not to look toward that particular part of the kitchen where the big fish-garmon grew in a painted tub, when Ursula and Ursula had gone there to look at the new scotch beds, just opening out.

"It seems like a dream," said Ursula, nostalgically, as she and Stephen together stood at the window, watching the moon waltz through the masses of straggling clouds.

"Grandfather and grandmother provided for the dear old home all our own; you back here, faithful and unchanging, and our wedding to be in February. Oh, how can I ever be thankful enough?"

While Grandfather Hall was saying the same thing by the fire-side, "We shall keep Thanksgiving to-morrow, with good reason, eh, mother?" he uttered.

And old Mrs. Hall answered, fervently: "I shall keep Thanksgiving all my life!"

The Horse Kicked Him. The horse is a noble animal, and one of the best friends of man. Yet no man wants even his best friend to kick him, in the back. Mr. Libby, of Lowell, Mass., received such a kick from a horse in 1865.

CHARACTER IN SMOKING. Said a cigar dealer: It is twenty years since I began to sell tobacco, and in that time I have closely studied the character of my patrons, forming my conclusions from the kind of company they keep.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I got a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute. "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup.

Not a drink, not a drop of medicine, not a single word of advice, but the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

It cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and croup.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it will relieve even the most distressing cases not already beyond the control of medicine.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.
