TESTIMONIALS.

Ray. Howard Henderson, his former paster any of him: "He is the prince of the plate form, and has been a Christian and politic anticropist from his beginned. He is terribly in sarnest in his work of reform, yet his humor shakes all the collection in the heart." in extract in his work of reform, yet his humor shakes all the collects from the heart."

Ge rge W. Bain, Esq. has been lecturing in Canada recently, and his lectures have awakened great interest wherever he has epoken. The Brantford Datity Experition says of his risk to this city!

"Wickliffe Hail was crowded from platfrom to the doors instevening. Every available space about the building, even to the gallery and the rending reduc, was occupied, and hundreds left the hell for want of standing room. It was trady a manificen audience, representing the wealth and inwifigence of Brantford. It was evolent from the very beginning that the audience and the orator were well matched - a magnifies tandience and agran orator. He possesses a rare combination of powers. He is logical imaginative, and unctional; and whon he has constructed his argument his imaginative his argument his imaginative planting the services of the work of the work

'Geo. W. Bain, of Kentucky, has no equal to in the work and all who listen to him fee that a good man is plending with them. It is dismely called to the great and gram work in which he is so increananty engage and God honors the work.
