ASTOUNDING EXTRAVAGANCE! Sun says the rush for special legislation in the present Congress, of which Secor Treasury has been heretofore known, or even suggested as possible.

By a close computation, made by officers of the House, it appears that 5,-664 bills and 185 joint resolutions have been introduced, involving an outlay of $143 811 036 without counting the allowances that may be made in 1,190 pension

These appalling figures seem to make no impression on the majority. They have initiated a carnival of prodigality and of plunder which throws the revelries of Grantism into the shade, and they a wild debauch of appropriations.
