

The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1922.

Our Neighborhood in Brief.

- Quiet: The streets.
- Dues: Old potatoes.
- Dues: Country roads.
- Tremendous: Next bay rop.
- Always fair: Our barber shop.
- Showing up: Last night of fun.
- Increasing: The foot race fever.
- Breaks out: Lots of new chickens.
- Heavy: Hotel charges these times.
- Bodylives: All hands on the farm.
- Sweet singer: The hungry mosquito.
- The query: "How do you do it, July?"
- Coming: Cheaper garden truck. When?
- To be thankful for: No local ball club.
- Rationing: Breakfast on meat tables.
- Full: Trees with incipient deliciousness.

Genuine devotion: That to the depot on Sunday.

Suspended: Work on the new Bankway sidewalk.

To be envied: The man who always keeps cool.

"Adam's ale" has been superceded by "swee beer."

The next shooting match: The "rifles" of the mower in the hayfield.

Sunder by degrees and beautifully less: A restaurant "renewed."

Waiting his turn: The farmboy near a griddle and a new sythe.

Departed: The village loiterer has ceased to exist; he has gone to work.

Welcome: The moon train on Saturday brought many strange visitors to town.

Too sweet: The rubber and green curran pie makes the family sugar bucket lively now.

Ready: The doctor has restocked his pill-box and awaits the cucumber and green apple harvest.

Thomas Est, a conductor, was run over by an engine at Lost Creek, Schuylkill county, on Saturday and killed.

Hats and caps, an immense variety of all the latest styles, at popular prices, at Clavin & Bro's, Bank street.

The washers have donned summer togs and illumine the street corners very gorgeously these pleasant evenings.

Patrick McAndrew was found dead in the suburbs of Scranton on Saturday, with marks of violence upon his body.

Clocks, watches, jewelry and silver ware for sale, and repairing done at Hergey's Store, Lehighton.

Drawn raw: The early pea holds just a nip and tuck race with the backward summer. The pea, however, has the pole.

Gentlemen's furnishing goods in endless variety—new and bright—at very bottom prices, at Clavin & Bro's, Bank st.

The clothes of the girl of the period, the undress, picnic attire, would weigh about two ounces, judging from outside showing.

The "Devil Fishing" is the title of a little poetical offering on our first catch. When our devil goes fishing the only catches a cold.

The mowing machine will soon begin its lightning amputations and give the resident surgeon a lively tussle for the championship.

The Philadelphia and Reading Coal Iron Company just announced $100,000 for taxes in Schuylkill and Northumberland counties.

Late: Down passenger on the L. V. R. R. due at 11:42 a. m. over an hour, Saturday. Only a few coolers in the ditch up the road—nobody hurt.

Get the Best: A second-hand Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organ, as good as new, for sale cheap. Inquire of F. E. Whitney, at E. & D. depot, this borough.

Awful lie: "All Best" is not "grass," very scarce this year of grace, when due breakfast is 30 cents a pound and five buy $16.00 a ton.

The celebrated N. Y. Lager Beer will be on tap at the Mauch Chunk, Lehighton, Schuylkill 5 cent.

Rev. C. Earl, of Catawagus, will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

John Belgium, aged 40 years, fell from a bridge into the creek at Paros, Luzerne county, on Sunday, and was drowned. He lived near Scranton.

Next Courtwright was waylaid and stabbed, perhaps fatally, by two men while returning home in West Pittston, Luzerne county, on Friday night.

W. H. Knecht, the Weisport postmaster, keeps a full line of Clavin's Cards, suitable for Sunday school rewards of merit and advertising purposes. Very cheap.

On the 24th inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., Henry Wolf, will sell a lot of black iron tools and household furniture, at his residence on Lehigh street, this borough.

James Kinnip has been appointed by the County Commissioners to collect the state and county taxes in this borough, and by our Council to collect the borough tax.

Boots and shoes for ladies, gentlemen, misses, youths and children, of latest style and most substantial make, at lowest prices, at Clavin & Bro's, Lehighton.

Lieutenant Colonel Thomas McNeill, a noted contractor and soldier under Generals in the rebellion, died at Natrona, Luzerne county, on Sunday, aged 49 years.

Never truer: "The petting of the lettuce black" our rural Statington county or any styles the visitors to the late circus at that place "our country owns." Where!

