The American Newspaper Directory, which will be issued this month by G. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, will contain the names of 16,811 periodicals in the United States and Territories, which is a gain 344 in the year just passed. The number of daily papers has increased in a somewhat larger proportion than in the year ending in 1881, and the total number of periodicals issued in 1882 has been in New York—19, 14, 19, 29 of all sorts. Illinois and Missouri show a percentage of gain, which is even greater, while Colorado leads all others in the percentage of increase, both daily and weekly issues. California, Nebraska, Nevada, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, and West Virginia have fallen behind 1881 in the total number of periodicals issued. In Georgia, Maine and Massachusetts the suspensions have exactly counterbalanced the new ventures. In every State not mentioned above, and in the Territories, there has been an increase.

A Valuable Gift.

The Moravian Church, at Bethlehem, has been the recipient of a magnificent gift. Fifty neatly bound volumes of the Bible, in P. M. and V. M. editions, has been gradually gathering works relating to this Church until he has accumulated a library of about 1200 volumes. This entire collection he has now, by deed of gift made to the Moravian Church, constituting the Provincial Book of the owners in law. It is the most complete and valuable library of this kind in the country, and the only foreign library of Moravian literature that surpasses it in the one in the archives of the Church at Herburn, in Saxony. By far the most valuable part of it consists of antiquarian works which relate to the history of Bohemia and Moravia, of John Huss and the Hussites, and of the Bohemian and Moravian Brethren. In the deed of gift Mr. Melin has named three directors who are to have charge of the library, namely, Bishop Edmund de Schweinitz, Professor Edwin G. Robertson, of the Board of Trustees of the Moravian Church at Bethlehem.

The Coal Trade.

Lehigh, 3rd inst. In the anthracite coal trade the week that closed on Saturday was a full week of labor at the mines. The result was an increase in stock at the shipping ports. The policy of restriction will be continued by a three day's suspension this week, after which full time will be made at the mines until the last week of April, when another three day's suspension will be made. The producers do not seem to be particularly anxious to get the coal that will be mined in April, but they are anticipating an accumulation especially in the stove and egg sizes, for which the demand is somewhat flat, and it is not so good for the larger sizes. It appears that about all the white ash coal that is mined is taken by the market, but the red ash varieties which chiefly go to New England, are not so readily. The stock of coal at Port Richmond increased about 20,000 tons last week. There is still a shading in price and considerable getting under circular rates, but the card prices for April are unchanged. The tolls are, however, slightly reduced, which makes a small concession to our local Philadelphia and its trade. The prices for the Eastern trade, are, however, maintained in the circles, and it is this branch that the shading in rates is chiefly noticed. The reports of apprehended labor troubles in the anthracite mining regions have about died away, showing that business at the mines is in fair prospect of continuing harmoniously. There is some apprehension of a decrease of demand for coal by the iron furnaces and mills, owing to a decline in iron consumption and a fear of labor troubles, but this is more a foreboding than the reality. Otherwise there is little that is new to report in the anthracite coal trade for the week ending Saturday. The coal in the Lehigh and Schuylkill Coal Exchange, are as follows: White ash, red ash and Steam coal at Schuylkill Haven—Lump steam coal, broken egg and small stove, $2.75; chestnut No. 1, $2.60; chestnut No. 2, $2.45; Pea No. 1, $1.50; Pea No. 2, $1.25; Lumber coal at Schuylkill Haven—Broken egg, $2.85; stove and small stove, $2.75; chestnut, $2.50; and pea $1.50. Lehigh Valley coal at Pine Grove by rail—Broken egg, stove and small stove, $2.25; chestnut $2.65; pea, $1.75; at Schuylkill Haven by canal, 10 cents per ton additional. Lehigh Valley best lump coal (Brookside), $1.10 at Pine Grove.

The total tonnage of anthracite coal from all the regions for the week ending March 25, as reported by the several carrying companies, amounted to 403,714 tons, against 375,300 tons in the corresponding week last year, an increase of 28,414 tons. The total tonnage of anthracite mined for the week ending March 25, as reported by the several carrying companies, amounted to 403,714 tons, against 375,300 tons in the corresponding week last year, an increase of 28,414 tons. LABORERS.

Orders have gone forth from the Company which is to be formed in this town. They will be allowed to start from when covered may be seen the old chambers, which their massive pillars of oak, which are all ways left to support the surface and protect the lives of the miners. These pillars can be removed as much as has been removed from the chambers, and in the ordinary way of mining, are as far as possible taken out after all the coal is removed from the breasts and gables. It is stated that at least 30 per cent of the coal is lost by what is known as robbing the mine, but by the mode of striping, every pound of coal can be saved and it worked at much less expense and danger.

Since the removal of the earth from Mr. Pardee's mine, 100,000 tons of coal have been taken out, but this quantity can be increased in 150,000 or 200,000 tons as to the capacity of the works to prepare the coal for market. The only additional work in this way of cutting coal is additional pumps to keep the opening clear of water, the latine surface being exposed to the rain water, in addition to that which is always to be found deep down.

Most of the coal in this basin, which is about four miles from Hazleton, is cut comparatively near the surface, and the operation of striping in various places in the region will be increased and thoroughly pushed as the demand of coal requires it. Of course, with coal in sections where the veins are far beneath the surface, the old mode has to be continued, as the striping process would be too costly; but where it is cut as in the Hazleton region, there is a great saving in the cost of mining after the earth is removed.

James Nolan, of Lost Creek, Schuylkill county, was lately killed by cars, near that place, on Saturday night last.
