SPECIAL NOTICE.—Persons making

payments to this office by money orders or postal notes will please make them payable at the Westport Post Office, as the Lehigh office is not a money order office.

Our Neighborhood in Brief.

MOSTLY LIES.

Said Jones, who had a very early ride, "I was so tired when I got home that I could not get to bed."

And to make excuse—mostly lies, to use our words—of you must give it a name. We go to sleep by saying "I am so tired."

"I bring my lunch," said Smith elate, "For my restaurant I hate. For my dinner when I'm home at night."

Said Brown: "I'm tough! I never wear an overcoat. I do not feel the cold like those half-frozen chaps weighed down with clothes."

"I never touch a cigar," Green spoke. "They're full of germs and make me cough. For healthfulness or comfort give me my fragrant tobacco pipe."

And to make excuse—mostly lies, to use our words—of you must give it a name. We go to sleep by saying "I am so tired."

—There are 66 anthracite furnaces in operation and 135 out of blast.

—There are twenty-two barber shops in Allentown.

—The Southern Central Railroad Tuesday passed into the hands of the Lehigh Valley Company, which will hereafter operate the road.

—Parties driving through the Mahoning Valley should never fail to stop at J. T. McDONALD'S. He has a royal welcome for everybody.

—All along the world's highway is the evidence that JAWLIN'S Tar Syrup cures all Coughs, Colds and Consumption. Sold by T. D. Thomas.

—It is rumored that many of the young Irishmen who flocked to the Republic ranks fell in Bank township, lately to remain with that party.

—A. D. McLaughlin, a freight brakeman on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was accidentally thrown from a moving car at South Easton Saturday and killed.

—A number of residents of Trexkov were at Mauch Chunk last Saturday, to protest against being taxed on the Jeanoville pond district.

—It is very delicious to the taste, and can be administered to infants without the slightest danger. JAWLIN'S Tar Syrup, Sold by T. D. Thomas.

—Trexler & Heiler, the carriage builders, have just finished a handsome large sleigh, with a seating capacity of thirty persons, for J. H. Yeager, of Mauch Chunk.

—If you want nice, smooth, easy slaying hair, use JAWLIN'S Tar Syrup. It is the most perfect hair dressing ever used. Sold by T. D. Thomas.

—Smith and Brother who have taken Stocker's old stand at Pleasant Corner were granted a license last week. Parties stopping there will find the best of everything.

—Farmers and others who intend to dispose of their real estate or personal property will save money by having their bills printed at this office. Give us a call and be convinced.

—It is far better to be poor and possess a hot stove. The agonizing screams of the child attracted the attention of the mother who sprang to the little one's assistance. The inhuman husband, not content with burning his child, knocked his wife down, but the latter prevented him from doing the little more injury. The man was arrested, and there was talk of lynching.

—The Mahoning hand took a slight ride to Sittler's, West Penn, on last Saturday evening.

—John Shafer and Miss Ellen Heigh were married last week.

—Mrs. Mahon Nohlsheim was visiting at Whitehall, during the week.

—Amos Hess left for Milwaukee on last Tuesday.

—English services will be held in the Evangelical church this (Saturday) evening. All are invited.

—Aaron is building an addition to his barn.

—Frank Koerber, of Rockport, spent a few days in the Valley with friends.

—Salvation Oil is the greatest cure on earth for pain. It affords instant relief and speedy cure to all sufferers from rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, sore throat, pain in the back, side and limbs, cuts, bruises, &c. Price twenty-five cents a bottle.

—Claus & Bro., The Tailors, still have a few of those justly celebrated $10 suitings on hand.

—The Easton Law and Order Society is determined to publish the names of all signers of petitions for liquor licenses.

—Only $10.00 cash for an all-wool Suit at H. H. Peters', Post-office building, Lehigh, Pa.

—For the week ending on Jan. 24, 1885, there was 2531 tons of coal shipped over the Lehigh Valley Railroad, making a total of 854,520 tons to date and showing an increase of 115,800 as compared with same time last year.

—Milton Flory, of East Weisport, announces to the public of this vicinity that he has on hand a lot of Light Havana Cigars, Horse Blankets, Leg Bands, Lined Robes, Whips, Belts, &c., suitable for the winter trade. All of which he is offering at very low prices.

—"What're you doin' now, Bill?" "Teller in a bank." "The deuce what'd you have to do?" "Have to tell when the store needs more coal in it." And just here we may as well tell that David Eberli, kept the finest lot of teams in this section, and let them out at low charges. Livery on North street.

—While Mike Farren was driving down the Parkersburg hill, on last Monday, a chain connected with the wagon became detached and in jumping the wagon to fix it the horse became frightened, started, throwing Mike in such a manner that the hind wheel of the wagon passed over his ankle breaking one of the small bones.

—Samuel N. Stetler, of Scranton, sold the Stetler mine, in Marcy township, Luzerne county, Tuesday, to the Delaware Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company for $200,000. The colliery employs four hundred men and boys. The output last year was nearly two hundred thousand tons.

—Eight day clocks—best makes—sold from one to two dollars cheaper than the same can be bought elsewhere. Have 4000 clocks and manufacturers' need money, at slaughtered prices. Now is the time to secure a good, reliable and pretty clock at an astounding low price. Write me for the details. Keep correct time at E. H. Holt's, Mauch Chunk.

—The prospectors for coal on the Hasler estate, east of the Catholic church, near Beaver Meadow, found a vein two feet thick at the crop under the black dirt, dipping north. This is a promising indication and goes to prove the surface indications that the territory north and south of Mill Run is underlaid with valuable seams of the black diamond.

—The ice has continued very light at a time when it is usually heavy. Southern ice continues to play a part in the regulation of prices in Pennsylvania. Ice, for example, is sold at $14 to $14.50. Mill owners are not encouraged to make heavy purchases, owing to the dull demand for fuel, and manufacturing purposes. Ice is gradually making itself felt in channels which were supplied heretofore with fuel.
