—Some twenty-four cars were thrown from the track at Oatleys, between Allentown and Bethlehem, on the Valley Railroad, on Saturday night. The engine was a good deal damaged, and the cars which were loaded, were piled in a heap across both the main tracks and the siding. A wrecking gang was immediately put to work, and in three hours the tracks were clear. Passenger trains, meantime, were delayed. The accident was caused by the carelessness of the brakeman in turning the switch for the side track instead of the main track. The locomotive was the 112.

—David Meyer, a prominent citizen of Coplay, Lehigh county, was thrown from his carriage on Friday and killed.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bethlehem Iron Company was held in South Bethlehem, on Tuesday, June 28. President Hunt read the annual report, which was a very satisfactory one. For directors the following gentlemen received the votes on 28,581 shares: Alfred Hunt, John Knecht, Robert H. Sayre, Joseph Wharton, G. B. Linderman and Joseph S. Lovinger, Jr.

—Theophilus Smith, a well known citizen of this county, Pa., and father of the District Attorney of McKean county, died suddenly on Thursday morning, 7th inst., in Millford, aged 70 years.

—During the week ending on the 8th inst., there were 72,873 tons of coal transported over the Lehigh Valley railroad, making the total tonnage of the year to date 3,158,457 tons, showing an increase of 656,713 tons as compared with the same time last season.

—For the 7 days ending on the 8th inst., there were 7,613 tons of coal shipped over the Lehigh & Susquehanna railroad, making a total of 2,128,231 tons for the season to that date, showing an increase of 411,316 tons, as compared with same time last year.

—Mrs. Menahan, who resides on the Weidenheiser property, corner of Bankway, gave us most fragrant roses Wednesday morning, out from what has hitherto been a white rose bush, but this season produces a flower half white and half a beautiful tint of pink, and throwing off a truly delightful fragrance.

—"Dog days" commence next Monday the 18th inst.

—Read J. T. Nusbaum's new advertisement in to-day's paper, then call and examine his new and beautiful stock of dress goods, dry goods, boots, shoes, &c. all of which are selling at prices lower than ever before.

—A 13-year-old girl, named Roth, residing at Easton, left home about 9 p. m. Tuesday last in company with a young man, whose name we could not learn; measures were immediately set on foot to hunt up the truant pair, and they were restored on the banks of the Lehigh river, opposite the L. & S. depot, in this borough, on Wednesday afternoon, at about 4 o'clock and conveyed to Mauch Chunk, whence they were returned to Easton. Put them back in the House of Refuge.

—The Chapman & Lehigh railroad company has accepted the survey made some time since by the Chapman State Company. The road will run from Chapmanville to Catonsville, via Bath, and will be about ten miles in length. The following are the officers elected: President, C. Miller; Secretary, G. W. Mackey; Treasurer, A. M. Paff; Directors, C. Miller, G. W. Mackey, M. L. Bain, S. E. Delp, Joseph Fryer, D. John Buzzard.

From the County Seat.

—On a strike—The clock.
—On the advance—Lemons.
—Red—McLeroy's new fancy.
—Becoming popular—Wholesale.
—Eight cents a quart—Bicycles.
—Still in great demand—Tenement houses.

—It is rumored that Prof. L. Huber, principal of the schools of this borough, has since vacation, taken a partner in life. May the pair be prosperous and happy, in our sincere wishes.

—The Sunday school of St. Paul's M. E. church has been thoroughly cleaned, newly painted and newly carpeted, making it most inviting, and a credit to all concerned in this flourishing department of the church.

—Alfred Heiskard has purchased house No. 141 brick row, West Broadway, and has rented it to Abraham Stroh.

—E. M. Mulharen, our District Attorney, has purchased the old Ray lot and has taken down the old house, and is erecting a new one. It is contemplated building soon. We hope he will, as it is a desirable lot and will greatly improve that part of the borough.

—Abraham Stroh has renovated the house owned by Mrs. Houston, which is now occupied by herself.

—We were sorry to learn that Henry Wacker Jr., of the second ward, was sunstruck on last Wednesday. It is getting better slowly.

