The stock of coal or hand at Richmond is steadily lessening and s estimated at less than 100,000 tons. The rade itself is very generally dult, and freights are easier, but not in consequence of any over supply of vessels. At Boston fair average rate is about $1.60 to $1.50 per ton, though on exceptional conditions as high as $2 is quated. There is no especial change to make in the situation of the trade, and no change in the prices of coal. The Afner's Journal of Saturday says: "The demand for immp and steamboat is sufficient to take up all of these sizes that are being to the trade of the same and the change of the coming of the conting of the conting of the conting of the conting of the change of the trade of the conting of the conting of the conting of the same adjustroed. fair average rate is about $1 60 to $1 50 per o take up all of these sizes that are being nined, and there is a fair demand for the omestic sizes. The latter is not sufficient y strong to justify full time as yet, and it has been determined to work full time only the first and last weeks of March, suspend ing on the 9th, 10th and 11th, 16th, 17th, and 18th and 23d, 24th and 25th. The full time last week has been only in name, however, as the flooding of a large number of collieries has compelled a curtailment of the utput to an extent greater than would have seen brought about by the usual period of uspension." The periods named above by the Journal for the suspension of work are probable, but we understand on inquiry smong the trade that they are by no means definitely fixed yet. The total tonnage of anthracite coal from all the regions for the week ending Peb. 25, as reported by the s veral carrying companies, amounted to 335,928 tons, against 570, $16 tons in the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 234,588 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined for the year is 3,251, 898 tons against 3,636,979 tons for the same period last year, an increase of 379,681 tons.

The blood is the foundation of life, it circulates through every part of the body, and unless it is pure and rich, good health is impossible. If disease has entered the system the only sure and quick way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood.

These simple facts are well known, and the highest medical authorities agree that nething but iron will restore the blood to its natural condition; and also that all the iron preparations hitherto made blacken the teeth, cause headache, and are otherwise injurious. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will thor any part of the system, and it will not blacken the teeth, cause headache or commipation, and is posi-tively net injurious.
