

'Original Cheap Cash Store'
An invitation is extended to the Ladies to call and see our beautiful line of Dress and Sateen Cloths.
We think that our stock surpasses anything in this part of the Valley for finish, quality and price. Remember, we handle nothing but the most reliable make of these goods. As a result we are able to sell them at a price that will give you the most for your money.
Cartoons of Velvets, and the prices on Velvets this season are much lower than last season.
We opened this week a large and handsome line of Black Silk Fringes,
all new, New Patterns. Just the thing for the season.
J. T. NUSBAUM,
Opp. Public Square, Bank Street, Lehigh- ton, Pa.
June 9, 1883-17.
The Carbon Advocate.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1883.

Our Neighborhood in Brief.
—Miss Royer, of Cherryville, is the guest of Mrs. E. B. Kuntz.
—Save money by buying your watches of E. H. Hohi, Mauch Chunk, Pa.
—For the week ending on the 5th inst., 146,441 tons of coal was transported over the L. V. R.R., making a total of 1,329,273 tons to that date, and showing an increase of 214,585 as compared with same time last year.
—If you want nice, smooth, easy hair your hair cut or shampooing, go to Franz Roederer's Saloon, under the Exchange Hotel. He will fix you right, and don't you forget it.
—Eugene T. Henry, one of the pioneers of the great iron industry at Scranton, died at his home in Oxford, N. J., a few days ago.
—GO TO ROSEBERG'S, IN OBERT'S BUILDING FOR AN EASY SILENCE.
—Frank Kierke, of Tobyhanna, Monroe county, went home the other night and had a quarrel with his wife, after he drew a revolver and fired two shots at her. One of the balls entered her right breast and penetrated to her back. The wound will probably prove fatal. Kierke was arrested.
—A lot of good second hand watches for sale at S. Hagan's store, Bank street, Lehigh-ton.
—Rev. J. L. Myers, a Methodist minister of Branchdale, near Pottsville, who was charged with having eloped with the wife of R. L. Rice, returned to Pottsville on Saturday and publicly denied the accusation. He says he knows nothing whatever of Mrs. Rice's whereabouts.
—Best make of Horse Shoe Nails for 20cts a pound by the box at J. L. Gabel's.
—On last Thursday, John Sherman, aged 16 years, employed as a driver, was killed in a colliery at a driver, was killed in the stomach by a mule. The injury was thought at the time to be trifling, but proved fatal as he died on Sunday morning after suffering intense pain.
—An increase of Clocks, Watches and Jewelry at Hagan's store and a decline in the price of watches. The latter is due to no false statements in advertising.
—On Saturday the Court of Common Pleas at Wilkesbarre, sat aside the usual session on February 10, to Eckley D. Cox, of Calnora M. Doring's estate in 2000 acres of valuable anthracite coal fields in Luzerne county, thereby reversing the title in Deringer. The sale was made to C. Cox in the absence of Deringer, who had fled from these lands in dated June 5, 1877.
—A dollar saved is two earned. Get E. H. Hohi's latest reduced prices on watches, also see his immense stock.
—The Shenandoah News lately published a story to the effect that Miss Maggie Cox, of Brownsville, was desecrated by her intended on the wedding day. The story is now said to be untrue in every particular, and the young lady has brought suit against M. E. Doyle, editor of the News, for libel.
—Ready mixed paints at J. L. Gabel's for $1.25 per gallon.
—The Thomas Iron Company at Hohen-daupus is blowing out three furnaces. The reason alleged is the dullness of the iron market, the company declaring that at ruling prices the cost of production is not covered.
—Indian Department, Washington, D. C. I am anxious to introduce Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup among my Indians, having used it myself for several months and think it one of the finest remedies I ever found. I assure you, it is the only thing that ever relieved me of a protracted cough brought on by exposure while on the Sioux Commission last year. A. O. BOONER, Agent for Kansas and U. S. Commissioner.
—Henry Scholl, aged nineteen, residing in Apenyville, a suburb of Allentown, made a desperate attempt to commit suicide early this Monday morning. For some time he has been subject to epileptic fits and threats to take his life if he felt another such attack coming on. After the attack on Monday he lost his head with a hatchet and cut his throat with a razor, but doctors were called at once and he may yet recover.
