

The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1882.

Our Neighborhood in Brief.

—Hips—Cherries.
—Jumping—Vegetation.
—A wet day—The Fourth.
—Coming down—Potatoes, &c.
—Closed—All our stores Tuesday.
—Quiet—Fourth of July patriotic.
—On the war-path—Ye tax collectors.
—On the "shake"—Follows who want to serve their country for a dash consideration.
—Quite a number of teachers were in town last Monday, it being examination day.
—The celebrated N. Y. Lager Beer will be on tap at the Mansion House, Lehighton, Lehighton 5 cents.

—A capital good article—the pitcher of ice cream sent us by Joe DeFroehl, on the afternoon of the 4th.

—T. W. Steigerwald, of East Penn, expects to start his new book mill in the course of the next few days.

—Gloves, Watchs, Jewelry and silverware for sale, and repairing done at Highman's Store, Lehighton. 25-yrs.

—The Lehigh Valley Homopathic Medical Society will hold a meeting in Mauch Chunk, August 9th.

—If you need the services of a dentist, read the card of W. A. Cortright in another column to-day.

—Schoenthaler's Furnishing Goods in endures variety—new and bright—a very bottom prices, at Claus Bro's, Bank st.

—In town on last Monday, our esteemed friend Paul Kreese, of Towamensing took his well and feeling happy.

—Hats and caps, an immense variety at all the latest styles, at popular prices, at Claus & Bro's, Bank street.

—The 4th of July has passed, now bring along your Job Printing, and get it done neatly and at lowest living prices.

—Schroth, Ochsner, a shoemaker, of Tremont, Schuylkill county, dangerously sick but Henry Faust during a fight on Monday last.

—Rev. F. K. Berndt, of Lehighton, preached two excellent sermons in Trinity Lutheran church, Catawissa, on Sunday.—All went well.

—Boots and shoes for ladies, gentlemen, misses, young and children, of latest style and most suitable material at lowest prices, at Claus & Bro's, Lehighton.

—The Masonic Knights Templar of this Valley will, on Wednesday, the 26th inst., run an excursion to New York city and upon the Hudson to West Point and Newburgh.

—Those of our readers feeling any interest in the last scenes in the life of Guiteau, will find our Washington Letter to contain that which will satisfy them in the matter.

—The corner-stone of the new Lutheran church, at Coplay, was laid last Sunday by Rev. J. D. Schindel, of Allentown. The ceremonies were impressive and the attendance large.

—If you want nice smooth, easy shave your hair cut or straightening, go to Frank Roederer's Saloon, under the Exchange Hotel. He will fix you right, and don't you forget it.

—Prof. A. P. Horn was on a visit to his friends and relatives hereabouts over Sunday, and dropped into our sanctum Monday for a chat. The Prof. is looking well, and is spending his summer vacation at Barnesville, Schuylkill county.

—Where are you going, Maggie? Why up to Joe DeFroehl's, to get a piece of his splendid ICE CREAM. (is so nice and smooth) STRAWBERRY, PURE CREAM, and don't forget to take a piece of his cake, so I will go with you, Maggie. Come along then, quickly! This we overheard him say to his Bank street last evening, and thought it too good to keep.

—Thomas Phillips, a miner in the Butler Colliery, at Carbondale, was removing some blasting powder last Friday, when it was exploded by mine lamp on his hat, and he was so badly injured that he died in a few hours after.

—Five designs in box papers, plain and taney! Easels, various sizes, sizes and colors! Books and all kinds of novelties, way books, F. L. Lengenbach's, Broadway, etc. Books, ear tips, lap dashes, screen savers, collars, whips, etc., at the lowest price, for sale by Milton Fury, Weissport, Pa.

—William Hess, aged 60, was found on Monday night in a mire breach, near Shoumash, where he had fallen sometime during the night. He was terribly cut and bruised, and died from the effects of his injuries on Tuesday.

—Baby Carrages—an immense stock, all style and all prices, just received at J. L. Gabel's, hardware store, opposite public square, Bank street, this borough. Call and see them, and you will be sure to buy one for your baby. They are nobly!

—Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "advertised."

—The First National Bank of Lehighton, has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent., payable on the 4th inst.

—Much proud, but very quiet about it—Our young friend Ed. W. Feist, because his better half, on the 27th ult., presented him with a token of her affection—a boy, and a bouncer too, they say. Lemonade, Ed.

—You will find a large stock of the most elegant designs in WALL PAPER and BORDERS, at Dr. C. T. Horn's drug store, in Lehighton's Block, at very lowest prices. Make your selection now.

—C. O. Beck, of Hatleton, and D. B. Beck, of Forest City, Susquehanna county, were both at home on a visit over the Fourth—They look well and are doing finely. They report work plenty and wages good in their respective localities.

—Now soon the howling candidate, With character of snow,
Will mount the stump and wildly prate,
With words of gloom and men
Used to hold in trust,

—Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Philadelphia, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yaeger, on Broadway.

—The ladies and friends of the M. E. church of this place held a fair and festival on Thursday evening, in the lecture room of the church. Proceeds to be used towards purchasing a new library.

—Rev. L. B. Hoffman, left on Monday morning for Cherry Hill, Md., to see his father-in-law, who has been sick for several weeks.

—Engines Hokendauqua was taken to the yards South Eastern, last Saturday, with her headlight and smokestack knocked off. While on her trip to Mauch Chunk Friday night with an empty oil train, she ran into another train of the same kind at a curve below Shillington, the engine of which was knocked into knotting wood, and two Engines were thrown over an embankment in order to clear the track. The flagman, it is said, did not go far enough back to signal the train in time to stop.

