The Rural Home, ONE YEAR,

For Only $1 75.

THE purest, brightest and most popular Weekly for the Farmer and his family is THE AMERICAN RUBAL HOME, published at Rochester, N. Y., under the same management that founded it in 1870. Many of the founded it in 1870. Many of the ablest Agriculturists and Horticulturists write for it; its Eight Ample Pages are always brimful of practical information, and of fresh original miscellany of the highest character. It is, in short, the model journal for those who dwell in village and country homes, and should be the first one subscribed for after your local paper, Although THE RURAL HOME is but One Dollar a year—marvellously cheap for such a well illustrated and superbly printed sheet—we have superbly printed sheet—we have made special arrangements whereby we can club it with this paper at a neice for both materially reduced. price for both materially reduced.
