MAYOR POWDERLY, of Scranton, testified b fore the House Committee on Labor at Washington that Hungarians were brought to this country under contract for their labor, and that they returned to their homes after saving small sums of money. This statement is of greater interest for the reason that the facts, as stated by Mayor Powderly, bave been de. led in protectional newspapers.

WENDELL PHILLIPS, the great abolitionss., on the 29th of November, 1811. His father was John Phillips, a man of great wealth and influence, and the first Mayor of Boston. Deceased graduated at Harvard in 1831, and from the law school in 1833, and was admitted to the bar in the following year. He early espoused the cause of the abolitionists, which feeling was intensified by the astracities committed by the Boston Mab d ring the anti-slavery riots in October. 1835, and the following year he openly espoused the cause of abolitionism and relinquished his law practice. In the death of Mr. Phillips the little band of original ab-litionists loses its most heroic and striking figure.

THE Northampton Democratic county committee met at Easton Monday and elected W. H. Garnet, of Bethlebem, chairmen, and E. S. Glanz, secretary. The selection of these candidates is a defeat to the faction w ich has been fighting Congressman Willism Mutchler for showing at the last nominating convention, though it could not overthrow its vision of the pary rules in the county. The main potut is in the proposition to hold separate conventions in different parts of the county on the same day to select candid tes for county : flices, so as to avoid the trading of votes.