—I have purchased an immense stock of Wall Paper as job, and will give the people of Carbon county a change of color at wholesale prices. Don't miss this chance. E. F. Luckenbach, 61 Broadway, Mauch Chunk.
—Another batch of suits, instituted by the employees of the Bethlehem Iron Company, was tried at Allentown on Saturday. As in the former cases the Allentown jury judged in favor of the employees.
—Lewis' Best White Lead at $7.00 a hundred at J. L. Gabel's, for cash.
—The American Agriculturalist (English or German edition) and the Carbon Advocate will be sent to any address on receipt of two dollars. The price of the Agriculturalist $1.50.—Go to Hazeman's store, Lehigh-ton, Pa. to get the leading genuine American watches as he has in stock the finest foreign watches which the people here have been so extensively swindled.
—A grand palace for the use of President Harry Park, is in course of construction at the Valley Shops, South Easton. When finished it will be the finest ever built by the Lehigh Valley Company. The carriage, partitioned into a sitting room, two bedrooms, a dining room and a kitchen, will be sixty feet long by nine feet four inches wide. All the rooms will be magnificently upholstered and the kitchen will contain all modern appliances.
—HUNDREDS Write they owe their life and present good health to Lehigh's Best White Lead. For more information apply to J. L. Gabel, or to C. T. Horn, Lehigh-ton, Pa. or E. A. Horn, Weisport.

—A number of our subscribers who get the ADVOCATE through the mail seem to have forgotten to pay up, as a gentle reminder of their delinquency we this week mark a cross (X) opposite the direction tabs on their papers, and trust that they will respond with the cash at once. Postage is now reduced to two cents, hence they have no excuse for delaying.
—The miller, who, by mistake, put his autumn-laid wheat instead of a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup a bottle of his dye, wants to know the law to commit suicide.
—We desire to thank Mr. P. J. Meelan for a copy of the Harrisburg Patriot, containing an excellent editorial upon the Ultimatum from the pen of a prominent Philadelphia Republican.
—Mr. J. F. Werner, Justice of the Peace of Lansford, was in town on Monday and dropped in to see us.
—Magnificent assortment of gold watches at E. H. Hohi's, Mauch Chunk.
—Miss Annie Derhamer, of Bethlehem, is home on a visit to her parents.
—Richard Clapp, a miner, and Anthony Clapp, a driver, in the White Oak mines, Scranton, were instantly killed by a fall of rock on Friday last week.
—10d. to 40d. nails of J. L. Gabel's for only $3.00 per keg. Locks $2.75 per doz.
—The house occupied by Patrick Gillin and owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, near the Elliptown Colliery, Mahanoy, was burned Friday morning. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. Loss, about $400, no insurance.
—Mrs. Gately, an elderly woman, who resided near the water station, Westley, was run over and instantly killed by a coal train at noon on Friday last. She was trying to cross the track by crawling under the cars when the train began to move and she was struck by the wheels passing over her head. The coroner's jury decided that the death was purely accidental.
—Attention, farmers! If you are in need of a watch, just call on E. H. Hohi's prices for good, genuine American watches. A look costs nothing, at Mauch Chunk.
—The Directors of the Lehighton fair grounds have adopted the suicidal policy of not allowing any more foot racing in the fair grounds unless the management take the entire gate receipts. They must be an innocent set if they imagine that any race will take place under these conditions. Had they faced a price for the use of the grounds they would have displayed a little more common sense.—Saratoga Hill Record.
—Pure Linseed Oil, at J. L. Gabel's, 68 cents per gallon for cash.
—Deacon Joseph L. Bauer and G. E. Kamp, whose new advertisement may be seen in another column, have decided upon remaining in this borough during the winter. The access attending their professional efforts has already surpassed their highest expectations, and they hope, by increased attention during the coming winter, to sweep away most of the chronic ailments and all of the smaller ailments from this region of the county.
—William Evans, of Tombsville, was published in the report for the month ending on Friday night at 9 o'clock by two unknown men. Mr. Evans was stabbed in the forehead, robbed of his watch and chain, valued at $55, and a sum of money. He was pulled into the bush off the road and lay in an unconscious state until morning. He is now confined to bed and under the doctor's care.
—E. H. Hohi's latest reduced prices of watches, also see his immense stock.
—The senior class of the Mahanoy Colliery will try to induce Governor Bulfinch of Massachusetts, to lecture at that institution.
