That is, we do not self a certain lot of goods below cost to eatch your own the custom. No, but we use our self-rested for a leader. Our self-se are by for the largest in own them of your own the self-self was a leader. Our self-self are by for the largest in own them of our business mebles us to buy many bf our goods direct from manuscenters and importers, thus saving a profit and afferding us a selection as to quality not usually enjoyed. We were the first Netaliers in this county to adopt the principle of large sales with small profits; the first to set down one uniform piles and say each throughout. Our sompetitors may sometimes, for an object, cut under our prices, but we have found in the long run, that where our customers hought at less than our natures, they found a difference in quality or quantity, which explained the apparent difference in price. It is summed up to the fact that we are always busy when others are often kile and crying "Hard Times."

We invite the public to call and give us a trial so that they may judge for themselves whether, all things considered, we can extend to them greater advantances than they now enjoyr. We extern it no hardshipto show goods and give prices, even if parties do not buy; and all who come, whether moviess or experienced hands, are assured, by our aystem of doing tour are a considered.
