nor-elect Pattison has determined to appoint the Hon. Lewis C. Cassidy Attorney-General of Pennsylvania, and the Hon, W. 8. Stenger of Chambersburg, Secretary of the Commonwealth. A pretty close acquaintance with Mr. Pattinen, almost from the day that he first entered Mr. Carsidy's office as a jaw student, warrants me in snying that when he once makes up his mind to do a thing, he does it just about as he concluded to do it, and the monor the Demceratic politicians of the State understand this the better it will be for all concerned.

There is one thing I mention, not heretofore made public, in connection with Gov. Pattison's Cabinet. When Mr. Maleana Hay of Pittaburgh came to Philadelphia to look after his appointment as Secretary of the Commonwealth, he informed Mr. Fattison that it would give him great pleasure 4 - serve in the Cabinet with Mr. Cassidy, and it was not until forty-eight hours after