—Charles W. Clemons, who was born in Germantown in 1830 and for thirty years has been one of the most prominent business men in Pottsville, is dead.
—The 143rd Pennsylvania Volunteers will have a reunion at Hill House, Luzerne county, on Nov. 7th, the anniversary of the regiment's departure for the front.
—Hon. John B. Storm, of Stroudsburg, will lecture at Lehigh-ton, on Tuesday, November 27th. His subject will be "Education, its necessity in a Republic."
—For a good silver railroad watch E. H. Hohi's prices cannot be beat.
—John Ryan, aged 40, while walking on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad near Gilberton, Saturday night, was struck by a train and fatally injured. Ryan and two friends had just completed arrangements for a trip to Ireland. He has a wife and several children.
—The little Polish boy who was run over by an engine at East Mauch Chunk last week was taken to St. Luke's Hospital. His leg was amputated below the knee. The lad is doing well.
—J. L. Gable has just received three car loads of Phosphate which he is selling at $30 and $35 per ton.
—Mr. Davy Ebert, unlike Sam J. Tilden, is always ready for the campaign, whether a presidential business or a picnic raid on the Lehigh Gap. David, unlike most men who "swap horses," is virtuous, and therefore happy. He has been getting by his teams, wagons, carriages, buggies, and sleighs in the very finest styles for the coming season, and never fails to give satisfaction to those who patronize his lively stable, whether the object be one of business or pleasure, or a drive to a surgical operation. Just call and see him.
—EVERYBODY looked by a guarantee. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are given immediate relief. Price 25 & 50 cts. Sold by Dr. Horn, Lehigh-ton, and E. A. Horn, Weisport.
—Charles Clark, of Lock Haven, was fortunate enough, during a recent fit of sickness, to vomit a black snake 8 inches long. The boy is thirteen years old, and it is presumed that the snake was "taken in" when very small whilst Charles was taking a drink at some favorite spring.
—One of a great many instances: "The gold watch I bought of E. H. Hohi was so good, that I carried it to the city of New York. I am satisfied that you deal justly, and I will remember you. T. L. Mansford, Justice of Lehigh-ton, Pa."
—Col. J. F. Sanford will lecture before the County Institute on Monday evening, November 20th. His subject will be "Walking in Rome." It is one of his most interesting and humorous lectures and will draw a large audience. The Institute will be held in the Presbyterian Church, in Lehigh-ton.

—On Thursday morning of last week three men were seen hastily jumping into an empty freight car that stood in the Hasleton yard of the Lehigh Valley Co. C. A. Smith suspecting, quickly, looked the fellows in and went for a policeman. While he was gone E. C. Young was told in they had been locked in for a job. He acted good Samaritan and let them out. When Smith returned with the officer he was mad. The men were tramp who had robbed a clothes line. Good Samaritan, Young, was arrested for trespass.
—Frederick Dreher, at one time a resident of this place, but recently of Treoskov, was accidentally killed near Jessaville, on Monday evening. He was driving a wagon loaded with furniture, when he accidentally fell from his seat, and the wheel of the wagon passed over his body, causing a most instant death. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his sudden taking off. The remains were brought to this borough for burial on Wednesday afternoon. His family has the sympathy of our community in their bereavement.
—Mrs. Thomas Cooh who was terribly burned Thursday morning last week while boiling apple butter, died Tuesday evening after intense suffering. Just before her death she requested her daughter, who was to have been married on the 25th inst. to a prominent young man of Pottsville, to have the ceremony performed at her home. An elegy was written for and the ceremony, which was solemn and impressive, was performed at the bedside of the dying woman, who expired almost immediately after.
—There was an animated discussion on Tuesday morning in the Wyoming Methodist convention at Wilkesbarre over the desecration of the Sabbath. Rev. Dr. Smith was opposed even to having milk on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Woodruff begged to differ with Mr. Smith. He thought it necessary to get milk, which could be paid for on Monday. Sunday newspapers Mr. Woodruff rudely denounced, styling them the devil's personnel.
—The Department of Agriculture has received information of the breaking out of pleuro-pneumonia among cattle in Lehigh county and the proper authorities are investigating the matter.
