Travel to Saratoga has been less this year than for the past fifteen years. At the United States Hotel, where they say a man has to give satisfactory evidence that he is worth at least a million before he can gain admittance, two weeks ago they had three hundred guesta and four bundred waiters and servants. The Windsor Hotel, which is Judge Hilton's amusement, would have closed but for the effect it would exert on the prestice of Saratoga. The Grand Union Hotel has been doing fairly well, but it is only half filled. The Clarendon and the Congress Hall have been doing about as well as any. The former is a great resort for politicians, while the latter is entirely given over to Jews principally from the West. A Gentile here feels bymeelf utterly lost in the wilderness of hookes uoses, diamonds and loud talk. The ponruess of the season is the cause that the proposed regatta between Hanlon. Lee.