—Special Invitation to the Ladies.
Joseph Jones, the popular dress goods merchant, recently returned from a jubilee in India, and having a varied line of fance dress goods of all shades and patterns which he offers for sale at the lowest cash prices. Call and examine my stock. Oberst's building, Bank street, Lehighton.

—Teachers' Examinations.
Teachers' examinations will be held as follows:

Lansford, Brough, July 19th.
Shillington, July 20th.
Packer, Hollidale, July 20th.
Lehigh & Leavenworth, at Rockport, July 21.

The examinations begin at 9 A.M.

THOMAS M. BALDWIN, Co. Sup't.

Spring and Summer Styles.

In his new quarters in the Exchange Hotel building, the undersigned is fully prepared to fitting out with a new and elegant line of men's and women's clothing which must convince the most skeptical that what he promises he can and will perform. His stock embraces the latest novelties in cloths, cassimines and suitings, and is making constant additions to his stock. Draw a line to his new quarters at the Exchange Hotel building, Bank street, Lehighton, H. H. Peters, Agent.

A Brutal Assault.

A young man named Patrick McAn drew, aged 19 years, charged with committing a brutal assault on a young lady named Margaret Burke, 17 years old, living at Girardville, was lodged in prison at Pottsville, Saturday morning. He did not accomplish his object, but unusually treated and threatened to kill the girl if she informed her mother, who had McAn drawn arrested. The affair occasioned quite an excitement when it became public.

—Prof. A. P. Horn was on a visit to his friends and relatives hereabouts over Sunday, and dropped into our sanctum Monday for a chat. The Prof. is looking well, and is spending his summer vacation at Barnesville, Schuylkill county.

—Where are you going, Maggie?

—Why up to Joe DeFroehl's, to get a piece of his splendid ICE CREAM. (is so nice and smooth) STRAWBERRY, PURE CREAM, and don't forget to take a piece of his cake, so I will go with you, Maggie. Come along then, quickly! This we overheard him say to his Bank street last evening, and thought it too good to keep.

—Thomas Phillips, a miner in the Butler Colliery, at Carbondale, was removing some blasting powder last Friday, when it was exploded by mine lamp on his hat, and he was so badly injured that he died in a few hours after.

—Five designs in box papers, plain and taney! Easels, various sizes, sizes and colors! Books and all kinds of novelties, way books, F. L. Lengenbach's, Broadway, etc. Books, ear tips, lap dashes, screen savers, collars, whips, etc., at the lowest price, for sale by Milton Fury, Weissport, Pa.

—Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "advertised."

H. H. PETERS, P. M.

B. Excursion and Basket Pic-Nic.

The 3rd grand annual Railroad Excursion and Basket Pic Nic of Zion's Reformed Sunday school of this borough, is announced to take place on Saturday, July 15th, and will comprise a trip to Bethlehem via the Lehigh Valley railroad, and thence by the beautiful little steamboat to the Calypso Island, one of the most charming spots along the Lehigh river for a picnic, and where the participants will be able to spend some 6 or 7 hours of the day, returning by boat to Bethlehem they will leave for home at 4:30 p.m. The charge for the round trip is only $1.00 for adults, and 30 cents for children under 13 years of age. If you desire to pass a day of real pleasure, and to fail to secure a ticket for this delightful excursion, and help along, at the same time, a good cause. The train will leave Lehighton at 7:37 a.m., on the above named.

Mahoning Valley Items.

—Our farmers are busily engaged in hay making and cutting grain—rather early for the latter.

—Jacob Kistler, his brother and two other young gentlemen were over to West Penn on Saturday evening.

—Profs. A. S. Weber and W. H. Rauch arrived in the valley last Saturday afternoon, and will remain for a few weeks.

—Mr. C. T. Young is at home, having recently graduated at the Keystone State Normal school—standing well up in his class.

—Rev. F. W. Sulz preached for Rev. A. Bartholomew, last Sunday afternoon, at East Penn. His sermon was highly appreciated.

—If you have a cold or cough of any kind, buy a bottle of Hill's Peacock Syrup, Dr. T. Horn's drug store. Use it all, and it will return you the empty bottles, and refund you the money. It also sells Peacock Syrup and Hill's Worm Drop on the same terms. No cure, no pay.

—The long talked about street sprinkler was put on the front street of this borough, last Monday morning, and, after its first trip, worked charmingly. Who says our people are not enterprising? E. W. Class has charge of the "machines," a guarantee that the street will be kept wet.

—Dr. J. A. Mayer, the practical Surgeon Dental, of Broadway, Mauch Chunk, has had a practice of over 20 years, and is probably the oldest resident dentist in this valley. He is a man of great experience, and the fact that all critical work in the mouth is given to him is a sufficient guarantee of his superior ability as a Surgeon Dentist.

From the County Seat.

—Planted out—Strawberries.

—In market—Whortberries.

—Small and scarce—Cherries.

—Much to deer—Meat & potatoes.

—Coming on the 12th—Main's Circus.

—Plenty and spoiling—radishes and lettuce.

—Produce must come down or labor must go up, one or the other is inevitable.

—Frederick Berdolt made a short visit to his friends at Lewisburg, Pa., during the week.

—Last Sunday special temperance services were held in St. Paul's M. E. church and Sunday school.

—Conductor Ed. Horn, of East Mauch Chunk, is again on duty after a month's recreation in the West.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.

—Rev. Kindt, of Parryville, will preach in our church next Sunday.

—The Sabbath school at Sol's church has been discontinued, and one was organized in the church at Pine Run on Sunday last, with W. E. Kenster as Superintendent; J. Harman, Assistant Superintendent, Erwin Krum, Secretary, and Paul Buck, Treasurer.

—Our farmers are busy hay-making, and the next will be the rye.

—The barn of Henry Neob is just about finished.