—Mr. Joseph H. Fuller, of Catawago, was married on Thursday last week to Miss Ella V. Kern, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kern, of Blain, Pa. The ceremony being performed at the residence of the bride's parents by Rev. W. J. Peters, pastor of the Reformed Church of that place.
—Dear reader, have you noticed "the song little store," just above the Mansion House, run by Charles H. Rhoads, age 27? He keeps on hand everything from a pair of shoes to a bag of flour, and is selling at astonishingly low prices. Just you drop in and see how cheaply will "trade."
—Daniel Strasser, of Shamblin, has three sons, one of whom, while playing with some companions on Monday of last week, fell and broke his leg. On Tuesday the second fell from a tree on the mountain while gathering chestnuts and broke his leg. Wednesday the third was knocked down and run over by a wagon and had a leg broken.
—At a meeting of the trustees of Lafayette College, Friday afternoon, Rev. Dr. J. M. Knox, of Bristol, was elected president to succeed Dr. Cattell, whose resignation goes into effect on the 25th of this month. Dr. Knox is regarded by his colleagues as a very able man in the pulpit, and for five years pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, subsequently went to Philadelphia, and for many years has been at Bristol.
—Our young friend Mr. H. A. Keiser, teacher of the New Mahoning school, was in town on Wednesday evening and made us a very pleasant call.
—John L. Sullivan, formerly manager of the Lehigh Athletic Club, of Pottsville, will lecture this winter on "Ninety Minutes on Base Ball, or the Science of the Sphere."
—William McDonnell and Charles Briggs were in town on Friday last, on their way from Lehigh-ton to the Lehigh Valley Colliery, near Gilberton, where they were engaged in the coal trade.
—E. H. Hohi's latest reduced prices of watches, also see his immense stock.
—The senior class of the Mahanoy Colliery will try to induce Governor Bulfinch of Massachusetts, to lecture at that institution.
—Charles W. Clemons, who was born in Germantown in 1830 and for thirty years has been one of the most prominent business men in Pottsville, is dead.
—The 143rd Pennsylvania Volunteers will have a reunion at Hill House, Luzerne county, on Nov. 7th, the anniversary of the regiment's departure for the front.
—Hon. John B. Storm, of Stroudsburg, will lecture at Lehigh-ton, on Tuesday, November 27th. His subject will be "Education, its necessity in a Republic."
—For a good silver railroad watch E. H. Hohi's prices cannot be beat.
—John Ryan, aged 40, while walking on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad near Gilberton, Saturday night, was struck by a train and fatally injured. Ryan and two friends had just completed arrangements for a trip to Ireland. He has a wife and several children.
—The little Polish boy who was run over by an engine at East Mauch Chunk last week was taken to St. Luke's Hospital. His leg was amputated below the knee. The lad is doing well.
—J. L. Gable has just received three car loads of Phosphate which he is selling at $30 and $35 per ton.
—Mr. Davy Ebert, unlike Sam J. Tilden, is always ready for the campaign, whether a presidential business or a picnic raid on the Lehigh Gap. David, unlike most men who "swap horses," is virtuous, and therefore happy. He has been getting by his teams, wagons, carriages, buggies, and sleighs in the very finest styles for the coming season, and never fails to give satisfaction to those who patronize his lively stable, whether the object be one of business or pleasure, or a drive to a surgical operation. Just call and see him.
—EVERYBODY looked by a guarantee. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are given immediate relief. Price 25 & 50 cts. Sold by Dr. Horn, Lehigh-ton, and E. A. Horn, Weisport.
—Charles Clark, of Lock Haven, was fortunate enough, during a recent fit of sickness, to vomit a black snake 8 inches long. The boy is thirteen years old, and it is presumed that the snake was "taken in" when very small whilst Charles was taking a drink at some favorite spring.
—One of a great many instances: "The gold watch I bought of E. H. Hohi was so good, that I carried it to the city of New York. I am satisfied that you deal justly, and I will remember you. T. L. Mansford, Justice of Lehigh-ton, Pa."
—Col. J. F. Sanford will lecture before the County Institute on Monday evening, November 20th. His subject will be "Walking in Rome." It is one of his most interesting and humorous lectures and will draw a large audience. The Institute will be held in the Presbyterian Church, in Lehigh-ton.

County Court Business.