—James S. Love, member of the firm of Craig & Love, after spending a few weeks with his friends in the country, returned home on Wednesday delighted with his trip.

—Our people, and especially the children were amused on Wednesday evening by the appearance of two men mounted on bicycles going through town at a rapid rate, followed by a noisy crowd of children.

—Adjusted session of the Court was held on Tuesday, to dispose of unfinished business. The last session was held on Monday.

—Paul Kiefer Jr., has secured a small one-story frame building on his lot on West Broadway, to be occupied as a shoe shop by Frank Stridman.

The Coal Trade.

The anthracite coal trade presents little, if any, change in its present position as in its outlook, says the Lehigh, of the 11th. There is a good stock and a moderate supply of fuel. It has not yet been determined whether there will be a further suspension of coal production. It is deemed probable that there will be a suspension for the last three days of this month. Some of the interests of the trade content for a six day's suspension, while others resist any other further suspension at all. Amid all the several differences it is thought probable that they may compromise on the last three days of the month. Winter, they may be determined upon in this regard, it seems to be conceded as certain that there will be a break in the united action of the trade; they will all act in unity, as this, it is believed, will keep the control of the trade in the hands of the producers, and thus shut off all possible apprehension of bankruptcy and loss, while there will still remain enough of competition in the market to protect the consuming public from extortion in prices. No trade or public property so much so well as when all parties are free to compete as nearly equal. The iron and steel trade, the consumers of coal, so long as they are duly considered by producers and carriers in the matter of price just cause of complaint is removed against any determination they may unite in not to overlook and destroy the market. Acting on this policy, the coal trade has attained a stable footing, and the present outlook is that it will maintain it to the end of the year, and, indeed, so long as they shall observe their present line of action.

—The fishery, on the north side of the Lehigh, and on the south side of the Lehigh, is a very interesting one. The present outlook is a very flattering one, and the evidence favors a demand that will make regulations on the part of the managers unnecessary for some weeks to come at least. It is also indicated that there will be an advance in prices on August 1st. The first six months of the current year for the first six months of 25,000,000 tons per annum, showing a gain of over two and a quarter millions of tons for the first half of the year, the output being 12,500,000 tons for the first half, although probably not so great an increase over the corresponding half of 1880.

The Pottsville Miner's Journal says: "The trade has been tenderly nursed by the several interests controlling the production since March last, during which period a number of suspensions have been ordered so as to limit the supply as nearly as possible to the actual demand, and it is believed by those best posted in the trade that it is now nearly in condition to take care of itself. No further suspension has been ordered, and this, but it is thought, that possibly one more may be needed, and if such should prove to be the case it will take place during the last week of the month, and will be for three days. After that, should the iron trade only hold to its present demands, there will be at least four months steady work to supply the coal that will be needed for fall and winter use. Meanwhile prices will remain for the month as announced in the June circular, from which there is very little shading. It may be probable, however, that there will be an advance in August for coal for the New York and Eastern markets of 10 to 15 cents on broken, egg and chestnut, and 25 cents on stove. No other changes are contemplated at present." The world's output of coal stands as follows:

Country	1880	1881
Great Britain	127,000,000	147,000,000
France	20,000,000	25,000,000
Austria	10,000,000	12,000,000
Belgium	12,000,000	15,000,000
Prussia	100,000,000	110,000,000
Spain	5,000,000	6,000,000
Sweden	2,000,000	2,500,000
Italy	3,000,000	3,500,000
U.S.A.	40,000,000	45,000,000
Total	329,000,000	377,500,000

The total tonnage of anthracite coal for all the regions for the week ending July 2, as reported by the several carrying companies, amounted to 671,047 tons, against 404,211 in the corresponding week last year, an increase of 267,835 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined for the year is 12,906,404 tons, against 10,283,311 tons for the same period last year, an increase of 1,913,243 tons.

—William Smith, of Westbury, is stopping with his friend, Miss Belle Nusbaum, of this place.

—W. C. Weiss, Esq., has been laid up with rheumatism, and is unable to attend to his duties.

—Considerable wheat was cut this week, and is again a fair crop this year. Ryegrass is good in stand, but not in grain—about two thirds crop, and looks not fair.