Notwithstanding the high price of beef and potatoes, David Eberhart, at his livery on North street, continues to supply all who apply with excellent teams at very low prices.

Looking a ride: Considerable quantities of tan-bark are being wagoned into town from the adjoining country for shipment from the upper depot to various western points.

For prepared paints, wall paper, books, stationery or fancy articles of any and every description, at very lowest prices, go to E. F. Luckenbach, Broadway, Mauch Chunk.

The Weatherly Herald celebrated its second anniversary last week. The paper is well patronized by the residents and other citizens of that wide-wake little borough.

It is a singular fact that brewers drive better horses, and their horses can wear better harness than the equines with which our worthy grangers tackle the bosom of mother earth.

Miss Lizette Beckett, of Wilkesbarre, is visiting relatives and friends in town, and enjoying a pleasant time amid the hills of Lehighton. She will remain to celebrate the 4th with us.

If you would like to know more about our new machinery, or how to install it, write to us for our free literature.

At the commencement exercises of the Moravian Theological Seminary in Bethlehem on Tuesday the degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon Harry Breckstein, of Scranton.

Dugby Harvest at 125 dollars and upwards. F. Yates, at 125 dollars, includes covers, sheets, collars, white, etc., at the lowest prices, for sale sale by Milton Flury, Weisport, Pa.

Brush up: Teachers who expect to get schools the coming term must brush up sharp. The examination commences during the coming week—the first at Parryville on Tuesday, the 20th.

The New Jersey Central Railroad Company has engaged 1500 tons of steel rail from the Bethlehem Iron Company, which will be used for double track between Mauch Chunk and Treblehers.

We are to be excused from a 4th of July celebration in this borough, and there by are spoiled several accidentous incidents. We have prepared, with thanks left for us, just our luck.

Grafted fruit: M. A. Fagley, our Mauch Chunk fruit tree breeder, dropped into see us on Saturday. He is as full of shaft, fun, and business as ever. Long may he branch, bud, blossom and bloom.

Some time ago there was talk of starting up a street sprinkler. What has been done about it? We have been blessed with a hot enough the past week to cause a movement in the matter.

David Knox, attorney at law, of Three Rivers, Pa., has been the guest of W. M. Ruppner, Esq. of town during the past week. Mr. K., is a good gentleman, and makes friends whenever met with.

And now the local editor sharpens up his pen for the usual galaxy of cholera-morbus, and cucumber items. Some folks may weary at the "cure" or "ber's antics, but it makes the shotters happy.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company have purchased the property of the Butler Coal Company at Pittston, formerly occupied by their coal shafts, with the intention of erecting a new freight and passenger depot.

Dr. J. A. Mayer, the practical Surgeon Dentist, of Broadway, Mauch Chunk, has had a practice over 20 years, and is probably the oldest resident dentist in the valley. The Dr. speaks for himself, and the fact that all the region in the vicinity is given to him is a sufficient guarantee of his superior ability as a Surgeon Dentist.

Every tramp now shows up with a clean shirt on, which indicates that some of our tramps have left the region for the night. The going victory will do it, every time.

A force of forty men have been put to work track-laying on the Nazareth Railroad, at Penn Argyl, Lehigh county. It is expected they will reach Nazareth by July 4 and that the road will be ready for business by August 1.

Baby Carriages—an immense stock, all styles and prices, just received. L. Gabel's, hardware store, opposite public square, Bank street, this borough. Call and we will show you the best baby carriage for your baby. They are nobly!

Favorite roads: Business appears to be always good at Wintermills, both day and evening. With such good and straight roads Rhodes leading there, no wonder our country people are attracted by Wintermills and its immense stock.

E. H. & L. Zeeval, of the Late Nathan Patterson left about $100,000 in personal property. He made no public bequest. He gave only $100 to his sister, Mrs. Thompson, at Mauch Chunk, and the balance to his sons and their families.

The Lower Raush Creek Colliery in Schuylkill county is reported on fire in a breast in the lower west gangway. The coal in this breast is soft and unworkable. Hoops will be taken to confine the fire to that part of the mine.

H. H. Ferras, Ag't.

Have you seen the new and elegant stock of spring and summer merchant tailoring goods, comprising coats, cassimeres and suits, at Clavin & Bro's, Bank street, this borough? If you have not, call at once. Good fit guaranteed at prices to suit you all.

