A Great Cause of Human Misery
IS THE LOSS OF MANHOOD

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhea, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impairments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c.—By ROBERT J. C. F. FRENCH, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The well-known author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the usual consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without dangerous surgical operations, blisters, or any other means, and that a cure may be effected, in many cases, in a few days, and in all cases, in a few weeks, and that the cure is permanent, and that the patient is restored to his original health, and is enabled to enjoy life as usual, and to perform his duty as a citizen and a man.

This Lecture will prove a boon to those who are afflicted with the above named diseases, and who are desirous of being cured, and of restoring their health, and of enjoying life as usual, and of performing their duty as a citizen and a man.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Address

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer.

England does a popular remedy in such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. The cases in which it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to the hair, and vigorous health to the scalp, are innumerable.

Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald, keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beautiful glossy lustre, and enables them to do it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS
Has become one of the most important popular toilet articles for gentlemen's use. When the beard is gray or naturally of an undesirable shade, BUCKINGHAM'S DYE is the remedy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

—Every farmer should at least have one copy of this paper, and that paper should be the Appreciator, which contains all the latest local news. Only $1.00 a year.

—They have at last found a way to utilize old eyer cans. It is to make pyramids of them and place a vase of flowers on top. The pyramids are made in your neighbor's back yard.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winstow's Sore Throat Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferers immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no make about it. It cures dysterentia and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, soothes the gums, reduces inflammation and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winstow's Sore Throat Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

—A recent dictate of fashion is important to all married men. It is that small checks will be in vogue for spring and summer suits. It generally takes such large checks.

On Thirty Days Trial.
The Voltaire Belt Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro Voltaic Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are afflicted with nervous debility, loss of vitality and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. N. B.—No risk is incurred, as thirty days' trial is allowed. 537

—"What is philosophy?" It is something which enables a rich man to say there is no disgrace in being poor.

—Work Given Out. On receipt of your address we will make an offer by which you can earn $5 to $7 evenings, at your home. Men, Women, Boys or Girls can do it. H. C. WILKINSON & Co., 196 and 197 Fulton Street, New York.

—A scientist says that a double clerd struck violently on a piano will kill a lizard. No doubt. It will sometimes kill a man.

—Many ladies admire gray hair—on some other person. But few care to try its effect on their own hair. Nor need they, since Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents hair from turning gray, and restores gray hair to its original color. It cleanses the scalp, prevents the formation of dandruff, and wonderfully stimulates the growth of the hair.

—Agricultural item—Never cultivate an acquaintance with a "rake."

—Nothing more delectable does the earth produce than an ungrateful man.—An soula.

—"The same measure will not suit a l circumstances." But Kidney-Wort suits all cases of liver, bowels and kidney diseases, and their concomitants, piles, constipation, diabetes, ague, &c. Try it and you will say so.

—The fruit crop has had its regular killing, and inventors for making eighteen strawberries fill a box, that, presently, engaged twenty-two are eagerly sought after.

Persons recovering from wasting diseases, such as malaria, fever, &c., will be greatly benefited by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters, a true tonic.

—"Blighted Hope" is the somewhat unbusiness-like name of a saloon in Mytver's Ark.

It's better to have loved some girl, it matters not how small.
Then to have lost love's sidly whiff,
And missed both short and tall.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

—A girl at a Chicago wedding fell in paroxysms soon after drinking wine from a glass that her discarded lover had filled for her. He had added arsenic to the beverage because the ceremony reminded him of his own failure to secure conjugal happiness.

—During the year ending Sept. 30, 1882, Berlin had no fewer than 10,433 concert, 5,285 theatrical performances (including 585 masked balls), 164 circus performances, 2,055 declamatory and pantomime lectures, 1,462 minor entertainments (marionettes, &c.), and 57 pyrotechnic displays. On an average public and private amusements numbered 73 a day.

—There is great disgust among a large class of Russians at the prospect of a rise of passports. Under Nicholas a passport cost 500 roubles. Alexander reduced it, with the result that the number of travelling Russians rose from 15,000 to 300,000. The fee is now to be raised from 10 roubles a year for a whole family to 11 roubles a month for each individual.

