The tariff which the Republicans promised should give us good times has been kept up, but the Republican promise has not been kept. I believe now that the tariff protects the monopolist ten times more than it does the workingman .- Candidate St. John, at Buffalo.

Four years ago the Republican Na tional Committee circulated-the fact was established, though Mr. Dorsey denled it-a bogus extract from a pamphlet issued by the "Free Trade Clab of London," which declared that the suc cess of the Democracy was to be desired in order to bring about free trade and the ruin of American manufacturers. The same eard is being circulated by thousands, with the addition of a paragraph praising Mr. Blains and disparaging Mr. Cleveland on the tariil lama. It is a clumsy forgery. The cause of protection must be in a desperate way. and its advocates must have a flattering opinion of the intelligence of the tank resort to such tricks as this.