Best Xolol, executive of Jonas Notlman, late of East Penn. twp., dec'd., will sell public sale, on the 22nd inst., horses, cows, hogs, and a variety of farming implements and household furniture. The sale will commence at 12 o'clock.

A fellow from the country on Tuesday called at Sharp's candy stand, says the Catawagus Dispatch, and started in on the bonanza and before his appetite was quenched he had eaten twenty loaves. The fellow undoubtedly deserves the championship of America as a banana eater.

Accused for: Tom Kientop's remarkable pedestrian prowess is accounted for by the astonishing bursts of speed which his paterfamilias, Kientop, senior, has to make off times to reach the mail train. We thought it was hereditary in our clan, this tremendous speed of his.

If you have a cold or cough of any kind, try a bottle of Hill's Perseus Cough Syrup at Dr. C. T. Horv's drug store. Use it all, and if not satisfied return the empty bottle and we will refund your money. He also sells Perseus Worm Specific and Hill's Worm Drops on the same terms. No cure, no pay.

So good: The more grass, the more milk; the more milk, the more butter; the more butter, the more you have to pay per pound; the more money you have to pay per pound, the more money you've got to go to mark—no, no, the analogy ceases when it reaches the butter market.

Holy terrors: The holes, pitfalls, loose planks and general goodness of many of our sidewalks are becoming too alarming to serious matters for joking comments. Our tough daddies should look a little sharper to the comfort and safety of our people who don't travel in fine carriages.

Saturday while John Newton of Prompton, Wayne county, was engaged in painting the residence of Eliza Dano, at Damsburg, that county, the ladder upon which he was standing to reach the high roof, broke, breaking his neck. When found his head was doubled under on his breast.

Henry Gallagher, who was on Thursday convicted in the Lehigh county court of assault and battery with intent to kill Rev. Father Dunagan, was Saturday morning sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment of two years in the county jail.

If there was any little thing more than another that we think the most important and spontaneous profanity from the most pious of earth's humanity, that one diabolism is the profanity of "but." Not then, we believe, our celestial recorder don't count the swear words in thy time.

Problem: If it costs a farmer 50 cents a bushel to raise potatoes, and they sell for $10.00 a bushel in market, what will it cost the average village housekeeper to raise a 200 pound pig on this Irish vegetable, with the family well thrown in? And who'd be the biggest hog, the farmer or the pig?

Mr. Peter Heim, of Third street, has been making very marked improvements to his house and grounds. He has removed the house back about two feet, thus giving an additional breadth to the sidewalk, and added another story to the house. The value of his property will be much enhanced by the change made.

The Colliery Iron Works at Poitaville, have passed under control of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. The consideration was the assumption of a general mortgage of $100,000 on the property. It is the intention of the company to turn the works into general repair shops, giving employment to about 350 hands.

—A square deal: The coal trains, loaded and empty, peeling over the Jersey Central are daily increasing in length and run more frequently than for many months previous. That unfortunate railway has been so much "received" by the Jersey courts and Jersey lawyers that it's no more than fair that it receive a good share of the enormous carrying trade of our Lehigh Valley.

—If you don't believe that Joe DeFrehk can make the Base Ice Cream, give him a call to-morrow night and be convinced.

—A young man named Lowery, while seated with some friends at a country inn near Carbondale on Friday, was challenged by a man named Stebbins, who alleged any man to knock him down at one blow. Lowery struck him a powerful blow on the chest and Stebbins fell dead from a burst blood vessel. Lowery, who intended going to Canada, proceeded on his journey and has not yet been arrested.

—From the Record (Summit Hill), Lansford and vicinity we learn the startling fact that the Presbyterian Sabbath-school, of Lansford, or Summit Hill, or vicinity, well, we declare, the paper don't say exactly where this terrible thing was to happen, and we won't finish the item from fear of creating an erroneous impression there. This publishing a paper prominently about the country is bound to get a fellow mixed, anyhow, in boasting "this town" local.

—Sense: Catawagus now has a free reading room and coffee house, which the same, if rightly managed, will prove a blessing to the village, of permanent and incalculable benefit to its young men, and of pride and satisfaction to its founders. Every manufacturing place in the State, if not every village and borough where license prevails, should be compelled by law to protect its young men in such a manner from the pernicious influences of the street corners and saloons.

