THE FRONT-GATE.

An old and crippled gate am I, And twenty years have passed Since I was swung up high and dry...

Then in due time, a lover came— Brought me my ruin— A dapper fellow, brown by name.

My lot was happy for a year, No courting night or day— I had no thought, I had no fear.

Up in a city garret, on a hot June day, A weary woman leaned back in her chair, and pressed her fingers against the eyes...

From the street far below her, a voice had only that moment soared upward, calling "Strawberry-ees! strawberry-ees!"

And as if by magic, her thoughts turning backward had carried her to Deepdene, the home of her youth, and a certain lovely June day in her sixteen year...

"My husband?" "Why, yes! I heard that you were married very soon after you went to the city."

"You heard wrong, Maurice! I have not been married. I have never even thought of such a thing."

"But you said it and went to Colorado, said Hester, wonderingly. "At least I heard so."

"I was a fool, too, Hester; for I went to Colorado, and I was quite ready to sell. But my brother-in-law, from the city, persuaded me to rent it to him for one year, till I had time to think the matter over."

As for the book she has utterly forgotten it. She needs it recompense no longer, and she is far too busy to care or wish for fame.

AN ESSAY ON ROLLER SKATES.

The roller skate is a wayward little quadruped. It is frolicsome and more innocent looking than a lamb, but for interfering with one's upright attitude in the community it is perhaps the best machine that has appeared in Salt Lake City.

One's first feeling on standing up on a pair of roller skates is an uncontrollable desire to come from together. One's foot may start out toward I know not where as one promptly strikes out for Arizona.

There are different kinds of falls in vogue at the rink. There are the rear falls, and front falls, the Cardinal Wobblers, the fall one across the other, three in a pile, and so on.

Skates are no respecters of persons. They will lay out a minister of the Gospel or the Mayor of the city as readily as they will a shirt-coated, one-eyed, unrepentant boy, or a girl.

When one of a man's feet starts for Nevada and the other for Colorado, that does not separate him from the floor or break up his fun. Other portions of his body will take the place his feet have just vacated, with a promptness that is surprising.

The equipment for the rink are a pair of skates, a cushion, and a bottle of liniment.

"The largest pair of shoes that I ever sold to a lady," said the merchant, "numbered nine. There are two sisters; one wears eights and the other nines. The oldest sister," he continued, "tried to squeeze on a pair of eights, but without success. Finally she gave me an order to make a pair of nines, and they really look well on her feet."

"What is the difference between the foot of a Southern lady and that of a Yankee woman?" we inquired. "The difference is the same as the difference between the foot of a Southern man and a Yankee. Southern feet are narrow and bowed in the middle, giving them a very high instep. The Yankee foot is spread at the toes, and has more surface. There is much grace about the foot of a Yankee lady, but it lacks the suppleness of the Southern foot. Its merits are its exquisite shape, small heel and strength. Compare the walk of a Southern woman with the walk of a Yankee woman. The little heel catches the sidewalk, and the gaiters sound like the click of a telegraph instrument. The Southern woman walks languidly and makes long steps. The feet make the difference. Let the Yankee girl attempt the step of the Southern lady, and she would turn her ankle!"

—Vermont proudly boasts of a citizen lately deceased, who "had attended 167 funerals."

—Queen Victoria has ordered a large brass, bearing an eulogistic inscription in memory of John Brown, which is to be placed on the walls of the Prince Consort's Mausoleum at Frogmore. A bust and a statue are also in preparation, and an elaborate monument is to be placed over the grave, and a "cain" on one of the adjacent hills.

THE CARBON ADVOCATE.

—A pilot which a Cincinnati woman said was the one her husband threatened to shoot her with proved to be a bear's foot.

—A member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, a physician, too, has discovered that "small pox is sent by the Almighty as a judgment upon land monopoly, money monopoly and transportation monopoly."

—Notwithstanding much has been said about the importance of a blood purifying medicine, it may be possible that the matter has never seriously claimed your attention.

—A remarkable peculiarity of the natives of Southern China is that the great toe of each foot is separated from the others like the thumb of the hand, and can be used in much the same manner, although not to the same extent.

—It has been said that a Jude never whistles, but a specimen has been discovered in Chicago which permits itself occasionally to whistle Yankee Doodle!

—A prominent and successful merchant says that when he is tired and wants rest, he doesn't go off on a tour and spend money, but just takes his advertisement out of the paper.

—A French lady, during the siege of Paris, driven by famine to eat her pet dog, was finishing "Poor thing, how he would have enjoyed picking these bones!"

—A Pawnee City man wrote to a grocer: "Please send me by herer two pounds of sugar, a blackin brush, five pounds of coffee, and some little nall. My wife had a baby last night—about two pudlocks and a monkey-wrench."

—An Indianapolis lady was bitten, in testing a pet Minkite kitten, before a day ended, St. Jacobs Oil cured him, and with it mother are smitten.

—The latest programme at a birthday party is not to bring any presents, but to drop a half dollar in the basket on the centre table, with which the lady, in whose honor the party is given, will buy such presents as suit her best. This is an improvement on the old plan.

—I have been using ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER for a number of years and always with marked benefit. I have been much troubled with Muscular Rheumatism, but have been cured by five of our best physicians without receiving any relief whatever. I then used ALCOCK'S PLASTER on the parts affected and I can assure you that the pain has almost entirely left me. I am recommended to use it in every case of the best plaster made. I have tried other kinds but found them worthless.
