the United States in the census year.

—Suliman Pasha, it was said, is not dead, but living in exile at Bagdad.

The Battered Army Surgeon.

It was in war times. The Quartermaster of the Fourth New York Artillery was nearly dead with dysentery. The surgeons did their best for him, but at last gave him up. Lieut. Davis, who was a well known surgeon in Canada, N. Y., volunteered to do his duty with Perry Davis's Pain Killer.

In a few days the Quartermaster's sufferings were over, and he was on duty as before.

A new trade paper named the Corset announces in its prospectus that it has come to "stay."

"A little child of 7 or 8 said that when the Bible speaks of "children's children," it must mean dolls.

"What a world of misery married men would avoid if they could only refrain from watching their wives. Stop it.

Payetteville, Ark.—Rev. T. J. Reilly and chills with entire satisfaction."

"A Mobile merchant is named Dan-rich. He has been north where he would run for the United States Senate.

—One hundred negro women in Oklahoma county, Miss., were asked to name the President of the United States and not one could tell.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla has such concentrated, curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and surest blood-purifier known.

—Charles Moon, of Denver, swallowed a live bull frog, six inches long and two inches across the breast, and afterwards drank a pint of whiskey. It killed the frog.

—An old Georgia lady, of great experience, says that children born on the decrease of the moon are more apt to be girls and those on the full moon are boys.

—The Boston Post asserts that Miss Annie Gesander, of Milwaukee, is the only woman switch-tender in the United States. That's all the Post knows about hair dressing.

The Scarlet, Cardinal Red, Old

Gold, Navy Blue, Seal Brown, Diamond

Dyes give perfect results. Any fashionable color, 10 cents.

—A Washington paper asks, "What is work?" Why, it is not that thing that always frightens a tramp, or a duds?

ple who are not supposed to be the recipients of charity.

—A granite monument is to be erected at Andersonville, Ga., in memory of Federal soldiers who are buried there.

—An Austin boy came home from school very much excited and told his father that he believed all human beings were descended from apes, which made the old man so mad that he replied angrily: "That may be the case with you, but it ain't with me—I can tell you that, now."

Rescued From Agonizing Death.

New York.—Mr. James White, 1552

Broadway, formerly chief instructor in Dickie's Riding School, in this city, said to a newspaper reporter: "I broke my shoulder, arm and elbow, splitting the socket in four parts. Rheumatism set in and I employed the best physician. He tried everything, but I grew worse, and at last he said:

"I have one more thing to try, and if that