—The over-riding clock in the postoffice has quit its position, and is now in the possession of the well-known firm of George S. Masten, of the old mill, of Laur's Station. "Success" is the wish we all extend you, like.

—Several of our ladies and gentlemen are spending the summer at Laurelton, N. J., at the residence of Mr. Masten, of the old mill, of Laur's Station.

—But a small number, comparatively, attend services in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening. We suppose on account of the pleasant out-door weather.

1. If Moses was learned in all the wisdom of Egypt, and all the power of Pharaoh's court, how came he to be a shepherd?
2. What proof had he formerly given of his sympathy with his oppressed brethren?
3. In God's special vocation in men, has he usually honored the idle or industrious?
4. What is there emblematic in this burning bush, of the Israelites? Of the Christian church? Of God himself?
5. Does God reveal himself to those who will not turn aside to see, or inquire?
6. Is there any evidence here that God came for this deliverance in answer to prayer?
The Carson of the Carson Society.

A business meeting of the above named society, held in the parlors of the Evangelical Church, of Westport, on July 24, the board of control decided to print a paper in connection with the society, for a term of not less than six months. The price of single subscriptions was placed at fifteen cents. W. C. Weiss, the President, W. F. Bowman and Rev. G. W. Gross were appointed a committee to draw up a program for the course of study in Sunday Schools, and were also appointed an examining committee in the course of study to enlist members of the different Sunday Schools to assist them in their work. This will give Sunday School noble employment for a term of about six months.

THE PRESBYTERIAN ANNIVERSARY.
The seventh anniversary of the Presbyterian Sunday School of Lehigh, held on the 17th inst., was a grand success. The singing under the leadership of Mr. Amadeus Kuntz was short, spry, and interesting, and a goodly number of boys and girls spoke their only spoke long enough to make you wish for more. The exercises of the evening were conducted by Mr. John Bohn, the Superintendent of the school, and Mr. Lee Styles. There was only one adult person on the program for an address, and he spoke so well that he was allowed to speak a second time, at the close of which he presented the Superintendent with a very fine set of drawing instruments, purchased by the school, by special collection, to show their appreciation of his labors.

Little Ellie Gould, of this place, spoke her piece so well that she received a most enthusiastic applause, which she returned to repeat the speech, which she did in a very graceful and original manner. Before closing the exercises, Mr. Candy-box and Mrs. Beautiful Red-checkered Orange had their say, and by the unmistakable signs of happiness on the faces of all, we suppose the audience enjoyed this part of the entertainment, better than any other.

On Sunday morning, on motion of Mr. Styles, a committee was appointed on resolutions for services rendered at the anniversary, which committee return the following report:
WHEREAS, The Evangelical Sunday School of Lehigh, having kindly consented to hold the anniversary of our school in their church, and to use the services of their choir, organ and bell-ringers, for preparation and use at the anniversary of our Sunday School; therefore,
Resolved, That we extend our hearty thanks to the Evangelical Sunday School of Lehigh, and to that a copy of this report be handed to the Superintendent of the Evangelical Sunday School, in order that he may express our appreciation of their services on the occasion to be held on the 24th inst.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolutions be printed in the CARSON ADVOCATE, and also that they be read in the presence of the Presbyterian Sunday School Sabbath morning.

THE MENDENHALL PIANO CO., N. Y. whose advertisement appears elsewhere is selling Pianos direct to the people at Factory Prices, without the intervention of agents or dealers. Having saved them more than one half the price usually charged for strictly first-class instruments.

James E. Zimmerman, a prominent member of the Mendonham Piano Co., N. Y., has just received a splendid piano at a low price. They have a very low price for a piano of this quality, and will sell it for less than any other piano of the same quality. They are a first-class class. —Lehigh Valley Journal.

George Highberger was instantly killed on Saturday last while engaged in his work at the Lehigh Valley Railroad, near the crossing at Lehigh Station, Westmoreland county, on Saturday.

William Rank, aged 86 years, died at Lehigh Station, Westmoreland county, on Saturday last. He was a native of Pennsylvania, and had been a resident of this place for many years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a very kind and generous man. He was buried at Lehigh Station, on Sunday morning.