October term of Court convened in the Court House, at Mauch Chunk, on Monday morning at ten o'clock. Judges Foster and Meendren were on the bench, and, during the absence of Judge Dreher, the returns of variables were received, after which an adjournment was made until one o'clock.
In the afternoon Judge Dreher and Associates were present, when the Grand Jury was sworn and the session formally opened.
The first case called was that of the Commonwealth (John Dotter as prosecutor) against Sophia Andrews, for charged disturbance. After a short deliberation the Court dismissed the case, allowing to each party the privilege of paying bail the costs. A petition was presented by Attorney Siewers and L.Ville for the discharge of a man named Evans, as insolvent. At June term he was guilty under the charge of formation and larceny. He claims that he is unable to support the legitimate child, although his wages are $50 a month. Most instant debt. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his sudden taking off. The remains were brought to this borough for burial on Wednesday afternoon. His family has the sympathy of our community in their bereavement.
—Mrs. Thomas Cooh who was terribly burned Thursday morning last week while boiling apple butter, died Tuesday evening after intense suffering. Just before her death she requested her daughter, who was to have been married on the 25th inst. to a prominent young man of Pottsville, to have the ceremony performed at her home. An elegy was written for and the ceremony, which was solemn and impressive, was performed at the bedside of the dying woman, who expired almost immediately after.
—There was an animated discussion on Tuesday morning in the Wyoming Methodist convention at Wilkesbarre over the desecration of the Sabbath. Rev. Dr. Smith was opposed even to having milk on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Woodruff begged to differ with Mr. Smith. He thought it necessary to get milk, which could be paid for on Monday. Sunday newspapers Mr. Woodruff rudely denounced, styling them the devil's personnel.
—The Department of Agriculture has received information of the breaking out of pleuro-pneumonia among cattle in Lehigh county and the proper authorities are investigating the matter.
—Mr. Joseph H. Fuller, of Catawago, was married on Thursday last week to Miss Ella V. Kern, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kern, of Blain, Pa. The ceremony being performed at the residence of the bride's parents by Rev. W. J. Peters, pastor of the Reformed Church of that place.
—Dear reader, have you noticed "the song little store," just above the Mansion House, run by Charles H. Rhoads, age 27? He keeps on hand everything from a pair of shoes to a bag of flour, and is selling at astonishingly low prices. Just you drop in and see how cheaply will "trade."
—Daniel Strasser, of Shamblin, has three sons, one of whom, while playing with some companions on Monday of last week, fell and broke his leg. On Tuesday the second fell from a tree on the mountain while gathering chestnuts and broke his leg. Wednesday the third was knocked down and run over by a wagon and had a leg broken.
—At a meeting of the trustees of Lafayette College, Friday afternoon, Rev. Dr. J. M. Knox, of Bristol, was elected president to succeed Dr. Cattell, whose resignation goes into effect on the 25th of this month. Dr. Knox is regarded by his colleagues as a very able man in the pulpit, and for five years pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, subsequently went to Philadelphia, and for many years has been at Bristol.
—Our young friend Mr. H. A. Keiser, teacher of the New Mahoning school, was in town on Wednesday evening and made us a very pleasant call.
—John L. Sullivan, formerly manager of the Lehigh Athletic Club, of Pottsville, will lecture this winter on "Ninety Minutes on Base Ball, or the Science of the Sphere."
—William McDonnell and Charles Briggs were in town on Friday last, on their way from Lehigh-ton to the Lehigh Valley Colliery, near Gilberton, where they were engaged in the coal trade.
—E. H. Hohi's latest reduced prices of watches, also see his immense stock.
—The senior class of the Mahanoy Colliery will try to induce Governor Bulfinch of Massachusetts, to lecture at that institution.
—Charles W. Clemons, who was born in Germantown in 1830 and for thirty years has been one of the most prominent business men in Pottsville, is dead.
—The 143rd Pennsylvania Volunteers will have a reunion at Hill House, Luzerne county, on Nov. 7th, the anniversary of the regiment's departure for the front.
—Hon. John B. Storm, of Stroudsburg, will lecture at Lehigh-ton, on Tuesday, November 27th. His subject will be "Education, its necessity in a Republic."
—For a good silver railroad watch E. H. Hohi's prices cannot be beat.
—John Ryan, aged 40, while walking on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad near Gilberton, Saturday night, was struck by a train and fatally injured. Ryan and two friends had just completed arrangements for a trip to Ireland. He has a wife and several children.