—BOW CREAM and STRAWBERRIES at Joe DeFrehk's Saturday night restaurant. A friend who travels extensively among the farmers informs us that he has during the past month often dined at the farmers' houses where they were entirely out of potatoes, and apologized for the absence of the Hibernian staple by observing: "The drought split our dollars last year, and we'll never pay a dollar a bushel for 'em for our own table—not if we never have one in this house." And yet, that selfish farmer now comes poking into town with a little dab of mealy early potatoes, and puts up his innocent mouth and shouts for a square dollar a peck or no sale! "Consistency, this art," &c.

—The total tonnage of anthracite coal from all the regions for the week ending June 3, as reported by the several operating companies, is 411,188 tons, against 438,306 tons in the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 27,118 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined for the year is 10,164,811 tons, against 10,472,943 tons for the same period last year, a decrease of 308,132 tons.

—For the week ending on the 10th inst., 159,324 tons of coal were transported over the Lehigh Valley railroad, making a total of 337,670 tons to date, and showing an increase of 234,350 tons as compared with the same time last year.

—During the 25 days ending on the 9th inst., there were 92,878 tons of coal shipped over the L. & S. R. R., making a total of 758,869 tons to date, a decrease, as compared with same time last year, of 44,218 tons.

By the County Seat.

—Mr. A. D. Jones and Mrs. Hepper, of New York, and Mrs. Agnes, of New Jersey, were the guests of E. T. Lokenbach during last Sunday and Monday. While here they took a ride over the Switchback. They returned home Monday evening, evidently high spirited with the "Chunk" and its surroundings.

—There were only a few trifling and unimportant cases for trial in our Sessions Court, this term, and all were disposed of by Wednesday evening. The court then adjourned until Saturday next. This is an indication that the month of our community are in a very healthy condition.

—The drama of "The Maid of Arrah, or Irish Jolly," was performed in Concert Hall on Wednesday evening.

—Sunday last was spent by nearly all of the churches as "Children's Day," and in accordance therewith, the children, teachers and friends of St. Paul's M. E. church congregated in the audience-room of that church, which had previously been tastefully and appropriately prepared for the occasion by decorating the pulpit and altar most profusely and beautifully with flowers and evergreen. And to novelty and interest to the occasion, several pieces of canary birds were suspended about the room, and they seemed to appreciate the honor conferred upon them, for they made a stir with their melody. After the usual opening service, the pastor, Rev. B. J. Hoffman, preached a short and interesting sermon, the text: "Thine ear is open to the cry of the poor."

—The Altie society of the M. E. church of East Mauch Chunk and the friends and members of St. Paul's M. E. church of this place, by invitation, met at the residence of C. A. Rex, merchant, a few evenings since, to discuss a very agreeable social and pleasant meeting.

—Louis Armstrong is laying copper-pipes from the rear of his dwelling, corner of Hazard street, to Mauch Chunk creek, below the L. & S. Office, to carry off the water of his residence on West Broadway very neatly indeed.

John Solomon, Jr., lately employed in the Lehigh Valley telegraph office here has resigned his position and accepted a similar one in the Jersey Central office at Elizabeth, N. J.

—A convention of the diocese of the Episcopal church for Central Pennsylvania was held in St. Mark's church, this borough, this week. The convention was largely attended. A choir of twenty boys from Reading furnished most excellent music.

—A happy time is coming, for it is now rumored that our borough is soon to be favored with several prominent weddings—and this we joyfully look and keep moving up to the times.

THE JUNE SESSIONS COURT.

The June Sessions Court duly convened on Monday, June 19th, at 10 o'clock a. m., and was opened by the usual proclamation.

Present—All the judges.

After the constables had made their respective returns, the tipstaves appointed, and the grand jury called, sworn and charged by the Court, an adjournment was made until 2 P. M.

Upon reassembling, the Reichard case was heard. Both parties were called upon the stand, and after being heard, the case was held over until Wednesday afternoon for a re-argument. The Court earnestly, tenderly and feelingly advised the parties in the meantime to become reconciled, and hoped that the existing differences might be mutually and harmoniously settled. The parties not having compromised at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, the Court rendered its decision. Alfred Reichard, the defendant, to pay his wife, Hattie Reichard, the plaintiff, the sum of $10 a month for the maintenance of the child; and so remain until the sentence is changed by the Court; and also to pay all costs; and that the defendant be permitted to see the child as often as reasonable.
