Thank God, Evacuation Day is over, the blore of the brass instruments is ended, and the rattle of the drum is sitenced. Such a conglomeration of brass bands has not been heard of in this city since the b gioning of its history. Every musical organization, not alone in this city, but throughout New Jersey, Porladelptia, Baltimore, Albany, Trey and places along the Hodgod was engaged. The vetetan Tammany Society had actually to send to Urica, a couple or handred miles away to get a band They had been a lit is slow in making their airangements.