—"Why They Call Him 'Old Man.'"
"Yes, that's sadly so," said Jenkins, "my hair is turning gray and falling out before its time. You know something? I would, but must hair restorers are dangerous." "True," answered his friend, "but Parker's Hair Balm is as harmless as it is effective. I've tried it, and know. Give the Balm a show and the boys will soon stop calling you 'Old Man Jenkins.'" It never fails to restore the original color to gray or faded hair. Richly perfumed, an elegant dressing.

—At a sale of wines belonging to the late John P. Healey of Boston, some Madeira was brought out that had passed around the world in the frigate Constitution nearly 40 years ago. Capt. John Percival, her commander, while at Madeira, ordered a cask of the best wine to be obtained on the island. This was carried through the rest of the voyage, and afterward bottled.

—An Iowa villager had a wager that a stranger, whose acquaintance he had casually made, could not within six hours win, and marry a young woman who had just arrived at the same hotel. The suitor introduced himself to her, she smiled upon him, a minister was called in, and the ceremony was performed. The couple left in the following morning, with no inconsiderable sum of money. They were husband and wife long standing, and had played the same trick in many places.

—The stage is becoming fashionable in England. Mr. "Reginald Morin," who has transferred his services from the unfortunate Folies Dramatiques to the Royal Theatre, is the Hon. Roger Malynes, Lord Selton's youngest brother. He was a subaltern in the Tenth Hussars before they went out to India, and now holds a commission in the Lancashire Yeomanry. Mr. Walker, another member of Miss Kats-Banley's company, is the son of a Welsh baronet of that name, and the nephew of the late Lord Tredegar.

FARMERS' COLUMN.

How the Japs Raise their Rice.

Rice holds the same relation to the people of Japan that wheat does to the Western nations. It is an every day food, an important article of export to foreign markets, and the source of the common beverage known as "sake," an alcoholic liquor prepared by fermentation. A bountiful yield of rice brings general prosperity, while the failure of the crop results in poverty and misery.

The seed is soaked in water from two to three weeks, and dried in the sun for a few days; while drying, it is covered with mats in the afternoon, in order to retain the requisite heat for sprouting. When sprouting begins to appear, the rice is ready for transplanting in beds. These beds are carefully prepared and liberally manured. Repeated plowings are given before the beds are irrigated, and repeated harrowings make them fine and mellow. The seed is sown broadcast, as evenly as possible, at the rate of 40 bushels per acre. The sides of the beds are banked with sods, which serve as a footway. About ten days after sowing, young plants will appear, when the water is drained off after a day or two, it is allowed to cover the beds for an inch or so. Frequent draining and irrigating in this manner are practiced until the plants are ready for transplanting in the fields. In transplanting rice, farmers take advantage of the wet season, which usually follows the month of June. The fields receive thorough preparation for the young, tender plants. First, a liberal quantity of barn-yard manure is applied, either the previous fall or early in spring, and the fields are repeatedly plowed. About ten days before transplanting, the fields are irrigated, and all lumps of earth pulverized. In Southern Japan, two crops of rice are harvested, or, after harvesting the first, winter wheat is sown; but in Northern Japan, a somewhat colder climate prevents this practice, and the rice fields are used for no other purpose, and produce only one crop.—Agriculturist.

How Best to Preserve Eggs.

Farmers who have large numbers of eggs to preserve, store keepers who take eggs "in trade," and all others who handle large quantities of eggs, depend upon lime-water as a preservative. Casks of various kinds are used to hold the eggs, and some country storekeepers have so many that they require large brick cisterns placed in the cellar, that are cemented, and hold large quantities.

While some immerse the eggs in simple lime-water, others hold that the addition of a small quantity of salt increases its preservative qualities. Those who have had an extended experience, advise slaking a bushel of stone lime and adding water to make 60 to 75 gallons, and four quarts of salt. This mixture is stirred a few times at intervals and allowed to settle. The perfectly clear liquid is dipped off and poured in a cask to the depth of 15 inches; then eggs to about a foot in depth are placed in the liquid, and some of the pickle that is a little milky is added. More eggs are placed in the cask, and some slightly milky pickle is added for each foot in depth. When the eggs are within about four inches of the top of the cask, they are covered with a piece of cotton cloth, and upon the cloth is spread two or three inches of the lime that settled after the slaking. It is important that there be always sufficient pickle to cover the lime on the cloth. The object of placing upon the cloth the lime that had settled, is to keep the water constantly saturated with it. Should some of the dissolved lime be changed into carbonate, more is at hand ready to be dissolved.—From the American Agriculturist.

Notes in General.

