A DEAR MEAL. The botel and restaurant keepers at Sheep-heads Bay, one of our near-by summer resorts, are not remarkable for liberality. In fact they are somewhat grasping. They charge beavy prices for very ordinary food and, place certain re strictions upon their guests that render it difficult to make a two dollar bill go much further at Sheeps-bend Bay than a fifty cent piece at Hoboken or any other sea-port town within gunshot distance of New York. A few days ago, one of these sharks gave a new exhibition of profes. Of Valuable Real Estate! sional meanness. A half-starved waiter served, to order, a dish of liver and bacon, worth six cents but charged on the bill of fare at 50 cents. The customer did not make his appearance, the dish became cold and the hungry waiter fortified bimself with it. He told the head Real Estate of the late J. A. Hom will be offered for sale: waiter what he had done and the proprietor of the place was summoned. He was $31 in debt to the waiter, and here was a chance to pay the debt without the expenditure of a cent.
