The railroad riots of several years ago should be a warning to the authorities of Pitts burgh to be prepared for the worst, and if necessary they should call promptly for State aid. . We venture to think, however, that the danger has been exiggerated Ly correspondents who were more anxious to send a thrilling letter than to describe the exact situation.

The darkest piece of daylight the citizens of Louisville, Ky., ever saw visited that city just before 9 o'clock Monday morning. A brisk rain had been falling for three hours, and an unusually heavy fog had enveloped the city all the morning. About 8:50 o'clock a sudden gust of wind came from the west, and a heavy mays of black cloud overspread the sky. carnival. The darkness was followed by a drenching rain, which lasted twenty minutes. Small minnows were scattered profinsely in some locali lies after the heavy cloud burst. The sudden shower and the appearance o fish betokened a water spout from the Oulo. Tun U. S. Sanata has passed the Cul-Iom Inter-State bill, which is an indication that it will not pass the Rengan bi of the House. The Collom bill provides for a Board of Arbitration to decide at questions at isane between the railways and remons who think they are unjustly treated by them. This Board is to consist of nine Communicationers, one from each Judicial Circuit of the United States, to hold office for six years and to be paid $7,500 a year cach. All Inter State railways are required to make an nual reports to this Roard. If any com pany shall fail to abide by the Board's decision in any disputed case, the District Attorney of the United States in the district where the offence was committed is required to commence procondings to recover the damages sus tained by the complainants.
