About 5 o'clock in the afternoon, in company with about fifteen persons, we rode up the valley with the purpose of having an enjoyable time feasting in a grove before the meeting. Of course we had our baskets with us; well, later, with good things such as cakes, pies, boiled eggs, etc., we stopped in a beautiful grove about three miles from the church, and after spreading our estables in one long table on the bosom of mother Earth, we prayed, and then followed the impeaing ceremony of eating to our heart's amount to $41,000. content. We remained in the grove about three quarters of an hour, and left it happy and contented. The meeting in the church was opened by singing the hymn, "Abundantly Able to Save," and prayer by W. On Saturday evening a meeting was held at Big Creek. After prayer and song John both of Lower Towamensing, this county. Arner, of Weissport, spoke in a vary excellent manner from the words, "Bamember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." The speaker gave a number of very excellent reasons for now remembering our Cre-ator. J. K. Rickert spoke to the parents and children in the German language. Rev. Smoyer supplied the place of Rev Miller, and spoke of being tired. THE LEHIGHTON EYAN. CHILDREN'S SERVICE According to previous announcements, Rev. Smoyer preached a children's sermon to the Evangelical Sunday School on last Sunday evening, on the subject of "Little Sins." The speaker took his text from a little fire kindleth." He commenced the discourse by telling how great fires commences. By a block of the same day, in West Penn, Charles Schellhammer, aged 44 years, 11 months and 26 days. Severe Storm at Easton. The storm which passed over Easton be tween 1 and 2 o'clock Wednesday, we now learn did great damage in the country adjacent, and was a remarkable one in many respects. Previous to the rainfall, and be fore the wind got up, there was a fall of fine dry snow for a few moments, observed in many places in and around Easton. The tion, formerly of this place, returned home storm was but half a mile wide at the most, on Monday of last week. and it tore its way along the narrow path with awful violence. On the outskirts of Easten in Forks township, it whirled the fences into the air, carrying great fence rails hundreds of feet, uprooting corn and wheat, and doing much damage to frame buildings There was no hall in Easton, but but in Forks township for about five minutes large hail passing through his timber land towards the Dalaware, domens of trees were uprooted —A party will be held at Joel Kunkel's and blown down. In town the streets were hotel, in Kresgyville, Monroe county, on Monday. There will be a dance in the branches of trees blown off, and considerable and blown down. In town the streets were damage done to gardens. There were only a few vivid, wicked flashes of lightning, and they were accompanied by sharp, cracking thunder. The Court House was struck by he lightning, and a large piece of plaster, torn off the ceiling in the Court room. There The commencement exercises of Muhienburg College Wednesday attracted many
