cit; Hospital. While there the doctors said I has a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar a expended over a hundred dollars in dector and needleline. I was so far gone at one tim a report went around that I was dead. I gav up hope, but a friend tald me of DR. WM HALL'S BA LISAM FOR THE LUNGS. I sughed at my friends, thinking that my cas HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but it got a bottle to satisfy them, when, to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel batter. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Langs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FCR THE LUNGS, and be convoiced that CONSUMPTION Can be Cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all theother medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by A. J. DURLING, Lebighton, and all druggists.
