"Original Cheap Cash Store."

Black Cashmeres!

WE think the lowest prices on these goods have been reached, and in consequence thereof have bought a large stock of the MOST RELIABLE MARKS.

WE always have had a very large line of these goods, but this stock surpasses all previous offerings in

QUALITY, FINISH AND PRICE. AN advance on these goods is predicted in the near future, and we are advising all who wish to take advantage of the low prices which prevail to come early as this lot will last

BUT A SHORT TIME. J. T. NUSBAUM, Opp. Public Square, Bank Street, Lehighton, Pa. June 7, 1884.

The Carbon Advocate.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1885.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Persons making payments to this office by money orders or postal notes will please make them payable at the Westport Post Office, as the Lehighton office is not a money order office

Our Neighborhood in Brief.

—He jests at cards, who never felt a "boom!" and a man may stand with his hands on his pockets and laugh at a peer, who wears a coat, but he is a gentleman, he'll slip into the nearest apothecary shop and buy him a bottle of Salvation Oil at the small expense of twenty five cents.

—A new lot of CLOCKS, WATCHES and JEWELRY just received at H. H. Peters', Post-office building, Lehighton.

—The Union Ferry and Medicine Company's Works at Catawissa are being enlarged.

—Next Tuesday will be election day. Bring along your tickets. We will print them cheaply and quickly.

—The most reliable of all Cough Remedies is Jodwin's Tar Syrup. So say the doctors. Sold by T. D. Thomas.

—The Lehigh Fire Brick Works, at Catawissa, have stopped for an indefinite time. Quite a number of hands were thrown into idleness by the stoppage.

—Engine "B. M. Patterson" jumped the track Monday at Westbury, and much trouble was experienced in replacing it on the track.

—A bill before the Legislature provides that there shall be no changing of text books in the public schools other than every six years.

—A Jolly Dutch Landwin's Tar Syrup, sent in a box containing 300 pills, sold by T. D. Thomas.

—Work was resumed Tuesday in the large engine works of the Allentown Rolling Mill Co., and at the Fallston Rolling Mill.

—Mr. John Roberts, of Washington, Pa., has been engaged in opening a new slate quarry on his property near the village of Franklin.

—All along the world's highway is the evidence that Jodwin's Tar Syrup cures all coughs, Colds and Consumption. Sold by T. D. Thomas.

—John Selzer, a stage driver on the line between Pottsville and Millard, committed suicide Friday by taking laudanum. No cause is assigned.

—Previous to removal, you can buy "Coughing" long. We remain only three weeks longer in town.

—First Store above Nanticoke, Pa. Muehl, Clerk.

—The "Hartford" Piano Agency, permanent by John Selzer, is now open. We rather think it will be the follow-up to the "Hartford" Piano Agency.

—It is very delicious to the taste, and can be administered to infants without the slightest danger. Jodwin's Pine Tar Syrup. Sold by T. D. Thomas.

—William T. Roberts, one of Allentown's oldest citizens died on Sunday week, of chronic diarrhoea, at the age of 76. He came to this country from North Wales in the year 1830.

—Samuel King, late treasurer of Monroe county, is reported to be $8000 short in his accounts. He is a prominent producer of coal, and his business has been seized by his creditors.

—AT PRIVATE SALE.—Yankin property, including a large tract of land, situated in the township of Lehigh, near the village of Lehighton, Pa. Apply at this office.

—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company, will be held at the Hotel of Fallston, Philadelphia, on the 21st inst., when an election will be held for a Board of Managers for the ensuing year.

—All persons owning Eli Kolbinger & Co., will pay the same and avoid publicity, for we advertise all unpaid accounts for sale in March. 65 Sunapee Street, Mauch Chunk.

—A woman never uses her husband's merchandise until she has had a good look at it. She has a good look at it. She has a good look at it.

—If you want more, you may have your hair cut or shampooed, go to Frau Roscher's Saloon, under the Exchange Hotel. It will fix you right, and don't you forget it.

—A telegram from our esteemed friend P. T. Brady, of Red Bank, N. J., last Monday, informed us of the death of his seven-year-old daughter, Florence, from scarlet fever on Sunday afternoon. The parents have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

People in and out of town.

—The young man who is rash, Cut off his mustache! And get him into a pickle! For the girl, the girl, the girl! Save his never will die. Any lips that are void of a fettle, Dedicated to our young friend "M. G. C."

—Will Ham, of Westbury, was in town last week. —Daniel Medlar spent several days in Mahanoy City.

By order of THE COMMITTEE.

Coal Cakes Wrecked. Friday morning a locomotive pulling a heavy train of coal cars on the Lehigh Valley road, ran at a high rate of speed, near Yaloville a small station two miles from Mauch Chunk, when the engine suddenly left the track, running headlong in a large tank on the side of the track leaving it on its foundation. The sudden jar to the front train was the cause of precipitating twenty coal cars down an embankment, most of which were broken to splinters. The train halted shortly after.

—The track was torn up for some distance and the traffic delayed for a short time in consequence. The accident also threw the Knickerbocker Colliery into, owing to the destruction of the water-tank, which supplied the colliery with water.

—Killed by Revolver's Shaft. —When Daniel Kuhnman, who worked in the Lehigh Valley Iron and Coal Company's rail mill, Scranton, went to adjust the shafting in his drill press Friday morning his clothing got caught in the belt and he was whirled about at a wonderful rate of speed. His fellow-workman witnessed a sad and heart-rending scene which he was struck against a stout beam in his whirling flight. They were also both killed and an arm torn off, while his blood was dashed like rain against the wall. The machinery was brought to a standstill, but Kuhnman was dead and disfigured beyond recognition before he could be extracted.

—Peter Baum, a millwright, employed at W. Fairchild's grist mill, West Nanticoke, met with a horrible death Friday morning. He was engaged in repairing some machinery, when his clothes were caught in the belt and he was whirled about at a terrific rate of speed. Before the machinery could be stopped almost every bone in his body was crushed in by coming in contact with the walls.

—Died on Her Wedding Day. —William Dally and Miss Mary McCrystal, sister of Dr. McCrystal, were married at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Mineville, at six o'clock Sunday evening. The wedding was the fashionable event of the season. The couple held a reception until midnight. The bride complained of feeling badly all day, and at two o'clock Monday morning the young husband married the honeymoon by announcing her serious illness. A doctor, on arriving, said that the case was hopeless, and the priest who but a few hours before had pronounced the benediction at the completion of the wedding ceremony was called to administer absolution. She died at five o'clock Monday morning of paralysis of the heart.