—Hellebore sprinkled on the floor at night destroys cockroaches; they eat it and are poisoned.

—It is said that clover sown last year has passed through the vigorous winter and spring unharmed. The stools show a cone of the usual sign of life above the ground, and are starting thrifflly.

—Much of a farmer's success will depend upon his forethought. Map out your work, lay your plans and follow them as far as practicable. A great deal of manual labor may be saved by good and practical management.

—A potato that has been chilled is totally unfit for seed. Farmers are often at a loss to know why their potatoes do not sprout, when the solution of the mystery would be found in the fact that they were chilled before planting.

—The Department of Agriculture at Washington has no knowledge of the so-called vegetable grape. Acting Commissioner Carman says that the reports connecting the Department with the circulation of seeds of such a plant are entirely erroneous.

—The Canada thistle perpetuates itself chiefly by means of root stalks, which are full of dormant buds, and hence any piece an inch long will send up a stalk. A single plant in an ordinary cultivated field will soon spread all over it by means of the roots.

—Housekeepers in the country and all lovers of country walks should be ready for experiment when the first fruit trees begin to blossom. A handful of fresh apple blossoms put into the tea ready will give the tea the flavor and perfume of some of the finest Russian teas. The apple is a country cousin of the tea plant, and much of the scent of imperial teas comes from mixing these with flower blossoms.

—A very delicate and easily prepared dessert can be made of chocolate, and as almost all persons are extremely fond of chocolate, it is very safe. Take one and a half pints of milk, three squares of baker's chocolate grated in the first, let it come to a boil. When cool add the yolks of three eggs, three tablespoons of corn starch, one cup of sugar, prepare the whites of eggs with sugar for frosting, brown nicely and serve cold.

—O, see the young girl,
In beauty like a milkmaid,
Bearing her hair
And her young man,
At the piano there,
Hard as he can—
Bearing his air!
A young mother stands
Oppressed with care,
With slippers in hands
Bearing her heir!

THE NEW PATENT DUST-PROOF Stem Winding Open Face Case, MANUFACTURED BY THE
American Watch Co.,
WALTHAM, MASS.

This case is formed in one solid piece without joint or seam, opening in front only thus avoiding the usual Cup, and securing greater strength and durability.

These Watches are all open face. The bezel, into which an extra strong crystal is fitted with an especially prepared water proof cement, is attached to the case by screwing it thereon, and thus forms an air-tight junction with the body of the case which is proof against dust and moisture.

To railroad men, travelers, miners, lumbermen and others who are almost constantly exposed to the watch, these qualities are of the utmost importance.

The Following Letters Tell Their Own Story:

"VALDOSTA, GEORGIA, July 20, 1882.
"I sold one of your Patent Dust Proof Cases about ten months ago, and the other day it came back to me with the request to make it wind easier. On examination I found that the stem was bent, and I inquired into the cause of it. The gentleman stated to me that he was starting some saw logs that had lodged in the bend of the river, when his chain caught in a bush and threw his watch into about twelve feet of water, and he was about two hours finding it. When he got it out it was running and he thought all right. In about three months he found that the stem was hard to turn and sent it to me.

I can say that the watch is all that the company claims for it and recommed it to all railroad and mill men.

B. W. BENTLEY."

"CLINTON, IOWA, April 29, 1881.
"I wish you would send me a spring for the Wm. Eilery Watch * * * By the way this Elery is a watch I sold in your Screw Bezel Case long time ago. The first of January he lost the watch in the woods, and found it this week in about one foot of water. It had lain three months and never in snow and water, but with slight injury to the watch—only a hair-spring.

C. B. HAYMOND."

The above were very severe tests, and demonstrate beyond a doubt, that for any reasonable length of time during which a watch might be under water it would receive no injury whatever.

We make these cases in both gold and silver and are PERFECTLY DUST-PROOF STEM-WINDING WATCH CASES. CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO PRODUCE ITS EQUAL. For sale by all first-class jewelers.

"Well, Pat," said an Orange Physician to a complaining Irish patient some years ago "for that pain in your chest you had better go home and put on a mustard plaster. I can't think this minute of anything better. And by the way," added the doctor turning to a friend, "I wish somebody would invent a real good plaster—something actually helpful for such cases as Pat's. Maybe they will sometime, when its too late for us to use it."

When BENSON'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER was placed on the market about ten years ago the doctor's hope became a fact.