—The little Polish boy who was run over by an engine at East Mauch Chunk last week was taken to St. Luke's Hospital. His leg was amputated below the knee. The lad is doing well.
—J. L. Gable has just received three car loads of Phosphate which he is selling at $30 and $35 per ton.
—Mr. Davy Ebert, unlike Sam J. Tilden, is always ready for the campaign, whether a presidential business or a picnic raid on the Lehigh Gap. David, unlike most men who "swap horses," is virtuous, and therefore happy. He has been getting by his teams, wagons, carriages, buggies, and sleighs in the very finest styles for the coming season, and never fails to give satisfaction to those who patronize his lively stable, whether the object be one of business or pleasure, or a drive to a surgical operation. Just call and see him.
—EVERYBODY looked by a guarantee. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are given immediate relief. Price 25 & 50 cts. Sold by Dr. Horn, Lehigh-ton, and E. A. Horn, Weisport.
—Charles Clark, of Lock Haven, was fortunate enough, during a recent fit of sickness, to vomit a black snake 8 inches long. The boy is thirteen years old, and it is presumed that the snake was "taken in" when very small whilst Charles was taking a drink at some favorite spring.
—One of a great many instances: "The gold watch I bought of E. H. Hohi was so good, that I carried it to the city of New York. I am satisfied that you deal justly, and I will remember you. T. L. Mansford, Justice of Lehigh-ton, Pa."
—Col. J. F. Sanford will lecture before the County Institute on Monday evening, November 20th. His subject will be "Walking in Rome." It is one of his most interesting and humorous lectures and will draw a large audience. The Institute will be held in the Presbyterian Church, in Lehigh-ton.

Republican Convention.
At eleven o'clock on Saturday morning the Republican State Convention, at Mauch Chunk, was called to order by E. M. Mulhearn, Esq., Chairman of the Republican County Committee. The convention then adjourned and re-assembled at one o'clock p. m., when the following officers were elected: President, A. P. Carter, of Kutztown; Vice-Presidents, R. E. Gilman, Lehigh-ton, and E. B. Beahm, Mauch Chunk; Secretary, Wm. Henry, of Lehigh-ton, and E. M. Mulhearn, Mauch Chunk. The following delegates were present and handed their credentials to the secretary: E. Mauch Chunk—R. E. Gilman, J. M. Smith, E. M. Mulhearn, J. L. Laffer, L. Horn, Lehigh-ton—J. A. Carter, Frank Davis, Lehigh-ton—High Elder, Frank Davis, Capt. Williams, W. C. Henry, Lehigh-ton—R. E. Gilman, J. L. Gabel, B. J. Kuntz, Lehigh-ton—James Colburn, Lower Towing—James Ash, Mauch Chunk, J. Ward—W. E. Tobias, R. E. Beahm, J. A. Remmel, Byron Esler, Lehigh-ton—George M. King, Jr., Lehigh-ton—James Taylor, Lehigh-ton—P. M. Forney, Lehigh-ton—A. D. Christian, Lehigh-ton—Chas. D. Bishop, Lehigh-ton—Samuel Hill—David McCredy, Saml. Wehr, David Rice, Wm. Curtis, Lehigh-ton—W. F. Streeter, of Lehigh Tannery, was nominated for Associate Judge by acclamation.
For District Attorney, E. M. Mulhearn, of the present incumbent, was re-nominated by acclamation. He is very present and thanked the convention for its endorsement of his past record, as evidenced by a large vote.
For County Surveyor, Dennis Bowman and Wm. G. Freyman were named. Mr. Bowman received 17 votes and Mr. Freyman 15. Mr. Bowman's nomination was then made unanimous.
The Committee on Resolutions, Messrs. R. E. Gilman, J. M. Smith, J. L. Laffer, and James Ash, reported their resolutions which were read and adopted.
Delegates to the next State Convention were named: R. E. Gilman, J. M. Smith, J. L. Laffer, and James Ash.
A number of resolutions to the following effect were then adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of a protective tariff; (2) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (3) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (4) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel; (5) it favors the repeal of the tariff on iron and steel.
The following resolutions were adopted: The Republican party of this county (1) in full accord with the Republican party of the State on the tariff question, and believes fully in the principles of