

Our Neighborhood in Brief.

A popular question—Got your gems?—Lively—Our town last Saturday night—Work is steadily going on at the new road house.

—Disagreeable—The weather during the fore part of the week.—A severity of dwelling houses is complained of in Harford.

—The new depot of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Wilkes-Barre, is to be built of brick and stone, and will be 250 feet in length.

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

Deaths.

—Robert D. Smith pleaded guilty in the United States District Court at Philadelphia Monday to a charge of having purchased letters with postage stamps at Stratton, Lehigh county. He was sent to the penitentiary for a year and four months.

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

Jury List.

List of jurors drawn to serve at next term of Court, commencing June 11, 1923.

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

Packerton Rippled.

—The public schools close this week. Owing to the measles and the scarlet fever the attendance was not so large during the last few weeks as would otherwise have been.

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

Pastor-Armbuster.

—The marriage of Mr. M. J. J. Pastor to Miss Annie Armbuster, took place at St. Mark's church on Wednesday afternoon of last week, at 2 o'clock.

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

The Lehigh Valley Infested with Eight-Waymen and Housebreakers.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Times, who has made a tour of the Lehigh Valley, writes from Easton that highwaymen, housebreakers and professional thieves are holding high carnival in the valley.

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Songs never Sung. "How does that verse run? Something like this, isn't it?"

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household,

—An exciting one-hundred yards race between Bina and Beverly, local runners, took place at Shenandoah, Thursday evening, at 7:15, at the presence of a large crowd.

—The sermon which Rev. Mr. Spurgeon preached in London, on Sunday last, was published in full in the Philadelphia Press, and appeared in Monday morning's edition.

—The majority of our store keepers have determined to keep their places of business closed on Wednesday 20th inst.—Decorations Day.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.

—The boy stood on the gallery floor at the nativity scene shown at the Lyceum on Monday night.